1. Prologue

A/N: I am putting my other fics on pause at the moment due to updated on my clan sites server. This fic has been bouncing around my head since I first finished Spartan Ops, well it is kinda a AU fic, but not quite. There will be humor, romance and the like. This will not be a crossover fic like the others, this one will revolve around HALO its with Characters that everyone is familiar with. So lets see what happens when a forerunner brings back the dead shall we?

Disclamer: I DO NOT OWN HALO; THAT IS OWNED BY BUNGIE AND 343 INDISTRES. I DO HOW EVER OWN THE OCS AND THE STORY LINE PLOT.

Prolouge: Wake up NOBLE 6

Brittany B-312, didn't know how long she had been sleeping. It felt like an eternety since she had her final stand on the bloodied surface of Reach. She silently cried out of all the people she held dear the bigest mistake was not telling Jun she loved him. The sniper of NOBLE was always there with something witty to say to bring her out of a stuper or to paise her for a job well done. She always felt drawn to him, maybe it was the passion they shared to strike from the shadows and fade away or the way he talked to her after a mission to keep her from killing Emile. All she knew was she missed him _'Wake up reclamer, your time to return with the others draws near.' _said a voice.

She slowly opened her eyes to see the face of a Forerunner, she went into attack mode "Stand down NOBLE Six."came the command of a familiar, but long forgoten voice.

She turned to see Carter and the rest of NOBLE team and several other spartans she didn't know "So this is the spartan that caused quite the shake up in the covenant."said the one with 104 on his chest plate

"Maybe who are you?"she asked

"Easy there girl I could snap you like a twig." 104 said in a smart assed tone

"I don't know Fredric she can beat my ass."said Jorge.

She looked at the other two spartans with him both girls 087 and 058, there was one other 029 was on his. So this was the famed Blue squad. They were missing 117 "Ah John, I know him. I gave him the strength to stand up to my husband."said the Forerunner

"I guess Forerunners don't believe in devorce."said Emile.

104 chuckled "NOBLE Six is as stuborn and as strong willed like her father."said the forerunner.

104 walked up to her and fell over laughing "I see it she's John's kid. Bastard did get laid!"laughed spartan 104.

She stood frozen to the spot "No wounder she is a lone wolf. Shes like her daddy."said Emile joining the spartan II on the floor in a fit of laughter.

Jorge laid a hand on her shoulder "So all but one of each team is unaccounted for."she said

"NOBLE three and Chief are alive."said a voice

"Cortana?"said the spartan IIs of blue squad.

It was the AI she, Carter, and Emile gave their lives to get to the Pillars "Six, thats why I chose you. Your courage,will, and stubborness riveles that of your father. You like your father would go to any length to get the job done even if it cost you; your lives."said Cortana

"Why are you.."she began

"Human, well lets just say I have a theroy I want to test."said Cortana.

Brittany sighed and sat down "Whats the mission?"asked Carter

"To protect Halsey."said The forerunner.

Earth UNSC HQ

Jun A266 was to go to the Infinity with Wigs to check on Halsey. Lord Hood suspected dirty politics so he being the loyal Soldier got ready

"I miss her."said Wigs

"Miss who?"he asked

"Mamma Six."said wigs.

He closed his eyes, he missed her as well. The way she would use the shadows to make a kill made him fall for her. He always woundered what she looked like under her helmet, but that was a fools dream. She was a Hyper Lethel she could never remove her helmet unless told to do so. He never told her how he felt about her, when he found out she died on Reach protecting the Autumn as it left with the AI Halsey gave her. He for the first time in along time he cried, Wigs ever loyal to those Six called friends stood by his side even when he was in New Mombassa and fought off Brutes to protect the Enginer Vergil. That was the first and only time he was scilent and was an ODST. When Buck found out who he was the Gunny was proud to have him on the team. Now with the Spartan VIs what was left of the IIs and IIIs were commisioned for errans and base security save for Chief.

John-117, Master Chief Petty Officer was being locked up to see what the Forerunner Librarian did to him. He felt something pulling on his leg and he looked down to see Wigs "I miss them too, but her most of all."he said

"We will be late if we don't leave now."said Wigs and he nodded.

Buck and the others were to go with him to The Infinity, at least he had something to fill the void of NOBLE, but it just wasn't the same without them.

That is all for this one please be kind and let me know what you think.

2. Chapter 1

A/N: Here is the first chapter enjoy!

Chapter 1: Jul'Madama and the Storm Covenant

Spartan Thorn and Mjestic had no idea what was going to happen when Palmer shot Halsey. The room was filled with a bright light, and it wasn't from the Storm Covenant either. The construct Halsey came out of is what started the light show, when it ended Spartan IIs and IIIs stood there "HEY SPLIT LIP HANDS OFF THE OLD BAT!"yelled the one in the black scout armor.

Permethians came out of the wood work and the new spartan arrivles went into attack formation "NOBLE TEAM BLUE SQUAD ENGAGE!"yelled the commando.

Halsey threw him half of the key as the leader of the storm covenant left with Halsey.

Brittany, looked at the 'New' Spartans "Is it just me or does the new armor look UUUUGLYYYY?"asked Emile

"You said it I didn't"said Fredric-104.

The leader by the look of her walked to them "Who are you and what are you doing here?"the female commander snapped

"We're NOBLE their Blue squad, I'm Carter NOBLE teams leader."said Carter

"I don't believe you."said the commander

"Its true Commander Palmer, the Librarian brought them as well as myself back."said Cortana removing her helmet

"Cortana? Is that really you?"asked Palmer

"How is it said again...oh now I remember. In the flesh."said Cortana

"I think we should get back to the Infinity, forgive my behaveor. Halsey sided with the Storm Covenant."said Palmer

"No, she used them to get us and the key which you only have half of."said Kat.

This was going to be a long day, she could tell especially when everything began to shake.

Jun and Buck looked out of the opservation deak, "The Infinity, should be back sometime tomorrow."said Buck.

Jun looked at the ODST, and nodded as the Grunt that wormed her way into the hearts of everyone in the UNSC came bouncing up. Litterly bouncing "MIKEY!"both he and Buck bellowed.

That was the last thing he needed was a hyper jacked up on cofee grunt, six would come back from the afterlife to kick his ass for letting it happen thirty-seven times in the past four years and six months. Wigs lept into his arms and cuddled into his chest "Daddy."she said.

Wigs wasn't stupid, she wouldn't say that infront of six when. Wigs was a lot smarter than the verage grunt, she was brave(A rearity),loyal, respectful, and fearless. The grunt always was armed with a Magnam, and she didn't care if you were a grunt fighting alongside the old Covenant or UNSC grunts. You always showed her respect or she'd let you have it. Six rubbed off on the gunt, that was for damn sure. He held wigs as she fell asleep her drooling into his uniform shirt. Buck snickered and looked at Vergil who tried to catch the bouncing grunt "Shes fine Vergil, don't worry."he said.

He looked out into the void of space 'I miss you six, I wish I told you a long time ago how I felt. I never would have that chance.' he said.

They had got the hell out of dodge no one was killed, a few wounded. She wound up breaking her arm "Six hold stil."said the Doctor

"I take it her mother was afrade of needles?"asked Cortana

"You have no idea."she growled.

Jorge and the other Spartan IIs had to hold her down as the doctor put pressure on the brake "Does that hurt?"asked the doctor.

She roared and bolted up right decking Fredric and Josh in the nuts. She almost laid out Jorge, as she punched the doctor in the face "Did that?"she retorted and laid back down.

Emile, got a kick out of that and was laughing "Good of you to nominate yourself Emile, hold her down."said Palmer.

She felt a slight pressure and all went dark, the only thought in her mind was to see Jun and Wigs once more.

When she came to and found her way to the bridge, Lasky told her everything he knew about what they all missed "So let me get this right this Flood, nearly killed off the Chief?"asked Jorge

"Yep, but the John is to stubborn and pigheaded like his daughter."said Cortana looking at her

"Daughter?"asked Lasky

"Brittany-B312, Call sign NOBLE Six is John's first and only child."said Cortana

"No wounder shes a badass."said Thorn.

She rolled her shoulders and poped her neck " I took out 3/4 of the covenant attack force on Reach before they killed me."she said shruging.

Cortana rolled her eyes "Her father does that too."said the AI turned Human

"When Cheif left the ship he removed his armor."said Palmer

"Fucking a."said Kelly

"Why?"asked Linda

"I told him he had to decide if he was human or a killing machien."said Cortana

"Well he chose to be human."said Palmer

"Knowing Chief, hes probably climing a wall looking for something to kill."Fred joked

"Not from what I found out, Sir I just recived this message from Colonel A266."said Roland.

Her eyes widedned "Jun, a Colonel? What is the UNSC coming to these days?"said Emile

"Jun, out ranks you commander."said Jorge

"This is going to be awkward."said Carter.

Lasky looked through his pad and he growled "Dirty politics is right Hood."said Lasky.

This did not sound good, dirty politics was always a bad thing no matter what year it is, she looked at Carter "Well we are to get to the Eternal and pick up the Colonel and his hand picked team with the UNSC's favorate Grunt in tow."said Lasky.

Wigs? Was her baby still alive? Emile looked at her "Oh, boy Mamma Six is happy her baby is alive and her closet fag."said Emile.

Thank the Librarian that she was wareing her helmet or she'd be blushing like a bride on her wedding day "Captian permision to leave the bridge?"she asked

"Granted Six, go get some rest."said Lasky.

She left the bridge and went to her quarters, and removed her helmet when Spartan Grant knocked on the door "Enter."she said

"Are you alright?"asked Grant

"Just a little nerves about seeing an old team mate."she said

"Colonel Jun A266? Well from what I have heard about him, he is scilent. They say he lost his true love on Reach."said Grant.

She froze, had Jun changed because of her death? She didn't want to think about it, all she wanted to do was see her Wigs again "Other than Jun, my adopted daughter. Wigs."she said

"The Grunt Wigs? Your her adopted mother?"asked Grant

"Yes, when I first found her; an eliet had just killed her eleven brothers and sisters. Her mother died in labor, for some reason Wig's mother saw something the others didn't, she had protected wigs and gave her to me. I raised her at first the Commander and the others thought it was a bad idea. She found her name when GSGT. Edward Buck glued a wig on her head to be mean. Wigs didn't care she just wanted hair."she said.

Grant chuckled "So she grew on your team?"asked Grant

"She did, especially when she came running in with her methain tank on with a wig on her head sreaming ESKIMO PIEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEE!."she said laughing at the memory.

Grant laughed at that too "I would kill a grunt wareing a wig screaming Eskimo Pie at the top of her loungs."said Grant

"No one could, and if someone did mess with her if I didn't get you either a NOBLE or an ODST would."she said.

Grant soon left her to be alone, she hoped Jun hadn't changed. She wanted to tell him everything, she just hoped that she didn't have her father's not good at showing emotion issue or she was fucked.

Jun laid in his bed and looked up at the cealing "Six, I wounder. If you would have lived would you lay beside me. After we made love? Would you whisper you love me?"he asked the scilent room.

He closed his eyes and fell asleep.

That is all for this chapter soon the NOBLEs will be united once more.

3. Chapter 2

A/N: Here is chapter 2 everyone.

Chapter 2: NOBLE and the Colonel **

Brittany woke to Emile's ugly mug two inches from her face, so she flicked the psycho on the end of his nose "Damn six, I didn't know you were a 10 under the armor."said Emile

"HLV, Emile I could never remove my helmet or armor unless I was asleep."she said sitting up as he moved

"Damn, Jun is stupid for not making a move."said Emile.

Her hair kept her eyes hidden from view as they widened "How would you know?"she asked

"When he baked you a cake."said Emile laughing.

Flash Back

Reach 2552

_ Brittany had just laid down to rest when there was a knock on her door "Who is it?"she asked_

"Jun."came the reply.

She reached over and put her helmet on and went for the door, she opened it to see Jun standing there with a German Chocolate cake. How did he know "Is that what I think that is?"she asked

"Yes it is. I baked it earlyer and wanted to give it to you before the black hole got his knife on it."he said.

Jun was blushing lightly she smiled under her helmet "Thanks Jun."she said

"Your welcome."he said before Emile ran by and shoved Jun into both her and the cake.

The way he fell forward she had no time between him and the cake until his face landed right between her breasts. Her helmet hid her blush as Jun, covered in Chocolate coconut icing hauled as afrade to get killed by her hands. If anyone died it would be Emile, but not Jun. The feeling in the pit of her stomic was something she had never felt before. She cleaned up the cake and went to take another shower only to be stopped by Kat "Emile, did this."she said as walked in to the shower room. Kat tried to stop her, but she found out quick why.

_Jun had beat her to the punch and was naked as the day he was born.

Oh how the fates were crule that night._

End of Flashback

"I never got to eat that cake thanks to you."she said.

Emile laughed and left the room "You might want to go with out the armor."said Emile and the psycho was gone.

The Eternal had just docked inside the Infinity, something felt diffrent somehow. He went to the Bridge and was greeted by Captian Lasky

"Colonel, I am sorry but Halsey is in the hands of the Storm Covenant."said Lasky

"Why?"he asked

"The Admeral in charge of ONI wants her dead. Palmer followed the order and I sent Mjestic in to save Halsey. Next thing I know there are four spartan IIIs and five more Spartan IIs that came back with them."said Lasky

"Wait did you say Spartan IIs and IIIs?"he asked.

Lasky nodded "NOBLE Team and Blue Squad."said Palmer.

NOBLE! Jun looked at Lasky "Were are they now?"he asked

"Wargames room."said Palmer.

He looked at the commander "Take me there now."he ordered then turned to Lasky

"I want a full report Captian, Hood is going to have ONIs ass now."he said as he followed Palmer.

Brittany had taken out all of her teammates and her father's team "Damn, could you imagen if she had a kid."said Josh

"Oh yeah, scary."said Linda.

She learked in the shadows when she saw a bright colored pink wiged head enter the room "Is that a Grunt with a Wig?"asked Fredric

"Small fry!"cried Emile running for her daughter.

Wigs dove out of the way and looked at him "You big boy, remember fried rice and egg roll make combo."said Wigs

"And Its got jokes."said Josh laughing.

Emile plucked Wigs up and tossed her into the air "Kat flying wig."said Emile.

Kat caught wigs and tossed her to Carter, Jorge saw her in the shadows and smile. The Spartan II of NOBLE caught Wigs and tosses; her over to where she stood. She caught her little squirt and smiled as her eyes lit up "Mamma."Wigs whispered

"I'm back and I will never leave you again."she replied.

A familiar handsome face entered the room and he stood gawking "Whats the matter Jun, Six got your toung?"asked Emile.

She put wigs down "OFFICER ON DECK!"she said.

Everyone snapped to attintion and quick, Jun looked Shellshocked not that she could blame him. He looked around trying to find her "Six, step out to where I can see you."he said.

His voice sounded colder, Jun had changed. He lost the only thing he saw as a family back on Reach and now with them all alive he didn't know what to say ot how to react. She did as the Colonel ordered and steped out of the shadows with a Wigs attached to her leg.

He saw her step out of the shadows, his six. His shadow princess, back from the dead. He so badly wanted this second chance, but he couldn't do it. He was a Colonel and she was a commander. Each member of NOBLE recived the rank of Commander but two. Kat and Carter were Colonels "Colonel, May I talk to you?"asked Wigs

"Of course Squirt."he said.

Six stood there "As you were."he said looking at her.

He followed at Wigs out of the room "Sir, I think its best you tell them what is going on. They can help."said Wigs

"I can't put them in this kind of danger."he said.

Wigs looked at him "Your scared of losing mother again?"she said

"Wigs now is not the time."he said.

Wigs looked down "I over heard Roland telling Lasky that Chief 117 is Mamma's father."said Wigs.

His mouth droped "Are you joking me?"he asked

"No."said the grunt shaking her pink color wiged head.

He leaned against the wall "Is there something wrong Colonel?"asked a voice.

He turned to see Six standing there "Hello six."he said

"Don't you think thats a little old Jun?"she asked.

The way his name rolled off of her toung sent flames through his body "I'm your a Commander six. Carter and Kat hold the same rank but I am a grade 1."he said.

He looked out of the window "Why not off duty we drop rank."she said.

Jun looked at her unsure of what she was asking him to do, her heart was breaking his eyes once so full of life, were dull with sadness and pain. A pain she had felt for the longest time "Sorry sir I'll leave you alone."she said and she went to the armory.

She left the armory and went to her room and fell onto the bed and cried. She had messed up Jun had changed. There was a soft knock at the door, she got up forgeting that her leg was wraped around her leg and fell flat on her face "Six are you alright?"asked Kat

"I'm fine?"she said.

She was from the fall, but her heart was shattering. Kat opened the door "I know that can't be from the fall six."said Kat

"No, I'm to late Kat. The only person I love has changed. Our deaths effected him so much."she said.

Kat's eyes sofened "Come on Brittany, we've known eachother since ONYX why are you letting Jun effect you like this?"asked Kat.

She looked at Kat "I know its just when on Reach no matter how I tried to avoid him like the pleuge he would always find me."she said

"Oh, no you have it bad."Kat said.

She sat up and looked at Kat and smirked; oh she knew. Kat looked at her and shook her head "I'll knock some since into that bold head of his."said Kat.

She knew Kat would to, it was just that if her fathers old team found out the pain she was going through they would beat Jun to an inch of his life. She stood up and only to trip again Kat laughed at and helped her up "Come on you."said Kat

"I need a drink."she said.

Jun looked around the bar, he had to admit the Infinity had everything. His mind went back to what Six said earler "Hey Jun, you know there is a rumor around ship that some dick head had NOBLE six in tears."said Buck.

He froze; who would hurt her in such away? He would beat the bastard to an inch of his life "Who?"he asked

"From what I hear its a NOBLE a Colonel; a riflemen to hit the nail on the head."said Buck.

He? He was the one who hurt her? He was about to get up and go to her room when Kat came in with a beautiful raven haired chick who had no scars on her face "Hello there."said Buck.

She looked over at him, and he nearly lost it she was saying something to Kat "So thats Six without the armor. What a bombshell."said Romeo.

He fell off the stool and Buck busted out laughing "Rookie fell on his ass."said Micky

"Bite me asshole."he growled.

Micky laughed and shook his head "HEY NOBLE LOOK AT YOUR RIFLEMEN HE FELL ON HIS ASS!"yelled Romeo.

He wanted to dive behind the bar counter as Buck helped him up "Enough, hes already feeling like an ass."said Buck

"Buck, don't make me kick your ass."he said.

She watched Jun fall on his ass "The clumbsyness is all over tonight."she said

"I think he just see what hes been missing." Kat said.

Emile came over drunk "Hey Kat. Whos the babe?"asked Emile

"Emile, you need to go to your room."she said

"Holy shit, Six damn Jun is a stupid mathafucker for not taking you to bed sooner."said Emile.

She felt color rush to her cheeks and Emile busted out laughing and kissed her lips; she shoved him back as Jun came charging up

"Lt. Commander go sleep it off."said Jun

"Hey Colonel Fuck up."said Emile.

Jun's jaw set, Emile was about to find out how much Jun had changed "Emile, you need to stop."said Kat

"No way, Jun has hurt six and bad. I even heard her why do you think I am like this. Jun is no NOBLE he is a piece of shit Hell jumper."said Emile.

She looked at Jun and shruged "So I have dated ODSTs."she said looking at Buck

"Ya know Ed, if her father finds out your a dead man."said Fred.

Buck turned white "Oh it was to get back at that bitch Veronica Dare."she said waving a hand in the air.

Emile's hand shot out and she froze and Kat face palmed, his hand was on her breast. Jun's handsome face darkened as he punched Emile so hard in the face he actualy busted his ass when he hit. She looked at Jun "Feel better Colonel?"she asked

"You have no idea how long I have wanted to do that."said Jun.

She looked at him as they walked over to were the others sat "Any way six how did they get you?"asked Carter

"Well I can tell you this it took them four weeks, two days, sixteen hours and twenty-two point two seconds before they killed my ass."she said

"Bullshit."said Emile

"Its true, I found her. Her body was barely dead for two hours."said

Josh

"Father like Daughter."said Kelly

"It took eight of them to hold me while a ninth stabbed me. Thats okay I stuck the mother fucker that did it as they walked away. It was lovely."she said sipping on her beer.

Emile smirked "So tell us Jun how did you live?"asked Kat

"Josh, I was badly injured I had two hunters and the stunt I pulled didn't help at all."said Jun

"What did you do?"asked Emile.

Jun smirked "I had a lit plasma grenade and baked one hell of a cake. I survived barly using armor lock."he said

"Oh so you pulled a six?"asked Jorge

"Yes I did."said Jun.

Everyone laughed as Buck groaned "Why dose she have to be here?"asked Dutch

"Veronica?"she asked guessing

"Yep."said Jun

"Hello Rookie, Buck, Romeo, Micky, Dutch, and bitch."said Dare.

She chuckled darkly as she took a swig of beer. She finished the bottle and looked at Dare.

Jun could tell Six and Captian Dare hated eachother "I smell a Kat fight."said Emile

"Why don't you crawl back into the hole you crawled out from under."she said.

He looked at got inbetween the two before it came to blows "I am a Spartan I a prodicessor to to you IIs and IIIs have more respect than what you give me."said Dare

"The only respect I have is for my father and his class of spartan."six said.

Veronica laughed "Spartan IIs can't have kids."said Dare

"Then what am I a strange combo of a Spartan II and a Marien?"she asked.

Dare scilenced "My father is 117, chose your next words wisly captian because I out rank you."she said and left the bar

"One beer and she is gone."said Fred.

He just watched her as she left, and then some.

4. Chapter 3

A/N: sorry that I haven't updated sooner, to all of you that have been waiting I have been having babies and kemo sessions due to breast cancer. I will still do what I love until the end.

Chapter 3: Halsey's word

Brittany had returned to her room after her run in with Dare. That bitch had some nerve talking down to her like that. She laid in her bed and staired up at the celing thinking of how Jun had come to her rescue when Emile got a little 'grabby'. The door opened and the light came on "Brittany?"said a Tuyman thick accent.

She looked to see Jun "What do you want Colonel?"she asked still feeling the sting of his words previously that day.

He looked hurt about the way she had reacted 'Good now you know how I felt when you said those words Jun.'she thought to herself.

DXDXDDXDXDXDXDX

Jun had hurt her and he felt like an ass clown for it. He looked at her for a long moment or two trying to find the right words. When he came up short he walked over to her side of the bed and she bolted up. He had changed since he lost her on Reach. He snatched her up by the arms her eyes widedned by his harshness "I never stoped loving you Six."he said and kissed her.

He broke the kiss and left her laying on the bed, he went stright to his quarters and laid down. Had he done the right thing back there? He didn't know what he did know was this he would find out in the morning.

DXDXDXDXDXDX

Spartan Thorn knew what was going on between ONI and the Master Chief 117. It didn't set right with him, he had to tell NOBLE and BLUE Squad. He remembered Halsey's words when he gave her his opion of the Promethiens _"Maybe I was wrong about you."_ she had told him. It had played over and over in his mind. If rumor was true aboard ship NOBLE six was Chief's daughter she would want to save her father.

DXXDXDXDXDXDX

Brittany had been avoiding Jun all morning "NOBLE six."said a voice.

She turned to see Spartan Thorn "Can I help ya Kid?"she asked

"I don't know if the colonel has told you, but after your father's return to earth ONI has had him in lock down. Also I have heard what they have been doing to him."said the younger Spartan.

She felt her anger boiling to the surface "Excuse me Spartan, I have a boot to shove up a colonel's ass."she said.

Jun was sitting down talking with Buck as she walked in "Ah, Hello Six its good to see you again."said Buck

"Good to see you too Edward."she said.

Wigs was in the room and the grunt knew by the way she walked in she was pissed "Ah, Buck. Maybe we need to give Six and Jun some time alone."said Wigs

"I think your right Wigs lets go."said Buck.

Jun looked at her "Look about last night I'm sorry I should have never did that. I could have hurt you."he said

"Its not, about last night Jun. This is about my Father."she said.

His eyes widened "I have been trying to decide rather to get you involved. ONI believes that The augmentations that he recived at the start of his service as a Spartan has made him able to have children." he said.

She stood there "Then why am I standing here Jun?"she asked.

He looked at her "That was before the augmentations kicked in thats what ONI believes anyway."he said looking down.

She walked over to him, tilted his head up to face hers "Jun, your trying to protecting us. We have been through hell yes, but we are Spartans. When one is in trouble the others band togeather."she said.

DXDXDXDXDX

He looked at her, she has so much passion in her words. So she did care for her father "There is no way in though. The ONI building in New York can't be broke into. You would need High secritey clearence just to get in."he said

"We have clearence."she said.

He looked up at her "Kat?"he asked almost afrade of the awnser to his question

"Bingo."she said.

He closed his eyes "And Veronica Dare."he said

"Maybe if given the right motovation, as for the plan let me handle it."she said

"Brittany, you know Carter would flip shit if you took command of an op."he said.

She smiled "Don't worry Jun, this is my father we're talking about."she said.

He just nodded his head as she lowered her head to his and kissed him. His mind was processing if it was real or an illusion, when she broke the kiss she smiled "That is for last night Jun. Sometimes we all deserve a second chance."she said and left him sitting there.

DXDXDXDXDXDXDXDX

Brittany found the rest of the team as well as BLUE squad on the trainning floor "Hey yo Mini Chief!"yelled Fredric.

She heard the door open and Jun coming in with Wigs and the ODSTs under Buck's command in tow "We have a mission."she said

"Six?"asked Carter acting dumb

"What is it Mini Chief?"asked Fredric

"Jun, if you'd be so kind."she said.

Jun steped forward and let out a deep sigh "You are not going to like what you hear."he said

"Get on with it three."said Carter and Jun began.

DXDXDXDXDXDXDX

To say that Jorge and the other spartan IIs in the room were pissed was a major understatement "What is wrong with them?"asked Linda

"This is ONI we're talking about they never play by the rules."said Kat

"Its high time the spartan IIs and IIIs play their game and when we play, they won't like the out come."said Brittany with her arms over her chest.

Brittany went over her plan with the rest of the others, it was perfect "What if ONI is waiting for us?"asked Emile

"They won't be, lets just say that The Arbiter owes Chief a few favors."he said

"I hope your not talking about a split jaw."said Emile

"After the fall of Reach the Elites broke away from the Covenant, The Arbiter lead them during the final months of the war."said Dare

"Let me guess my father, didn't like it."she said

"The Arbiter has great respect for Chief and you Brittany."he said.

She looked at him "The Arbiter was the one who finished you off on Reach after the others left you to bleed out."he said.

She looked at him her eyes wide as she remembered her final moments on Reach "The last thing I remembered was something telling me I fought with honor. That he would end my pain."she said

"Tel' Vadeem he was at the time, then after the ring incident he was striped of his rank in the Covenant and branded with a mark of shame.

Then he was given the Rank Arbiter. Arbiters started out as a high honor with in the sangheili the Covenant twisted it as a mark of shame."said Dare

"You have allies Brittany if you know where to look."said a voice.

He turned to see the ships AI Roland "Sorry if I interoupted any thing, but Colonel you have a priority one message from Lord Hood."said Roland

"I'll take it here."he said.

He just hoped Hood would go with what Brittany had in mind.

5. Chapter 4

A/N: Here is the next chapter and everyone is gathered can they rescue Chief in time? Also this will have mentionings of Brittany's past job and lifesyle.

Chapter 3: The Return of The Arbiter

It didn't take long for Brittany the daughter of The Master Chief to formulate a plan of braking her father out of ONI lockdown. Brittany looked at those around her, she remembered those she lead before. Those who looked up to her and the one she thought of as a sister. If push came to shove she knew where to go, she looked to Wigs who was cleaning her twin Mags when Jun walked in. Jun had began to revert to his oldself when NOBLE was togeather on Reach. He leaned against the wall and looked at her "What is it Jun?"she asked

"Lord Hood as you know gave you the rank of Colonel grade 1 that is above Carter and Kat as well as myself. I do have to advise that you watch how you react. Veronica is on our side. Though I can't help, but wounder as to why Lord Hood would give you that high of a rank."he said

"I'm not going to lie Jun, Kat knows of my past same as Carter and Cortana. Before I became a NOBLE or a Reaper. I lead a group of spartans who's leader is wanted for the theft and tourture of the Epsilon Unit AI."she said.

He looked at her "A freelancer?"he asked stunned.

She nodded "Ever wounder why I looked so familiar? I was the one sneaking down to Reach everyother night after a Lancer Party binge and stun rounding you guys at 500 yards away during the winter just to see how high one of you could jump when shot in the ass."she said smirking

"That was you?"he asked shocked

"Momma, why did you cause so much trouble?"asked Wiggs.

Brittany smiled at the memorie "That was when I didn't worry about if I was going to live to fight another day. That and Jun still holds the record for getting hit in the ass with a stun round."she said.

DXDXDXDXDXDXDXDXDXD

So she was the one that was the literal pain in the ass?! Oh wait until Emile and the others found out. Poor Brittany was in a lot of hot water "You relize that I have a scar from one of those incedents?"he asked.

She looked at him with innoccent eyes "Ooops."was all she said

"Ooops? Thats all you have to say for yourself is Ooops. Brittany, your a real peice of work."he said.

She stuck her toung out at him gave him the bird, oh she was going to pay for that "Wigs, could you go to the mess hall for a while your mother and I need to talk in private."he said.

Wigs nodded and left the room as soon as the door closed on the Grunt's exit he turned his attintion to Brittany "As for you."he said.

She smirked and tilted her head "Your a grade 3 Jun luv I out rank you."she said

"Rank means nothing when we're off duity Brittany."he said using her words or his own version against her.

She stood up, she came up to his chest. He had to admit she had hight on Kat. Kat stood 5' 4 and Brittany stood at 5'9 to 5'10 major hight diffrance. Her eyes the color of the knives they carried. Her perfectly round breasts, her lushus curves, to her long powerful legs. All of her was pefect to his eyes at least. Her lips soft and a light color to her light sunkissed skin. He couldn't help himself, he pulled her into a kiss one she melted into. Her form molding against his own, he dug his fingers into her hair and deepened the kiss. His toung sliping into her mouth and he was in heaven.

DXDXDXDXXDXDXDX

Her knees were weak from the kiss, that Jun was assaulting her mouth with. Her body was being held up by his hard frame as his left hand travled down the curves of her body to rest on her ass. Old feelings form two nights before began to bubble to the surface, she was given a second chance at life and a second chance at love. Jun's face was still handsome, but like most that comes with war it aged some what. Her hand roamed over his body as she moved closer. She felt something hard press against her thigh, and knew that, it wasn't a UNSC issued side arm. He broke the kiss to look down at her "Brittany, if we go any further I won't stop."he said.

His beautiful Jade hazle eyes held the promise of tangled limbs and sheets, something she had wanted since Reach. She threw all doubts and worries from her mind "I don't want you to stop."she whispered.

His mouth latched on to her lips roughly as he backed her up to the bed. This is what she had always wanted and now she was about to have it.

DXDXDXDXDXDXDXDXD

Lord Hood had put the plan in motion if ONI went after NOBLE team they would have a place to go. The door opened and the sight before him made him smirk "Ah, Arbiter. I see you have come to grace me with your presents."he said

"Is it true that there are Ghosts on the _Infinity_?"asked the Sangheili leader.

He nodded "The Librarian brought them back. One of them is John's only child."he said.

The Arbiter looked shocked by the fact that the Baine of his kind's excistance had offspring "You ended her pain on Reach, she looks forward to meeting you."he said

"What does she want to meet with me for?"the Arbiter asked

"She has a plan to free Chief."he said.

This got the Arbiter's attention "When and where?"asked Arbiter.

He leaned forward and wrote down the time,date, and place. He then handed it to the Arbiter "That is two days from now."said the Arbiter

"Then I sujest you meet with her before hand."he said.

He just added fule to this fight and it was badly needed.

6. Chapter 5

A/N: Sorry for this being a bit late but as of late I have been kicked out of my in-laws and moved in with my parents so here is a massive dose of LIMON for you all enjoy!

Chapter 4: What ever may come

Brittany fell onto the bed as she and Jun fought for dominance on who was on top and who wasn't Jun was no strange having many of times waking up with...Natalie he blocked the blond out of his mind she was dead to him. All that mattered was the woman under him, Brittany B312, NOBLE six and what ever her freelancer handle was. She was nothing like Natalie, he was madly in love with her something he had never felt with Natalie. Gods damn it why was Natalie on his mind for fuck sake?! Thats right he was getting ready to make love to her ex-Freelancer pal. With his mind on other things Brittany managed to flip them where he was on his back. She stopped "I know about you and South Dakota Jun. She was stupid for letting someone as kindhearted as you get away."Brittany said

"I take it you know her?"he asked

"Trust me there have been many a times where I wanted to strangle her." Brittany replied.

He flipped her onto her back "Since we are on the subject whom did you sleep with?"he asked curious.

Her cheeks turned a nice shade of pink before she said : "Her twin North Dakota."she said

"I never knew she had a twin sister Brittany your full of suprises."he smirked

"North like you is an excellent sniper, but his name is Nathan."she said trying not to laugh at his mistake

"A brother, I hope he is nothing like her."he said

"North is the reason she left you Jun, Truth is Freelancers aren't suppose to mingle with the UNSC Spartans."she said sadly

"Why is that?"he asked a little upset

"If a Freelancer gets involved with a Spartan the Director sends out Georgia to kill both the Spartan and the Freelancer who committed the act."she said.

He looked for any falsehood in her eyes and found none "She would want you to be happy Jun. She nor North wanted to see your helmet as another one of Georgia's trophies. She did it all to protect you. I took responsibility and escaped after killing Georgia with my own two hands, but not before he took something I carried."she said.

He didn't like where this was going one bit "North's child?"he asked

"Yeah, I never told him."she said

"When you see him again tell him."he replied.

She smiled "That is why I fell for you Jun."she said.

He kissed her when there was a knock at the door "WHAT THE FUCK DO YOU WANT YOU JACK ASSES!"he bellowed

"Damn Jun, what crawled up your ass?"asked Emile on the other side of the door.

Brittany looked at him and smiled "OH...AH... I'LL LEAVE YOU TWO ALONE."said Emile finally when the realization hit that this was Brittany's room.

He looked back down at her "Where were we?"he asked

"I think we were in the middle of making out."she said.

He smirked "I remember now."he said and went back to kissing her.

DXDXDXDXDXDXDX

She had not felt like this with North, Jun was making her body feel things that she never thought possible. His lips traveled down her neck to her shoulder. As his hands went up her tank-top to remove it. She wore no bra at the moment having that she was getting ready for bed. As soon as the shirt came off did her nipples harden at the cool air in the room. Jun's lips found their way down to her collarbone leaving a trail of fire in its wake. She bit back a moan as he took one of her rosey buds and began to suckle on it like an infant. He went to the other breast and gave it the same attention he had given the other. His right hand played with one breast as his left went under the band of her shorts. She moaned loudly when he began to play with her clit through her underwear "Jun...you are waring more cloths than I am."she said.

He stopped and looked down at her "Ooops."he said

"Oops my ass."she said.

He just laughed at her and shook his head as he got up and began to strip slowly. He was being a fucking pussy tease and she was about to jump him and tare his cloths off. The fire inside her burned higher with in her as she saw scars that she knew had never been there before. She his muscular chest, had a scar that he revived post Reach. Her eyes took him in hungerly as he striped down naked, and rejoined her on the bed "Who's over dressed now?"he asked.

She lifted her hips and finished removing her cloths she wanted him to fuck her hard and fast. Only to rest and go back at it all over again.

DXDXDXDXDXDXDX

Emile walked into the room and looked at the Commander "DO NOT SEND ME BACK IN THERE!"he cried

"Why?"asked Fredric a little currious.

Emile didn't want to say, he couldn't betray Jun or Brittany like that. The rest of NOBLE knew what was going on "In other words Fred what Emile is trying to say is leave the love birds alone."said Kelly.

Fredric's mouth dropped "If thats the case we can't let her father know. Especially if he was running around as an ODST."said Fredric

"HEY! HE was a member of MY team Freddy!"said Buck entering the room

"Momma and Daddy need this time alone."said Wigs

"This is their second chance at something they didn't act on and we can't take that away from them."said Carter holding Kat's waist.

DXDXDXDXDXDXDX

Damn how she could send his body a flame. Brittany was giving him the best blow job in the world and he was about to cum already. He had to calm down and take it a moment at a time, she released him with a audible pop and looked at him " You little Vixen."he said as he reached for her to bring her closer to put her on her back.

She avoided him and smirked " And you were a tease striping like that."she said.

He smiled "Well I could have left when Emile came knocking."he said.

She laughed and laid on top of him only for him to flip her onto her back, he couldn't take it he had to be inside her. He positioned himself in front of her entrance and with one well aimed move he was inside her. She gasped and moaned as he thrust himself inside her to the hilt. She was so fucking tight it felt so damn good. He began a slow gentle pace so it didn't end so fast. As she began to move trying to get more sweet friction. He lent down and took her lips as he went a little faster.

DXDXDXDXDXDXDX

Jun felt so good inside her that she forgot what she truly wanted. Soon Jun changed gears from gentle to hard, fast, and passionate thrusts. She moaned and cried his name softly at first as the fire began to burn hotter and brighter as she got closer their mouths consumed the other mixing toung and saliva. She was so close "Jun...I am...Oh FUCK JUN!" she cried as she came.

Her walls tightening around him sent him into overload as he came inside her filling her womb with his hot seed. She was spent as he warped his arms around her flipping them her head rested on his chest. She looked at him "Jun, I love you. I never stopped."she said

"I know my little Storm Cloud."he said as he kissed her lips.

The pair slipped into a blissful sleep.

DXDXDXDXDXDXDX

Jul'Madam remembered the black visored Demon "NOBLE Team and BLUE Team returned, what are you to do now Jul?"asked Halsey

"I will kill the Black Demon again like I did four years ago.

Halsey smirked and said:"Before or after she kills you?"

Jul snarled and looked at his men "THESE RESERACTED DEMONS WILL NOT STOP US WE WILL FINISH WHAT THE GREAT TRUTH AND DIDACT STARTED!" he roared.

Halsey watched as the Sangheili roared in unison if only Jul knew what she was thinking.

7. Chapter 6

A/N: Here is the next chapter folks enjoy.

Chapter 6: Six Vs The Arbiter of Sangheilios

A/N: Here is the next chapter oh and if you see _any words in bold italics it is Sangheili._

Brittany awoke beside the handsome face of Jun looking back at her

"How long have you been awake?"she asked

"Not long.
>Jun replied stretching just then the alarms on the ship began to go off like crazy "Well time to go to work."she said getting up and throwing her body suit on.

Jun threw on his normal cloths "I have to go to my room to change I'll see you in the armory. Rookie is gone and Three is back."he said.

She smiled "Then see you there NOBLE three."she said and headed out the room.

DXDXDXDXX

Jun watched Brittany as she left he smirked and shook his head there was a slight sway in her hips sudjesting another round of passionate lovemaking later tonight. He went to his room and put on his skin suit and made his way to the armory at a full run "Glad for you to join us Colonel how was the pillow talk?"asked Emile.

Brittany popped the bonehead in the back of the head "Leave him be Emily."she said warningly.

He put his armor on as Carter entered the room "Stand down NOBLE and BLUE."said Carter

"What the fuck for?"asked Fred with a pout on his face.

Carter gave Fred a stern look "Because Lord Hood and The Arbiter are gracing us with their presents."said Palmer

"Hi, commander bimbo."said Brittany.

He couldn't help but smile at that "Easy there Brittany."he said

"Why, she is a wanna be spartan Grant and Thorn earn their the right to be called spartans everyone else has to earn that right."said Brittany

"Oh so my choises aren't good enough?"he asked

"Oh this is going to be fun."said Emile

"Shes right sir I haven't earned that right even her father told me I had no right to be called a spartan, one day I will prove myself worthy of being called a spartan."said Palmer as she left.

He looked at Brittany who was giving him the 'what are you looking at' look "You and your father are a pain in the ass you know that?"he asked

"BITE ME THREE!"she snapped

"Easy you two."said Fred getting in between them

"YOU STAY OUT OF THIS FREDRIC!"they both snapped.

DXDXDXDXDXDXDX

Lord Hood herd Jun arguing with someone 'DON'T YOU DARE BRING MY FATHER INTO THIS THREE!'snapped a female voice.

Three groups were creeping out of the room Commander Carter of NOBLE team saw him and froze. He put a finger to his lips "YOUR SO DAMN PRIDEFUL!"yelled Jun

"HA! THIS COMING FROM THE ONE WHO SPENT TO MUCH LOVEY DOVEY TIME WITH HIS SNIPER RIFLE AFTER THE CAKE INCIDENT. TO GET THE COURAGE TO TRY A SECOND ATTEMPED!?"the female voice roared.

He arched a brow and Noble two pointed to four "Young and to be in love."he said

"I think they are regretting it."said Jorge

"THIS COMING FROM THE FREELANCER WHO GOT A KICK OUT OF SHOOTING ALL OF NOBLE IN THE ASS AT NIGHT AT THE DEAD OF WINTER!"yelled Jun

"She was the one?"asked Noble four

"YOU WANNA KNOW WHY I AM SO DEADLY WITH A SNIPER RIFLE JUN? ALL THOSE TIMES I SHOT YOU WITH PAINT PELLETS I WAS BLIND!"the voice roared.

This got all but his attention "She was blind?"asked Carter.

He nodded and looked at Colonel Carter "She suffered a head injury at the hands of Agent Georgia before she left the Freelancers. She was bind for a whole year before she was placed in NOBLE I chose her to be placed on your team. Since Agent Georgia is still alive and hunting her. Jun is right about one thing she is prideful. She lead the freelancers and all of which respect her and would die for her. Georgia was the only exception he like her mother were loyal to the Director." he said

"Alaska."said Fred

"She held and still holds that name among the freelancers."he said

"I think its safe to say they have stopped arguing."said Kelly.

He nodded and they went in to see who was in a pool of their own blood.

DXDXDXDXDXDXDX

Jun was standing there frozen when she said she was blind at one point "How can you be cleared?"he asked

"Plenty of rest in a cryo pod."she replied

"Who did that to you?"he asked

"Georgia did when I fought him to keep you and south safe."she replied softly then continued: "I may act like a lone wolf, and I may act strong and intimidating, but even I unlike my father will admit at times I cry, worry, fear, and need help like everyone else a trait I got from my mother."

"Brittany, you had a team on Reach you had NOBLE."he whispered.

She walked up to him "I have always known that Jun other than my lancers and the Valhallan guard NOBLE was the only other people I would let close to me. Wigs I let the closest because I was intrusted with her life and yet you and the others were against it the whole time she managed to worm her way into the hearts of the team even yours."she said.

He pulled her close "I will stand by your side Brittany no matter what happens."he said

"I sure as hell hope so NOBLE three or I might have to pull rank."said a voice.

They broke apart to see Lord Hood and the others standing in the door way "Lord Hood sir!"she and Jun said at once snapping to attention.

DXDXDXDXDX

Lord Tarrence Hood entered the room returning their salute "As you were and I don't mean PDA either."said Hood.

He stood beside his little shadow princess, he knew they had almost came to blows; but he wouldn't have hit her. Lord Hood looked at Brittany "There is some people in the war games room wanting to see you and also your plan will work, but your timing is off you need to hit soon while the cats are away."said Hood

"Yes sir, just give me the intell and I will get the ball rolling."she said.

DXDXDXDXDX

The Arbiter looked at the armor of the Arbiter of old the beautiful Gold and Blue hued armor "I am Junior of the Valhallan guard brother."said the gold and blue armored Arbiter

"Junior, that is a human name is it not?"he asked

"It is, I am half human. Spartan to tell the truth."said Junior.

His eyes widened "Valhalla has spartans as well?"he asked

"They are labeled Freelancers, but yes they are spartans in every since of the word."said Junior.

He nodded he heard of project Freelancer a project lead by a man as vile and evil as Truth, but one stood up to him and that was the last Alaska the daughter of John 117 his friend and ally at the end of the war. The doors opened and Black Scout armor stopped mid stride and she knelt "A Spartan kneeling infront of a split jaw?"asked a Spartan with a skull etched into his Visor

"At home he is above my head."said the Black Scout

"Stand Brittany it makes me happy that you have returned for the beyond to lead the Valhalla Spartans to war once more."said Junior

"I was born for Chaos and Mayhem."she said standing.

Wigs came into the room and nodded to him, he returned Wig's nod to feel a pair of eyes like 117's burning holes into him and he looked into the black visor of the Black Armored Spartan "So your the one who end my suffering, if you ask me you should have let me be. Maine found my body after you ended my life. I am stubborn like my father before me I could have waited."she said

"Brittany."Jun said warningly

"I wanted to test you anyway."he said smirking

"_Then let us begin brother."_she said in sangheili.

DXDXDXDXDX

His mouth dropped did she just speak Elite? The gold and blue Elite tossed two gold hilted energy swords to her and she caught them and with a flick of her wrist activated them and took a Elite fighting stance.

The Arbiter activated his own and got into a similar stance. The two charged at each other and delivered some heavy hitting blows with their energy swords. The Gold and Blue Elite walked over to them.

This one was different instead of the yellow reptilian eyes they were...Augmented blue eyes! He was half Spartan! An energy sword flew out of Brittany's hand and Junior caught it before it hit him in the Visor.

The other Brittany held was sparking like crazy which meant it was broke it was useless until it was fixed. The Arbiter went to deliver a blow to Brittany only for her to bend backwards to avoid getting hit _'Damn she is flexible.'_he thought.

Emile made a whistle sound "Can she do a 1 and a half in the lay out possession?"asked Emile

"Chief could never bend like that."said Fred

"Her mother could."said Lord Hood

"Freelancers are trained to be flexible."said Brittany.

She cartwheeled and began to do back flips to them to get the other sword which Junior tossed into the air for her to catch.. She did a split and caught the energy sword activating it blocking the Arbiter's attack.

DXDXDXDXDX

She looked at Jun and smiled before kicking it all over drive, she would win this after four hours of exchanging blows she disarmed the Arbiter and held the glowing blade to his throat. He looked at her and nodded "You win."he said.

She nodded and held her hand for him to take it and he did "Your as stubborn as my father."she said and turned to the others. Now it was time to brake her father out of ONI's Lab.

8. Chapter 7

A/N: Sorry it has taken so long to update the story I have had a long fight with breast cancer and have won the fight for now. I promise I will update all of my stories as soon as I can, starting with 'The Tormenting of NOBLE' and this one. I thank you for your criticism and patience in this difficult time for me. With out further adieu the next chapter for BLUE NOBLE RISING!

Chapter 7: The Freelancer Princess.

Brittany walked into the hanger bay and all eyes were on her "Brittany, I have good news."said Junior

"What is it oldfriend?"she asked

"My mother and the others are waiting for us and will be ready to move on your orders."said Junior.

She smiled "A heartwarming family reunion."she said

"I doubt it."said Emile

"Well considering Thom is with them yes a heartwarming family reunion."she said.

She felt all of her team's eyes on her at Thom's name "Maine or Meta as he is called now. They all fled from Director Church after what he did to Epsilon."said Junior.

She nodded "Trust me by the time I am done with ONI I am going after his ass and The Mother of Intervention will be a Spartan controlled ship."she said

"Big dreams for mini Chief."said Fred

"After all the shit he has put me through and what he did to my mother he deserves what he has coming."she said

"And whats that?"asked Palmer

"A bullet to the brain after I make him suffer the way my mother had."she said.

DXDXDXDXDXDXD

Brittany had a deadly steel tone to her voice, what did Director Leonard Church do to her mother that made her have an attitude like Emile? He knew about Agent Georgia, and if he ever saw him. Well he would kill him before he laid another hand on his woman.

Brittany pulled out a pair of military duf bags out and dropped one on his armored foot "Your going to change Jun, you and I will infiltrate."she said

"Thats suicide!"said Kat

"Freelancer, I lived my life on the edge."Brittany said.

DXDXDXDXDXDXD

Earth, ONI HQ

Master Chief looked out the small window watching the sky for hope, he was weak. Weaker than he had ever been in his life. ONI kept him sedated and kept talking about B-312 who ever that was. One of the ONI spooks came to the door "So you are her father."said a voice

"And who are you?"he asked

"I am Director Leonard Church. I lost my best freelancer because of you. Now your daughter will pay with her life a whore just like her mother falling for a Spartan under the UNSC's leash."said the man.

Church? Memories of the woman he once loved flooded his mind and her final words _'Shes safe John, Church will never hurt our daughter. Our little Freelancer Princess.'_

The words echoed in his mind over and over as the one name that hadn't left his lips rolled off of his toung and into the night sky _"Sarah."_

His beloved Freelancer queen.

DXDXDXDXDXDXD

As soon as they landed she was the first to get out "What the hell is she waring?!"exclaimed a voice

"Worst uniform ever of all time."said another.

She smiled "Nathan, David. Its been a while."she said

"Don't tell us your going into the lions den with out back up?"asked Nathan

"You know me North, I never go in alone. I'm sure you remember Jun."she said

"Ah the Treefrog."said North

"Good to see you to asshole."growled Jun.

North lead them to were the others were, Maine was in Meta mode ready to kill anything that twitched "The Arbiters are informing Hood of our current position, here is our objective."she said sending the intel to their tech pads.

They lancers all nodded "Brittany, Church has been spotted going into the building."said York

"Who called it?"she asked

"I did."said a voice.

She smiled as Fred and BLUE Squad groaned "Hello Tex, how have you been?"she asked

"Moody, since your 'death' but better that your back."said Tex

"So you two are going in to save 117 while we keep an eye out?"asked Carolina

"In a nut shell yes I have a feeling Church isn't alone and that the building is more guarded than what they say it is."she said.

DXDXDXDXDXDXD

Richard Simmons gave them the quickest way to get Chief's armor and the way to Brittany's father, while Kat and Dare gave them codes. They were now waiting with their fake Ids lying their way into the building Kat worked her magic having the time loop of them standing guard by the hall to Cheif's cell. When the signal was given they moved quickly to the armory _"You have a two minuet window to steal the armor and get out and back to Chief."_said Kat

"We'll be out in thirty seconds."he said

As Brittany dropped the armor case in front of him "Ah make that ten."he said

"On ONYX my instructors could never keep up."Brittany said.

DXDXDXDXDXDXD

He laid in his bunk as the door opened and two ODSTs entered the drugs they gave him were waring off and he went after the tallest of the two "NO DON'T!"said the shortest.

He froze and looked at the female ODST as she removed her helmet, black hair framed a gentle yet stern face piercing augmented blue eyes she looked like Sarah, but with his eyes "Who are you?"he asked

"Brittany B-312, NOBLE Team."she said

"Thanks for the save babe."said the male

"And you are?"he asked

"Jun A-266 Colonel NOBLE Team."said the male.

He snapped to attention "Now is not the time dad get your ass in your armor we're getting you out of here."she said

"And what rank are you?"he asked

"A Colonel, I am also the one who made sure Cortana got into your hands."she said.

His daughter had a connection with Cortana "Shes gone now."he said

"Thats what you think daddyo now get your armor on now Spartan before they catch on."she said.

Just then the alarms went off "So much for not firing a shot."said Jun

"I am itching to kill something after the shit I have been through the past six and a half months."he growled.

DXDXDXDXDXDXD

Once her father had his armor on she took point _"They are on to you, you have two minuets before they fully lock down the building."_said Kat

"Alaska to all Agents move in on our location bring the pain Meta."she said.

She froze when Red and Black Armor came into view "Hello Brittany."said the voice she thought she had been rid of years ago

"Who is that?"asked her father

"GEORGIA!"growled Jun

"Good guess Colonel, now I get to kill all three of you."said Georgia as he walked forward.

She knew they had to get out alive.

That is all for this chapter.

9. Chapter 8

A/N: Alright here is the next chapter.

Chapter 8: Georgia Vs Alaska

She knew what had to be done; she had to protect Jun and her father with her life. She took a fighting stance "This time you'll stay dead."she growled

"Brittany we don't have time for this."said Jun.

She smirked "Oh there is time, Jun get him out of here I will buy you some time."she said

"I already lost you once Brittany I am not going to lose you a second time."Jun growled.

She closed her eyes "I gave you an order Colonel."she snapped.

She charged Georgia with a right shoulder tackle, and got ready to stab the Freelancer pain in the ass.

DXDXDXDXDXDX

He didn't want to leave her to the hands of that murderous bastard, but what choice did he have she pulled rank on him. The doors blew open and Chief pointed his AR at the great white mass of Meta. Meta looked at him and growled _"Where's Brittany?"_asked Sigma

"Shes fighting Georgia alone."he said.

Meta grabbed him by the throat _"You let her do WHAT?!"_asked Sigma

"Sh-She pulled rank on me."he said

"Put him down."said Chief

"_Ah the prodigal father, I see your still weak from the drugs they gave you. Fair enough, Jun you know most of all Thom knew Brittany from ONYX he sees her as a sister as does he see Kat as one._" said Sigma as Meta released him.

He stood _"You two go Georgia fears The Meta."_said Sigma.

DXDXDXDXDX

Wigs stood outside with the others as Jun and her mother's father came out of the building "Where's Mini Chief?"asked Fred

"Shes fighting Georgia."said Jun.

She heard stories of Agent Georgia, he was loyal only to Church and if you ended up on the director's bad side Georgia was sent to kill the one who pissed Church off. Her mother was the only known survivor who fought Georgia and lived to tell about it. Even though it cost her mother her sight, Jun saw the worried look on her face he knelt down "Shes kicked his ass once Wigs she'll do it again."he said

"I hope so dad."she said.

DXDXDXDXDX

She hit the wall hard as Georgia laughed "You have gotten better my dear Brittany."he said as he stomped on her chest.

She screamed in pain as a roar filled the air "Meta."she smirked

"You come to die too Agent Maine?"asked Georgia

"Oh hes in a hole other gear Georgia. Thats The Meta."she said.

Meta tackled Georgia to the ground _"Are you alright Brittany?"_asked Sigma

"I'll be fine you hit him high I hit him low."she said.

The pair attacked at once knocking Georgia out of the window, she jumped out after him and threw a lit thermal grenade which stuck to Georgia's chest. She pulled her grapple gun and fired swinging to safety as the grenade blew.

DXDXDXDXDX

Brittany dove out the window after Georgia what was she thinking? Just as she swung out the way Georgia blew up "Holy shit she just thermal his ass."said Fredric.

Meta jumped out the window and landed, he walked over to them _"Lets see that bastard come back from that."_said Sigma.

He smirked as Brittany landed on the ground the ODST uniform torn and tattered from hand to hand combat. He looked at her something wasn't right she fell forward, he rushed forward and caught her. In her back was a piece of building steel "How the hell did he live through that?"asked Emile as he looked up Georgia stood arm out stretched. He was seeing red, he stood up snatching Emile's knife and shotgun from him "HEY!"yelled Emile

"SHUT THE FUCK UP EMILE AND TEND TO BRITTANY WHILE I KILL THAT SON OF A BITCH."he snapped.

He looked at Georgia and walked forward, how dare this son of a bitch hurt her again. Georgia was laughing "Aw did I upset the treefrog?"asked Georgia.

He removed his helmet and shot daggers at Georgia "I WILL KILL YOU!" he roared and charged.

DXDXDXDXDX

She felt bio-foam being applied, and heard a fight in the back ground "Carter this is stupid he will get himself killed."said Kat

"NOBLE assists JUN."said Carter.

Jun? What trouble was he getting into now? She opened her eyes and looked up at Kelly's worried face "Kelly, what happened?"she asked

"Georgia threw a piece of building steel at you and it hit its target. We gave you bio-foam to slow the bleeding Fred pulled the steel out."said Kelly

"Fuck, and Jun is trying to get himself killed...FREELANCERS ASSIST NOBLE TEAM BRING THAT GUTLESS SON OF A BITCH DOWN HARD."she roared then coughed afterward

"Luv you need to rest."said Wyoming.

DXDXDXDXDX

He had his team beside him as Emile stabbed Georgia about sixteen times as he laid barely breathing he had a collapsed lung and a broken rib. He gritted his teeth in pain, he smiled as Brittany's commanding voice ordered the Freelancers to attack. Darkness surrounding him.

10. Chapter 9

A/N: Sorry its taken a while I have been having fun with my transformers fic. Anyway lets see how Jun and Brittany are holding up after their battle with Agent Georgia.

Chapter 9: True Evil incarnate

The Master Chief looked in on his daughter to see Wigs curled up in a chair sleeping yet armed with the .45 magnums the human raised Uggony carried. As he entered Wigs woke up and looked at him "Mama still hasn't woke up, what did that ass do to her?"asked the grunt.

He was blown away at the Mama part "She raised you?"he asked

"With others but mama was the main one yes."said Wigs.

Wigs hopped off the chair and headed for the door "I need to report to Carter he will not like this."said the grunt as she left the room.

He looked at his daughter how she looked just like her mother, he for one hoped she would wake up "Chief, she is a lot like you she'll pull through."said a voice

"Cortana?"he asked

"Maybe if you look you will have your answer Chief."said the voice.

He turned his head black hair pale skin and eletronic blue eyes "Cortana?"he asked

"Yes Chief you can thank the Librarian for this."she said.

He turned his attention to his daughter "Cortana, what happened to bring you back?"he asked

"With or with out your team or NOBLE?"she asked

"Both."he said

"Halsey was captured by Jul'Maddama. We were brought back to aid her when Palmer pulled her stunt."said the once AI.

He nodded as he heard a soft groan "Jun?"asked a voice.

He looked to see his daughter waking up and she was calling for the bean poll.

DXDXDXDXDXDXDXDXDXDXD

She slowly woke up to see Cortana and Chief "Ah, fuck I feel as bad as Emile looks."she said.

Cortana chuckled "Well that is a understatement NOBLE has been worried over you and Jun."said Cortana

"How is he?"she asked

"They had to clone a few things but he is cuffed to the bed thanks to your commander."said Cortana.

She chuckled and winced "Georgia?"she asked

"Escaped but not before Meta got his hands on him."he said
>"To think he was the six before me."she said.

She slowly sat up and unhooked herself from the wires and hoses. She could not stay in a bed at all unless it was to sleep or roll around making love to her Jun. She swung her legs over the bed "What do you think your doing?"asked her father

"What does it look like I want to be out of this room."she said

"See I told you she acts just like you."said Cortana giggling.

She began to stand on rubbery legs and proceeded to walk out of the room and into Buck "Oh boy looks like Carter needs to find more cuffs if your up and about."said Buck

"Out of the way Buck."she said

"Well your not the only one free Jun with a little help from me is free as a bird bare ass and all. I could have sworn I saw some nurses looking there too."said Buck

"Thanks Buck now if you'd excuse me."she said moving.

DXDXDXDXDXD

Jun had to thank Buck latter for his help, he was about to make a move to go to Brittany's room when he felt a pair of arms come around his waist from behind "I see you covered that bare ass. I was afraid I was going to knock some heads in."said a voice in a joking tone.

He smirked "So your finally up."he said

"Yes and wanting to go to _Our _quarters to sleep."she said.

He chuckled "I like that plan better than staying here."he said

"Have a extra change of those cloths?"she asked.

He handed her a second sweatpants and black shirt. When she was fully dressed they left the room to see Carter and the others enter the room " I hope my father and Cortana can distract them while we use the back door."she said staying low.

They made their way to the second set of doors and in to head to the floor with their quarters, as soon as the door opened he took her hand and lead the way only to be seen by Thorn and Grant. Brittany put her finger to her lips and they smirked and nodded.

Once to their room he laid down first and she followed "Way better than a damn hospital bed."she growled

"I couldn't agree more."he said pulling her close and kissing her forehead.

He let actual sleep take him when he knew she was safe and asleep first.

DXDXDXDXDXD

Carter was pissed both Brittany and Jun went AWOL form their rooms "If you must know I found them NOBLE 1."said Roland

"Where are they?"asked Carter

"Why their room asleep of course."said Roland.

Kat watched from her corner of the room as the commander threw his hands up in the air "What am I going to do with those two?"Carter asked

"Well you know as well as anyone they need time alone, now if they go and hurt themselves its their own fault."she said

"Your siding with them aren't you?"Carter asked

"Wasn't it not to long ago you would have done the same?"she asked.

Carter lost this fight, but he would make her pay for it in other ways. Ways she didn't mind as long as he was with her. Like Jun and Brittany, she and Carter loved each other.

DXDXDXDXDXD

Three weeks later

After twelve times being cuffed to their beds in separate rooms after their first escape together they were finally free. Much to Carter's dismay, but the term 'Pay back is a bitch' didn't speak volumes for what the two shadow spartans had in mind to pay his ass back. Brittany was no fool and neither was Jun when Kat died so did a part of the Commander. Just like when she died a part of Jun died as well. Now the two laid in wait for Carter to come into his room, she had half a mind to hid all the commander's cloths and tie him to his bunk naked for Kat to have her way with. Unfortunately Jun would get jealous and want to skin the Commander alive. So they both agreed to knock him out and to cuff him to the bed disguised as a BIG birthday present for Kat. As she moved to get behind Carter, Jun kissed her and knocked the commander out himself.

Phase one was now complete now it was on to phase two where they got the commander down to his boxers once they got him into his room of course.

DXDXDXDXDXD

Jun held her close to his chest and kissed her shoulder blade "Mmmm."she moaned.

The doctors still told them to take it easy in case anything decided to rupture. He smiled and let his right hand travel to her shorts and the left under her shirt. He smiled as she began to growl and wiggle around in his arms "Jun."she growled.

He chuckled "Yes my love?"he asked

"What do you think your doing?"she asked.

He stopped and moved back so he could turn her onto her back "What does it look like I am doing?"he asked

"Trying to put one if not both of us back into the med bay."she said

"It would make it worth it wouldn't it?"he asked.

She had that devious smirk on her beautiful face "Why yes it would my darling."she said.

Brittany's hands went from his chest, to his abs, only to stop at his drawstring sweatpants. His eyes locked with hers _"Will Colonel Six report to Captain Lasky's office."_said Roland over the com.

He groaned and Brittany growled "I'll be back." she said as she kissed his forehead.

DXDXDXDXDXD

Brittany made it all the way to Lasky's office and knocked on the door. When it opened she saw Lord Hood and her father standing in the room "You wanted to see me sir?"she asked

"We have a situation."said Lord Hood

"Aw did ONI lose their intelligence again?"she asked.

Hood and Lasky smiled at that "No they are a little beyond pissed at you and Georgia destroying their building. NOBLE team and BLUE Team are officially public enemy number one."said Hood.

She groaned "There is a ship not on the books here. Take you teams and head for the safest place you can the Infinity will give you a two day head start."said Hood

"And my father?"she asked

"He will be going with you."Hood said.

She knew where to go and it sure as hell would not take no two damn days to get there unless they lead them on a marry little chase. She and her father left the room and went to gather everyone.

DXDXDXDXDXD

Did he like what was going on? No. Did he want to cause ONI a little more trouble? Yes. John-117 watched as his daughter explained what they were going to be doing " So we get a ship to ourselves?"asked Emile

>"Did I st-udder?"she asked

"No you didn't."said Emile

"So where are we going?"asked Wigs.

Brittany looked at Wigs and smiled "We are going to go to the last place ONI would expect us."she said leading the way to the ship.

DXDXDXDXDXD

She watched as Cortana smiled at her father "I for one need a vacation."Brittany said

"Bull shit we are on ONI's MOST WANTED LIST and you're talking about a vacation."said Emile.

When they got there they saw a Corvette Class ship "Arbiter, we're ready when you are."said Brittany

"We are leaving as soon as all of you and the last of the supplies are on board."said Arbiter.

She nodded and smiled when she saw Junior _"Are you ready to go home sister?"_asked Junior

"_Yes, I have been away for to long."_she said as the ship pulled away form the Infinity she smiled.

She was taking them to Valhalla.

Chapter 10: YOU LIVED WHERE?!

Brittany stretched her tired muscles after being awaken form her Cryosleep. The Sangheili Arbiter was quite surprised that she of all people had no fear of a HALO "Your father won't be pleased he for one like most have bad memories of the instillation." said the Arbiter

"True, but Valhalla was cleared of the Flood issue before anyone set foot on it."she said

"What do you mean?"asked a young male Minor

"My AI partner, she was the monitor of the instillation. She whats the word I am looking for? Exterminated with extrema prejudice."she said.

The Arbiter smirked at that "At least your partner was smart about it."said The Arbiter

"Aren't I the lucky one."she smirked.

Valhalla was in front of them as her father and the others came onto the bridge "Here we go again."said her father and Jun.

She laughed "Sorry to disappoint you two but I was born and raised here till the Director sent me away to ONYX."she said

"YOU LIVED ON THAT?!"bellowed Dare
>"HALO Instillation 17 code name Valhalla is a flood free ring."she said

"THAT RING IS VALHALLA?!"exclaimed her father.

Cortana giggled "Isis cleared out the flood threat 400 years ago give or take 10 years."said Cortana

"At the time she was the rings Monitor."she said

"So you have a floating ball with you as well."said Buck

"She was and still is MY AI partner. She refused to be with another Agent."she said
>"The AI had good taste."said Cortana

"I like her."said a voice.

She pulled the chip from her helmet and put it into the slot "I was wondering when you were going to say something."she said.

Isis smiled "You know me I have more manners than some, ALPHA has been informed we have arrived unfortunetly he has an issue."said Isis

"What did he say to Tex this time to send her over board?"she asked

"More like what META did to him."said Isis.

She snorted a laugh "Looks like I need to get my ass down there and calm the great white down before he hurts himself AGAIN."she said.

DXDXDXDXDX

They all waited as Brittany headed down to the ring world alone "She is the only one who can keep him in check."said Isis

"Thats what I am afraid of."he said

"Relax Mini Chief can take care of herself."said Fred

"Why do you call her Mini Chief again?"he asked

"She acts just like her father thats why."said Fred.

He rolled his eyes and smirked "No shes more like her mother."said 117 who stood behind Fred.

Fredric jumped "Damn John, what are you trying to do give me a heart attack?" asked Fred

"More or less."said 117.

Even if Fred didn't pick up on it he did there was a hint of humor in chief's voice "Jorge, what made my hell raising child leave the freelancers?"asked Chief

"Love mostly, she was willing to give her live for a friend to protect her. After your little romance with Samantha Director Church made it a standing order that if a Freelancer was to Romance with a UNSC spartan he would send Georgia to execute them. She lied for a friend to protect her, at the time the one in question was with Jun over there."said Jorge.

Chief shook his head "Like I said like her mother."said John

"Well I had a feeling from the first time the two met they were a match made in the shadows."added Jorge

"Jorge, Natty and I had problems prior to the incident. What really ended it was when Georgia was sent after us. Brittany not only gave her life, but the life of hers and Natty's brothers child."he said.

Everyone in the room looked at him, he still blamed himself for everything that happened to her and he was not going to give up in getting her to smile like she used to.

DXDXDXDXDX

She dove behind the pillar, what had META so pissed off? She looked at Wiggs "What has him so pissed off?"Wiggs asked

"NO FUCKING CLUE!"yelled Tex.

She had to stop him, she took aim with her DMR that she 'borrowed' from Carter "META STOP!"she yelled

"HE TOOK HER!"yelled Sigma in Maine's stead

"WHO TOOK SOUTH?"she yelled.

META lowered his brute blaster "Georgia took her, he wants your head Brittany."said Sigma.

She walked over to META slowly "I will get her back, but she would want you to keep your head in the game and help me save her. You know this just as Sigma does."she said

"Will NOBLE help?"Sigma asked

"Only if you want them to."she said.

Maine let out a low pitch whine "Its my fault that you and Jun got hurt, Jun was my teammate before you replaced me he was my friend and I let you both get hurt."said Maine

"Thom it wasn't your fault I knew the dangers, Jun blames himself for my short blindness and the child that belonged to North."she said.

A rifle dropped behind her and she closed her eyes, Nathan just found out the hard way "Why didn't you tell me?"Nathan asked

"Kinda hard to do when your fighting to get your father out."said York

"Worst timing ever of all time then just like now."said Washington.

Maine removed his helmet, Thom had gone through hell on that ship barely surviving it only to lose his voice. She did what she could to save him, but it could have been worse Thom had tears in his eyes worried for Natty, for her and for Jun. She looked at him "I have stakes in this too. You know as well as I do I have my own sins to attone for. Nat, I'm sorry I never told you."she said

"Mama, is that why you took me in is because you lost your own child?"asked Wiggs

"In a way yes and in a way no, your mother knew I was lost and would be able to care for you so you can make your own choices. I admit I was nervous at first, and you know as well as I do that I and Jorge were the only to at the time who understood an innocent life and wouldn't stoop to the level of others."she said

"I never knew you had this pain mama, why didn't you talk about it?"asked Wiggs

"It was my choice to carry the burden."she said

"All daddy wants to see is your smile again, he blames himself for all that has happened to you."said Wiggs

"At the time I didn't know I was pregnant it was only after did I find out. I will not rest until Georgia and the Director pay."she said.

Maine nodded and smiled "Then count us in."said Sigma

"You two really have bonded beyond that of a AI and Spartan."she said

"Thank you."said Sigma.

She looked at Wiggs and then the damage, at least he didn't take out a building "I don't know about you, but it feels good to be home."she said

"Then you would want your armor."said Junior.

She went inside and saw her Sangheili Field Marshall armor that had been modified to fit her body and form perfectly "I can hear it now form my father 'GET THAT OFF AND PUT YOUR OTHER ARMOR BACK ON' yep that is what he is going to say."she said

"Worst timing to be a father then."said Washington.

They left her alone as the Female Sangheili came into the room to help her with her armor as will as Tila a female Brute Chieftain "Tila its been to long."she said

"It has Brittany, when word reached us that you died in battle we wept tears of sorrow. But when we heard the Forerunners revived you we cried out and wept for joy. Welcome home battle sister."said Tila

"Feels good to be home, but there is a problem that we need to prepare for."she said

"First lets get you into your armor then you can tell us about this new mate of yours."said Tila.

Wiggs went to enter and as soon as she saw Tila she pulled out her .45s "Easy Wiggs she is a friend."she said

"Sorry mom after what happened on Reach..."said Wiggs

"Reach? You were on Reach? We heard the loss of life on both sides were great."said Tila

"Reach is were I fell, I took out Â¾ of the heretic attack force. The Sanghilious Arbiter ended my suffering. They left me to die in pain and he released me form it."she said

"What of this demon with a skull who fought on Reach?"asked a sangheili female.

She smirked "So even his reputation is known here."she said

"That will stroke his ego."said Wiggs dryly

"You little one your rare of your kind why protect Akira for?"asked Tila

"She raised me as her own when my mother died."said Wiggs

"Your like your mother Akira, she took in a handful of Uggony younglings recently."said Tila.

She froze her mother was alive? How could this be? Her mother was killed she died in her father's arms. She looked at Tila "How is this true shes dead?"she asked

"Her and one other were resurrected here."said Tila

"My dad is going to keel over form a heart attack."she said.

She reached for her helmet and put it on "Isis inform the Arbiter all is ready here."she said

"On it."said Isis back in her Monitor form.

DXDXDXDXDX

As soon as the Phantom doors opened they were reeling in shock Spartans, Elites, Brutes, and grunts in a mixed patter were lined up on each side of the ramp. At the end was Valhalla's Arbiter with a Grunt leader as well as a Brute Chieftain who was shockingly a female with Brittany in...Field Marshall armor? Well it was NOT UNSC issued armor, but the way it looked on her...He checked his chin for drool "What the hell is my daughter waring?"asked Chief

"I'd say modified Field Marshall armor."said the Arbiter with a chuckle

"She looks good in it."said Buck

"Careful Buck thats treefrog property."said Romeo.

He smirked "On behalf of those who live here Welcome to Valhalla."said Junior.

Brittany smirked they were in her back yard now and Emile was going to be the first to find out.

12. Chapter 11

A/N: Alright lets get this show on the road, so last chapter some shocking revelations were made now lets see how one of the two are handled?

'Sangheili coms chat'

'Thoughts'

Chapter 11: Revelations and Asskickings

As soon as her father came up to her he shook his head "I hope your not waring that the whole time?"asked her father

"Well until my armor is repaired I will be."she said.

Her father groaned "Just like your mother."said her father.

Junior chuckled and shook his head. Later that night at the feast everyone talked "So battle sister, what has happened that you return home?"asked Tila

"A Covenant extremist and Director Church making me public enemy number one for braking my father out of the cage he had him in. That and Georgia has Natty."she said.

Tila's eyes clouded in rage "What orders do you have for me and my kind?"asked Tila

"First we need to plan then we attack."said Junior.

She nodded "I know our kind aren't known for their patience or their kindness."said Tila

"That is an understatement."said Emile

"Alright Emile, don't make me kick your ass."she warned

"If you could."Emile said.

Emile had yet again to much to drink, she looked at Carter who nodded "Liquid courage will always be your down fall bone head."she said

"True, but sober I can take you."said Emile

"All those times on Reach she was holding back Emile."said Jun

"Bullshit."said Emile

"They do if you feed them regular."she said.

This got snorts of laughter from everyone "So this is the one who has no mercy for an enemy?"asked Tila

"Yes that ball of sunshine is Emile."she said

"What the fuck you talking about?"asked Emile

"NOBLE team has a reputation here."she said shrugging

"But none of us knew Akira was with you."said Tila

"Akira?"asked Jun

"It means light is Sangheili as well as in Japaneses of your own kind."said Tila.

She took a sip of beer and looked at Jun, he looked board "So tell us is Georgia still as cut throat as he is known to be?"asked Tila

"Worse actually."she said

"How so?"asked Tila

"Building steel bar through the back while ones back is turned."said Carter.

This got growls of rage form all who knew her on Valhalla, they wanted blood and it would be Georgia's first of all then the Directors.

DXDXDXDXDX

After dinner he found Brittany looking over the water under a full moon "I was wondering when you'd find me."she said

"I can't help but find you after you came back."he said warping his arms around her shoulders.

She touched his hands with her own "Ya know you don't seem to bothered me being in this armor."she said

"Should I be?"he asked.

She chuckled "You two are the same."she said

"What do you mean?"he asked

"You and Maine. You blame yourselves for what happened to me."she said.

He froze was he that obvious? "Its not yours or his fault the ones responsible are Georgia and the Director. You two need to see that."she said

"So Maine really is Thom isn't he?"he asked

"Yes, I did what I could to save him. He still lost his voice Sigma translates for him."she said.

He sighed "Well I got one hell of a ass chewing."he said

"From who?"she asked

"I let it slip about the child."he said

"Don't feel bad Nathan knows now too."she said.

This ring wasn't like the other one by far this one was peaceful "Brittany?"he asked

"Yes Jun?"she replied.

He turned her head to face his and kissed her, she returned that kiss with her own. When he broke the kiss she leaned against him "I don't know about you but I have a early start tomorrow and need some sleep."she said

"Political?"he asked

"You could say that, I need to pay a visit to the Jackles and see if they will lend their support into taking the Director down."she said

"They trust you?"he asked

"More than they do Junior."she said.

He nodded and helped her up, he followed her to her room and went to leave "Where are you going?"she asked

"To my room."he said

"No your not your staying with me."she said and he yelped as she pulled him into the room.

DXDXDXDXDX

John walked by the rooms on his way to his own and heard the familiar sounds of love making coming from his daughters and he groaned. She must have truly loved the Sniper for them to be in the same room. He continued on to his room and hit the button, he would have a talk with Brittany in the morning.

DXDXDXDXDX

When she woke up she looked to see Jun sleeping soundly beside her, she had something she had to do and Maine was going with her. She smiled and got dressed in her Valhalla armor and left the room. She walked out to see Lopez "Good Morning Lopez."she said

"Good morning Brittany."said Lopez.

Ever since Kat fixed Lopez's wiring everyone could understand him, she made her way to the warthog and saw Maine waiting "You two ready?"she asked Thom and Sigma "Always."said Sigma.

She got into the driver seat and started the engine and took off to the landing pad to get a pelican ride to the Jackle territory.

DXDXDXDXDX

Samantha looked at Nipps and shook her head "I know you are upset old friend, but you need to realize that the Director isn't going to stop until he has another war on this ring."she said

"I know, Akira will come and when she does we will follow her to battle."said Nipps.

A Jackle minor came up "Sir a pelican is landing at the landing pad."said the minor

"Thank you Penco."said Nipps.

She went back to check on the younglings to see Avery covered form head to toe not looking to happy about it "Back during the war you wouldn't mind them doing that."she said

"Easy for you to say Sammy."said Avery.

She laughed and looked at the younglings "Alright young ones off of the grumpy old man."she said.

Avery growled and she laughed.

DXDXDXDXDX

Jun woke up to knocking and got up putting on his boxers to check to see who it was. As soon as the door opened he saw John there "Where is Brittany?"asked John

"She said she had to go talk to the Jackles."he said

"I heard Junior say something about that. I'll have to talk to her later, but that don't excuse you. Get your ass dressed and out side _sir_."said John.

After John left the door way he closed the door and groaned John was going to kill him, he got dressed and headed outside to get an ass kicking.

DXDXDXDXDX

As soon as Jun walked outside he punched him "Alright I know I deserved that for your daughter."said Jun.

He punched him again "Alright now you don't want to piss your daughter off Chief."Jun said

"Why should you care?"he asked throwing another punch only to have a black armored hand stop him.

He and Jun looked "Jun, go see Doc as for you Chief. You need to learn this is Brittany's back yard."said Tex

"Brittany is my daughter, I am just laying down some rules."he said

"That maybe true, but not that way. I will tell Brittany when she returns. She and Jun love eachother and I'll be damned if you are going to hurt either one with your actions."said Tex.

He went to punch her with his free hand only for her to catch it "So you want to play that way? Very well then I am going to have to teach you a lesson Master Chief John 117."said Texas.

DXDXDXDXDX

Brittany looked at Nipps "Ah Akira you have returned to us come we have much to talk about."said The Jackle chief

"That is true my friend. What has Junior told you thus far?"she asked

"That The Director has a price on your head, as well as someone who carries out the ideals of the Heretics."said Nipps.

She nodded as she walked around a corner she froze "And a reunion."added Nipps

"M-M-Mom?"she asked stunned

"Hello my little Akira."said her mother smiling.

Nipps smiled "What is that girl waring Sammy, you know her father would have a heart attack and he'd kick its ass."said a man beside her

"Oh Hush Avery."said her mother

"Mom, dad is here on the array."she said

"The Master Chief here really?"asked Nipps

"Yes hes my father old friend."she said.

Nipps's beak dropped "Your father?"Nipps asked

"I believe she just said that."said Sigma

"Hello Sigma."said her mother

"Lady Samantha, its good to see you among the living."said Sigma

"Nipps Georgia has yet again over stepped he has Agent South and if what Sigma told me is true she is with child."she said.

She said the magic word Jackles of Valhalla adored her and South, but if you messed with one or both. It was NOT pretty on what happened next "We are with you till the end."said Nipps.

She and Nipps then spent a few hours talking on battle plans.

DXDXDXDXDX

Jun felt like shit when the Pelican landed and Brittany came out "What happened to you?"asked Sigma

"A over protective father."he said

"He didn't."said a voice.

He looked up and saw TWO Brittanys?! What the hell was going on?! Brittany walked up to him and kissed his lips "I'll let mom deal with him."she said

"M-M-Mom? I thought she was dead?"he asked

"The Librarian."Brittany

"When is Chief going to learn that he can't go around and beat his daughter's boyfriend. He should be happy hes a Spartan and not an ODST."said a African American with a cigar in his mouth.

He shook his head "After Reach I was turned into an ODST to recruit for the new Spartan VI program. All the Spartans of the Spartan VI program are either Marine, Army, or ODST."he said

"No wonder he punched you."said Avery

"Jun is a Spartan III."said Brittany

"Then why did he get a shinner?"asked Avery

"Just because ONI made him an ODST doesn't mean that John can punch the young man in the face."said Brittany's mother

"Why do I have the feeling that Chief is going to get his ass kicked?"asked Avery.

DXDXDXDXDX

Brittany found her father on the ground knocked out cold and shook her head "Fred, what happened?"she asked

"I happened."said Tex.

She and Jun walked off as her mother stood in waiting for her father to wake up, about 5 minuets after waiting "YOU HAVE SOME NERVE BEATING THAT YOUNGMAN JOHN!"yelled her mother.

She snorted a laugh "Samantha?"her father asked shocked

"NO I'M THE TOOTHFAIRY!" yelled her mother. Kelly and Linda were holding each other for support laughing as they all watched as the Master Chief John 117 got a verbal ass kicking from mom.

Chapter 12 : Future spartan.

It had nearly been a month since she and Jun first slept together and for the last few mornings she had been in her bathroom throwing up. She had these symptoms before, she knew what it was. Question was what would Jun say? There was a gentle knock at the door "Who is it?"she asked

"Its your mother."came the reply.

She smiled "Come in."she said.

Ever since her father found out her mother was alive she couldn't turn a corner with out seeing her parents making out. Which in turn caused her favorite past time 'Rape The Jun' hell come to think of it Jun didn't mind it either. In fact he quite enjoined it, which was odd. Then again who would get so hot and bothered by their parents to sexually attack their boyfriend? She couldn't think of anyone so she opened the door "Mom, come inside and close the door."she said.

She walked to her bed and sat down "Sweet heart, whats wrong?"asked her mother

"Mom, I'm pregnant and Jun's the father."she whispered.

Her mother touched her face "You two remind me of you father and I when we were your age. Jun loves you more than his own life and is willing to die for you. I know you lost your child prior to this one, but its time to relax the war is over for you after this."said her mother

"What if he don't want it?"she asked

"Then I will sick your father on him."said her mother.

She smiled and stood up "Mom, thanks."she said

"Well you have to get dressed lots to do today."said her mother.

She nodded and went to her armor, it was going to be another bad day for her father and a good day for Jun, if only she could get Kat to ware the same armor maybe Carter wouldn't have such a big stick up his ass.

DXDXDXDXDXDX

Jun was cleaning his sniper rifle as Brittany walked in, something about her was different today he could tell. She had a glow about her that even wigs and the other ex-covenant that called this place home noticed. Her mother looked at him and mouthed "Talk to her." and he got up.

He followed her to the roof of the base where she sat looking out over the clear blue water of the ring world "Brittany?"he asked.

She turned her head and looked at him, she had a unsure look on her beautiful face "Brittany, are you alright?"he asked

"I'm fine Jun why?"she asked.

He smiled he loved it when she answered a question with another question "You look worried and you know that bugs the living hell out of me my love."he said.

She looked away from him "You may want to sit Jun I don't want you to fall and hurt yourself."she said.

He sat down and looked at her "Brittany?"he asked

"ONI told me when I lost Nat's baby I could never get pregnant again."she broke off

"Then we'll adopt."he said.

She looked at him with a shocked expression "Jun, They said I could NEVER get pregnant. When they told me I admit it hurt more than anything, but that was before I died."she said.

He looked at her "What are you trying to tell me baby?"he asked

"Jun, your going to be a father bless it be to the librarian she gave us the hope of a child and now we have one."she said.

He let her words sink in for a few moments before he began laughing "OH BABY I'M SO HAPPY."he said.

She looked at him shocked "You mean your not upset?"she asked

"Why would I be, Brittany I love you more than anything I would die to protect you. Of course I would be happy to find out that the one I have always loved carries my child."he said pulling her close.

She sobbed happily into his shoulder "I just have to worry about your father trying to kill me."he said in a joking manner

"I'll kick his jolly green ass."she growled.

He just laughed and kissed her forehead "Don't worry once your Spartan armor is repaired the shielding will protect our child."he said

"It didn't protect Nat's."she said.

He sighed "We'll think of something my love we always do."he said.

DXDXDXDXDXDX

John 117 looked at his beloved Samantha "I was right John."said Samantha

"What do you mean?"he asked.

Samantha looked at him "Why John, you of all people should know. It wasn't all that long ago I was puking my guts out in front of you and we found out about Brittany."she said.

He smiled he was a little dim witted back then "How could I forget."he said

"Now its our little girls turn to be a mother."said Samantha.

His eyes crossed and he looked at Samantha "Our daughter is what?"he asked

"She is pregnant."said Samantha.

Oh he knew who the father was and he was going to beat his little tree frog ass. He stood up "John, what are you up to?" Samantha asked

"AVERY!"he bellowed
>"Yes Master Chief?"asked his friend

"Get me my SMGs I have a Tree frog to go shoot."he said
>"JOHN 117 YOU WILL DO NO SUCH THING."yelled Samantha.

The rest of his old team as well as NOBLE came into the room "What did Jun do now?"asked Emile

"Colonel I suggest you go and get your sniper before I kill him."he said

"Why is that Master Chief?"asked Carter

"JOHN ENOUGH!"bellowed Samantha

"That little shit knocked my daughter up and you tell me ENOUGH? Woman I am going to kick his ass."he said

"WHOA you mean to tell me the closet fag is going to be a daddy?"asked Emile.

Agent North Dakota stood in front of him "You will do no such think, that would have been me once if she or I would have known. Brittany's old medical files said after the miscarriage she could NEVER have a child."said North.

The Master Chief stood frozen to the spot, his daughter was not able to have a child of her own when she lost North's child? Samantha looked at him "The Forerunners work in mysterious ways my love. They brought me back to you didn't they? They gave Kat her arm that she lost, and gave our daughter the gift of children. John if our daughter is anything like me and I would have found out I couldn't have children then I could I would want to be alone with the father of my child."Samantha said.

She won yet again there was no woman he knew of that compared to her, she always knew what to say to calm him down. He sat down and looked at Avery "Never mind."he said

"The ole ball and chain beat ya again Chief?"asked Avery

"Avery."he said

"Yes, Master Chief?"asked Avery

"Shut the fuck up."was all he said.

Everyone in the room began to laugh.

DXDXDXDXDXDX

Brittany leaned into the man that she loved as Wiggs came walking up "Is it true?"asked Wiggs

"Yes Wiggs I'm pregnant."she said.

Wiggs's eyes lit up like a kid at Yule time "I'm a big sister?"Wiggs asked

"Yes Wiggs."said Jun chuckling.

Wiggs curled up against them and she smiled. It had been a long time since they were like this. The last time was on Reach when she and Jun had been to afraid to admit their feelings towards the other. Now in the present she and Jun had each other, Wiggs, and now a little spartan growing in her womb. She looked up at Jun as he kissed her and broke the kiss "Brittany, how about after all this I do something that I should have done along time ago."he said

"And whats that?"she asked.

He smiled and pulled her closer "Marry me."he said.

Her heart skipped a beat, was Jun asking her to marry him? She closed her eyes and smiled "I will marry you Jun, but first we have a Jul' Madama issue to handle and then a Director Leonard Asshole Church problem to handle."she said.

Jun nodded "With them still alive they are a threat to the baby especially Church."he said.

She nodded as a Spirit came in low to drop off the scouting parties "Junior, did you find anything?"she asked

"Yes, Agent Georgia is at an abandoned facility not to far from here."said Junior.

She looked at Jun "Good I will get what we need done for our assault."she said.

Junior nodded and looked at her "Battle sister, you must remember not to let your anger get the best of you. Like you did last time you are more frightening than a female Jiralhanae over her young."said Junior

"NAW YA THINK I WAS PREGNANT THEN LIKE I AM NOW I LEARN FORM MY MISTAKES UNLIKE YOUR MOTHER."she said.

Junior laughed as Tucker gave her the finger "Your right mother doesn't learn the first time."said Junior.

DXDXDXDXDXDX

He leaned against the wall as Junior and his scouts reported their findings to Brittany, from there she began to draw up the battle plans for the assault "Knowing Georgia he ten to one has defense turrets set up."said Texas

"He does, in this area all the way around. It looks like it will have to be a night op."Brittany said

"The longer we stay the longer her life is in danger."said Sigma

"I know old friend, but we have to do something."she said.

Maine nodded and looked at him he could feel Thom's eyes on him. He knew between himself and Thom or as he was now called Maine or META Brittany was as safe as one could hope. With a future spartan on the way he had to protect his future, her future, their future.

14. Chapter 13

A/N: Here is the next exciting chapter for BLUE NOBLE Rising.

Chapter 13: Stupid move NOBLE 3

Brittany woke up to find Tila standing at the foot of her bed, her head was killing her "What happened?"she asked

"Your mate was protecting you and your unborn child. He would brake if you lose another child."said Tila

"I don't think a blow to the head or knock out gas is good to use on me I could lose the baby."she said.

Tila shook her head and looked at her desk were her AI floated "Jun, gave you a low dose with what little sleep you have been getting it worked quickly. The little one is fine."said ISIS.

Brittany rolled her eyes and shook her head, she was upset with her sniper and quite frankly if her father wanted to beat his ass then she would let him she would take mom out for a walk. As she sat up in her bed she looked out the window to see that the sun was coming up "I better get breakfast going."she said.

She slowly stood up only to fall back onto the bed and black out.

DXDXDXDXDXDX

They had gotten South back and Georgia was dead or dieing thanks to Thom, when they got back John pulled him to the side "What did you do to my daughter other than knock her up?"asked the Master Chief

"I gave her a sleeping pill."he said.

Chief nodded then WHACK his head snapped back. That was harder of a hit than last time, the next he was on the ground with Brittany's father trying to beat his head in "God damn it SAMMY your ole battle ax is trying to kill Jun."yelled Texas.

He rolled and threw Chief off of him "What the hell is your problem?" he asked

"Your a damn idiot aren't you?"asked Chief.

Now he knew where she got that from "What do you mean?"he asked

"The Sleeping pill, the shit that is at this base can KILL the baby."said Chief.

He froze, and got it right in the face again! Samantha had come running out with his team to hold him "Go check on her, John it was my idea. He didn't want her to get hurt."said Samantha as he went to check on Brittany's well being.

As soon as he got into their room Brittany was sitting up half awake and half asleep "Brittany are you alright?"he asked

"Yeah just..."she held her finger up and puked in the bucket beside her.

He sat on the bed next to her and rubbed her back "I shouldn't have listened to your mother now I have a possibly broken nose and maybe a fractured jaw."he said

"It was mom's idea?"she asked before spewing again

"Yes, if I would have known I wouldn't have given it to you."he said.

She finished and looked at him "ISIS did my dad ruin Jun's handsome face because of my mother?"she asked

"No, he will be bruised but he is lucky I think ONI did a lot more to him then he thinks they did."said ISIS.

Brittany touched his face "Get out of your armor and changed then get back in here and cuddle."she said.

He smiled and nodded "I love you."he said and left the room

DXDXDXDXDX

How could Samantha do that to their own daughter "He could have killed the baby."he said

"John you need to worry about the here and now."said Samantha

"Your?"he asked looking at her

"I don't know yet I may be."said Samantha.

He sat down before he fell down, he was not as young as he used to be "John, your still the man I fell in love with."said Samantha.

He looked at her "I love you Sammy."he said pulling her into his lap.

Jun out of his armor walked by the door "Your ass beating isn't over kid."he said

"Blow it out your ass old man."came a sharp reply.

Old? How dare that little shit of a Spartan call him old? He went to get up only to Samantha grind her hips into him and he stopped "You have the most impeccable timing Samantha you know that?"he asked

"He reminds you of yourself at that age don't he?"she asked

"What if he does?"he asked

"Leave him alone you don't want to hurt our daughter do you?"she asked.

He closed his eyes and kissed her "No you win."he said even though he had his fingers crossed.

DXDXDXDXDX

When Jun returned he laid down beside her and put an arm around her "We got her back."he said

"And Thom?"she asked

"He showed up as I was getting my Armor off."he said.

She nodded and snuggled closer against him "Jun, we still have a lot of work to do to keep our child safe."she said.

Jun placed a kiss on the top of her head "I know with one down all we have is two more to go."he said.

She was falling asleep again enjoying the warmth that he was giving her, just as he held her.

DXDXDXDXDXDX

Jul'Madama was not a very happy Sangheili this HALO ring was used by both the humans and the heretics that deserted the covenant during the war and they were still living in peace on the ring. He slammed his hand on the table "How dare those filthy demons live on this holy ring."he said

"Valhalla, was the home to those who didn't want to fight anymore it is their home, maybe you should take lessons from those who live here."said Halsey

"YOU WILL NOT TALK DOWN TO ME LIKE THAT!"he roared

"Temper, temper it rivals that of NOBLE 6."said Halsey.

Madama growled why would the gods bring that demon back of all demons? He didn't understand it. He looked at Halsey and snarled "I will take her life again."he said

"Something tells me you won't."Halsey said.

He would take the demon's life again and this time she would stay dead.

15. Chapter 14

A/N: Here is the next chapter kids and remember to vote for my other story in the polls!

Chapter 14: A Wish of an Uggony

Jun leaned against the wall as Brittany came out of the 'Doctors office' Doc had set it up to see if her mother's advice caused harm to the precious cargo that she was carrying that he gave her so lovingly. He looked at her "Well?"he asked

"The babies are fine Jun."she said.

He froze "Repeat that, I could have sworn you said babies."he said.

She smiled and held three fingers up, triplets? They were having triplets? He had to sit down "Baby are you alright?"she asked

"Triplets? Your father is going to KILL me."he said

"No hes not."she said kissing his lips.

She then proceeded to walk off leaving him there shocked, how could she be pregnant with triplets?

Doc came to the door "It would be safer for her not to ware her spartan armor, the radiation could progress the pregnancy. Shes not a high risk like her mother so thats a blessing."said Doc

"Yeah, but triplets?"he asked

"I am afraid so Jun."said Doc.

He left the 'Doctors Office' and went to find the mother of his children only to find her father "Chief."he said

"Well is the baby alright?"her father asked

"Yes and its not one, but more than one."he said

"TWINS?"asked her father

"No triplets."he said.

Her father shot him a look that would send a marine running willingly into a hailstorm of Covenant weapon fire "Were is my daughter now?"asked Chief

"I am looking for her now why?"he asked

"Maine, went back to were he 'Killed' Georgia only to find Georgia's body not there."said Chief

"Why can't that guy just die and stay dead?"he asked.

Her father shrugged "You got me, but its not safe for her to be alone."said Chief

"No shit."he said

"Oh and Jun."Chief said

"Yes?"he asked.

Chief's fist connected to his chin "That is for knocking her up with three."said Chief leaving.

What was it with her father beating on him? He had to find out and find out he would.

DXDXDXDX

Brittany sat with Kat and Carolina "So what is going on with the baby?"asked Sister walking up

"I think I scared Jun away."she said

"Why do you say that?"asked Kat

"I found out we're not just having one."she said.

Carolina, Sister, and Kat looked at her "How many?"asked Carolina

"Three."she said

"He really hit the mark didn't he?"asked Kat smirking.

She got one of her own "So whens your due?"she asked

"Bite me Brittany."Kat huffed

"Hi Jun."said Sister.

She turned her head and seen Jun standing there "We'll leave you two alone you look like you need to talk somethings out."said Kat.

The three other women got up and went back into the base as Jun sat down "Got hit by my father again didn't you?"she asked.

Jun took her hand and pulled her into his lap "Yeah I think he don't like me much."he said kissing her naked shoulder

"Its your gentle nature I am positive when you get fed up with it you'll put a stop to it just like you did with Emile. Don't let my father intimidate you."she said.

Jun's hand went to her stumic "Three? I still can't believe it."he said

"Jun your upset aren't you?"she asked

"No baby, I want them I truly do. I just can only image what pain your going to go through when they are born."he said

"I can image me cussing you out six ways to Reach."she said.

Jun chuckled "Georgia is still alive, you can't be going out on your own."he said

"I know my love, I just want this to be over so we can live normal lives; then again we are Spartans."she said.

Jun smiled "True, but we do what we have to do."he said.

She rested her head on his shoulder, thats when she heard something. She and Jun looked up to see Wigs walking up and collapse "WIGS!"she yelled getting up

"GET DOC!"yelled Jun.

She looked at him and worried as she knelt down "Mama Jul' Madam is here they are on their way here."said Wigs and her adopted grunt passed out.

She looked up as Doc came out to check her "Raise the alarm, prepare for attack."she said

"Whats going on?"asked Fred

"Jul'Madam is here he attacked Wigs."she growled

"Brittany, I'm sorry but Wigs is..."Doc didn't want to say it.

DXDXDXDXDXDX

John 117 saw the pain in the faces of NOBLE team the brave little pink haired grunt was gone. Emile looked the most hard hit by the grunts passing, he watched as Jun went to his daughter and held her as she cried. Jul'Madama had messed up. His daughter took in the young grunt when she was a new born and raised her to defend the UNSC. In away in a sad way he already had a granddaughter and now she was dead. Samantha looked at him "Suit up NOBLE."said Carter.

Brittany stood up "What are you doing?"he asked

"What does it look like. I am going to kill that split lipped son of a jack ass."growled Brittany

"Not in your Spartan armor."said Jun

"No My Marshall armor."she growled.

DXDXDXDXDX

With in five minuets those who lived on Valhalla had gathered and were gearing up for war, he unloaded and reloaded his shotgun. How could they do that to Wigs? His little shadow? Wigs loved her friends and family. She wasn't meant to die not like that, the effect that it was having on him made him cry and he never cried. His enemies called him a Demon for a reason, he had no mercy, no remorse, nothing but ice in his veins and stone for a heart and yet Wigs found away to melt the ice and crush the stone around his heart. Was it right for a human to fall in love with a small runt of a grunt?

DXDXDXDXDX

Brittany had her armor, swords, and other hard ware Jul was going to pay for what he did to Wigs. Her sweet caring little Wigs, was dead and nothing could stop that. She went over to Wigs's desk and picked up her tech pad to see her last journal entry:

Journal entry 60 for year 2556

_ What is love? Is love when someone feels more than just caring? Is it tangible like it is with momma and daddy? If so than I want to feel it, but my love is someone not of my kind someone I have loved since I could hold a gun. Even though we are of two different species I love him, I don't know if he feels the same because I am Uggony. Mamma's battle brother Junior came from a Sangheili prophecy while I was born into a war that left me like many other human children orphaned. Mamma and daddy just like Uncle Jorge, Uncle Carter, and Aunt Kat and my love were. I love my love and more than anything in my life I would wish to be human so I could be with him..._

Wigs was in love with...Emile. She sat down and held the tech pad close and cried some more. Wigs was a grunt with a beautiful dream a dream that burned bright in her little Uggony heart that may never come true she wanted to be human to be with Emile...

I know a sad chapter I actually cried writing this out originally. What will happen when Emile finds out how would he react?

16. Chapter 15

A/N: Wow, I knew Brittany was popular but Wigs the grunt as well? Any way Wigs has been killed and Jul' Madama has to face a pissed off bunch of Spartans and Emile and a Grunt in love? Strange I know, but I had to do something! Also please I ask you to help out with the voting process for my Ask The Cast Of Final Fantasy 7. There is a nice field to vote from, you can get any four votes you want in one shot so PLEASE I am on my knees begging you my dear readers to vote. Now on to the next chapter.

Chapter 15: Palmers' BIG mistake

Jun couldn't believe what he had read when Brittany handed him Wigs's tech pad. The little Uggony female was in love with Emile? Comical as it sound Emile was acting off even for him and the thought of them trying to...well lets not go there it would be comical to say the least, but the fact of the matter was it was sad that this happened. Master Chief was still sizing him up and at the same time sorry for him because of Wigs. Both Arbiters and the leaders of the other ex-covenant factions were all in heavy talks Brittany of course was there being the human representative. Here on this ring she had more respect than she was given on the battlefield on Reach. Fred came over and put a hand on his shoulder "How are you holding up Tree Frog?"asked Fred

"She always called me daddy when Brittany wasn't around, it was like she knew I loved her before I did."he said

"I know, for the short time I knew her she grew on me too. Its not everyday you meet a grunt who acts more human than well a human."said Fred.

He nodded "Any word yet?"he asked

"Tex and the others haven't returned yet with the details on where they are as of yet."said Fred

"MADMA NEEDS TO BE STOPPED BEFORE HE FIRES OFF THIS RING!" yelled a voice.

They all looked at the door it was Brittany, the talks finally ended after an hour and Brittany came out in between both Arbiters. She did not look to be in a very good mood "What is it?"he asked

"Georgia left only to tell Church we are here and the _Infinity _just showed up so we will be fighting not only Madama and his goons but Spartan VI fire teams."she said

"Well that is not good."said Buck

"No its not Palmer has always had a crush on Jun, and when she found out he loved and still loves Brittany well..."said Dare

"Oh thats just fucking great."Brittany growled

"She did how ever adore Wigs, she saw the Grunt as a friend."he said.

Brittany looked at him "A lot of them did Jun."she said sadly

"I could tell Roland what happened."said ISIS

"Madama will be after her floaty light bulb form."said Avery

"Way ahead of you Johnson."said ISIS returning to her AI chip "I'd love for him to try and touch me now."

"He'd be dead before he could."she said.

Brittany was down right scary when she was very pissed off like she was now "ISIS inform Roland that Palmer don't want to come down here and start shit with me right now. They are more than welcome to come down a put boot to ass."she said in a dark tone.

DXDXDXDXDX

UNSC INFINITY

"Helmsmen whats the situation?"asked Captain Tom Lasky

"Sir Jul'Madama and his fleet are here sir." said the Helmsmen.

Lasky shook his head the Master Chief was down there and so was Brittany and Halsey "Sir I have a message form Brittany's Freelancer AI partner ISIS should I play it sir?"asked Roland as he appeared on the map table

"Yes."he said.

Commander Palmer walked over to hear the message as well _"This is Freelancer AI ISIS calling out to the UNSC Infinity. You guys want Jul? He is here on the ring he plans on firing it so if you want to bag his ass then get your asses in gear and get down here."_the message said

"That is not good."he said

"Should I get the Spartan teams ready?"Palmer asked

"Yes, get down there and give them back up they are going to need it."he said

"Yes sir."said Palmer walking out the room

"Sir there is also something else."said Roland.

The look on Roland's face told him it wasn't good "What is it?"he asked

"Colonel Wigs sir shes dead."said Roland.

Everyone on the bridge bowed their heads in respect "Wigs adored Majestic."he said

"The UNSC has suffered a great loss."said Roland sadly.

DXDXDXDXDX

All pelicans were heading down with ammo, Spartans, marines, and supplies. Palmer hitched a right with Majestic and headed down there in the first wave of troops. As soon as they landed they were greeted by The Arbiter of the old Covenant "Commander Palmer, we didn't expect you to arrive so quickly."he said

"Well when we get a message that this ring is being threatened to be fired we kind of have a led foot to get down here."she replied

"I also think its best you stay out of Colonel Six's way right now she is not in the best of moods."said The Arbiter.

So Brittany and Jun were having problems? Well did Jun tell her about them? And how he left her because he couldn't get over the death of his team and the one person who didn't give him the time of day? This would make things interesting indeed "Why is that?"asked Thorn

"That Spartan Thorn is not my place to tell you."said The Arbiter.

DXDXDXDXDX

Brittany was adding additional ammo and grenades to her armor when Majestic and a shit load of the Spartans he hand picked came driving up "Commander Palmer."he said

"Hello Jun."Palmer replied.

The way she said his name brought back memories he would rather not revisit at all "Thats Colonel Commander."he said

"So you didn't tell her."said Palmer.

Brittany stopped what she was doing "Tell me what?"she asked >"That before your 'Resurrection' he and I had a relationship."said Palmer
"Commander your out of line."he said

"What?"asked Brittany.

Brittany looked hurt "Jun what is she talking about?"she asked >"It was over for months Commander."he said.

Fire team Majestic stepped back shocked at this "Why didn't you tell me?"Brittany asked

"He couldn't get over you, thats why it ended at the time you wouldn't give him the time of day would you?"Palmer asked

"Commander thats hitting bellow the belt." said DeMarco.

They didn't need this right now and before he could put his foot down Emile stepped in and grabbed Palmer and slammed her against the side of the base "Listen here BITCH, what happened between you and Jun is long over. He is with Brittany now so deal with it. As for on Reach they had feelings for each other and either one acted on them. We just had a casualty thats started this shit and I will be damned if you are going to come here and cause three more lives."growled Emile

"Who was the casualty?"asked Madsen.

A soft wind blew as he moved out of the way of the blanket covering Wigs. The wind blew just right for the pink hair of the wig to blow out from under it "Tell me thats split lip didn't just kill her."said Grant

"Not Wigs, not the Grunt of the UNSC."said Hoya.

DeMarco and Madsen looked upset but didn't voice it Palmer looked in shock. Brittany on the other hand took the moment to SLAP that sure as hell was no love tap "BASTARD!"she yelled at him and went back into the base.

Majestic looked over at their CO with the 'Look at what you did' look on their faces "Jun go try and calm your woman down while I let Tex handle this bitch."said Emile

"I didn't know that Wigs was..."Palmer said sadly

"Well she is and she was in love as well."he said going to find the mother of his children.

DXDXDXDXDX

She felt a hand on her wrist and found out it was Jun "Let me go."she said near the fit of tears

"No, not until we talk."he said

"About your time with her?"she asked.

He shook his head "No, Brittany my little storm cloud. About us."he said

"Why didn't you tell me?"she asked

"I don't know I spent most of my time after your death drinking or trying to blow my head off."he said.

She looked at him in shock "I loved you then like I do now. Wigs and Buck got me to stop drinking and when they did I left her. I wanted nothing more than to be alone."he said "Then you came back to Wigs and I both."

She looked down at the floor "Jun, promise me you won't do that again. No more secrets between us." she said

"Never now lets get your face washed off I hate to see you all red eyed and puffy."he said kissing her.

DXDXDXDXDX

Jul'Madama had killed the little heretic of a Uggony. Word had reached him that the Uggony died at the feet of the demon that raised it. Halsey was giving him a dirty look "I don't care what you think doctor."he said

"You will when her adopted family is kicking your army all around this ring."said Halsey

"You had feelings for it?"he asked

"Yes even though she was a Uggony she had a human soul, she fought for what she believed in."said Halsey.

He laughed at her with his army they would purify the holy relic of the forerunners they were close to the resistance force that blocked their way. He turned to his brother "MY BROTHERS! TODAY WE PURIFY THIS HOLY RELIC OF THE FORERUNNERS. WE WILL KILL THE HERITCS THAT LIVE HERE AND THE DEMONS THEY ALLIED THEMSELVES WITH!"he began "THEN WHEN WE GET THE HOLY ORICAL WE WILL FINISH WHAT THE NOBLE TRUTH STARTED AND PURIFY THE UNIVERSE!"

DXDXDXDXDX

Halsey sat there and listened to Jul's speech, she knew Brittany was a lot smarter than what Jul gave her credit for. That alone would be his down fall, and she would smile when he laid dead at Brittany's feet.

DXDXDXDXDX

When she woke up she found herself breathing air the same air mamma and daddy breathed, she sat up and at her body she had arms with a hand and five fingers on each. Legs with feet and five toes on each. Soft laughter sounded behind her and she spun long waves of pink hair following her "Hello Wigs."said the forerunner in front of her

"Who are you how did you know my name?"she asked

"I am the one who returned your adopted mother and the one you loved to you."said the forerunner.

So this was the Librarian her mamma talked about "Is this a dream?"she asked

"No little one I have watched you for a long time and have been waiting for you."said the Librarian with a smile.

She looked at her body she had round breasts about mamma size a trimmed waist and a rounded backside "I made you as you wished child, you found love and that alone deserves a chance. But how you present yourself to your family and friends is up to you."said the Librarian

"I want to be like Mamma and Daddy a Spartan."she said

"A spartan like the one you love as well?"asked the Librarian.

She blushed "Yes."she said shyly

"Go be with your love, be happy child."said the Librarian.

Armor appeared on her body as the light faded away all was dark again.

DXDXDXDXDX

Brittany had no idea what was going on now, when the burial detail said Wigs's body just up and vanished into thin air had the troops in an uproar. Caboose looked at her "It began to glow all pretty and then it was gone."said Caboose

"CABOOSE BODIES DON'T GO AND GLOW AND VANISH!"yelled ALPHA

"Calm down ALPHA."she said.

What the hell was going on was it Prometheans? About that same time Tex and the other Freelancers came up "Brittany, Jul's forces are on the move they will be here by day brake."said Washington

"Well lets get things ready for the welcome party."she said a evil smirk plastered on her lips.

Jul' Madama was going to find out what happened when you pissed off the wrong freelancer.

17. Chapter 16

A/N: I know why kill the grunt? Well Emile needs love too. Here is the next Chapter.

Chapter 16: Spartan Harmony

Just as Tex and the others reported they were under attack by morning "Those damn Wraths are going to take us out."said Kelly

"Good thing we have Shilla."Brittany said

"You called Alaska?"asked a voice.

A Scorpion tank came rolling up "Yes I did Shilla ole girl you see those Wraths?"she asked.

A talking tank what was next? Jun could not get over the toys the Freelancers had "Yes."said Shilla
>"Those are nasty reds BLAST the fuck out of them."said Brittany

"Consider them dead."said Shilla happily.

He looked at Brittany as the AI tank rolled forward and began opening fire with its cannon. Taking out two Wraths in one shot "I love my handy work."said Brittany

"They let you make armor piercing rounds for Scorpions?"asked her father

"Yep, a shame Director Dick head kept them here wouldn't you agree?"she asked

"Brittany, you are to MUCH like your mother."said Chief

"Yeah, but she gets her stubbornness form you."he said.

He knew the Master Chief was giving him a death glare form behind his visor. The last of the six Wraths went up in smoke and Shilla came rolling back over "Any other 'reds' you wish for me to take care of?"asked the tank

"Not at this time."said Brittany.

Just then the main ground force came to view "There is Madama."said Thorn.

The lead Sangheili was Madama? The one who caused Brittany to suffer on Reach? Oh he knew Brittany had the proverbial ax to grind with that split-lip, so did everyone else due to Wigs "So Demon did you get my message?"asked Jul

"Oh I got it you son of a jackass, how dare you harm her."Brittany said darkly.

He looked at her "Brittany calm down, he is trying to mess with your head."he said.

Emile on the other hand didn't get that and the pshyco path with the shotgun charged Jul' Madama
>"EMILE!" yelled Carter.

DXDXDXDXDXDXD

If Madama didn't kill Emile she would, what the fuck was that ass thinking? You never ran up on someone who had the psychological advantage on you. One of Jul' Madama's seconds stopped Emile with a kick in his chest plate and proceeded to pin Emile by the shoulder with his energy sword.

Jul' Madama laughed "The demon who killed my brother. How I will enjoy killing you."said Jul' Madama.

She picked up a nice sized stone and threw it catching the Didact's hand in the face, he growled at her

"Why don't you pick on someone your own size or close enough."she said.

She reached for her breast plate on each side unclipping her energy swords and took a step forward "I was born here. I learned to fight from my Sangheili brothers and sisters here. I will not let you harm them or my home like you have done my daughter Jul' Madama."she said.

The Sangheili with Jul were snarling at her for speaking their native toung "How dare you speak to us in our language you filthy demon."said one.

Jul' Madama tilted his head and "Brothers she even wares OUR armor, but its color is that of heresy. I for one have to respect her skills. I fought her on Reach, I thought I had killed her. Yet the Librarian brought her back. I know why now. She will be my mate."said Jul' Madama.

She wanted to gag at that, she shook her head "I have a mate I was brought back for him, Unlike you he has my father's blessing. My father is the demon you fear most. The GREEN demon. Now let my battle brother go and I will end your life quickly."she said.

Jul' Madama laughed at her "Your human mate will die as your father will."said Jul for all to hear.

She shook her head and began to laugh "You kill my father The Master Chief 117? You have visions of grander don't you?"she asked.

It was their turn to have the advantage on them, Majestic caught on quick and began laughing "You kill THE Master Chief? You funny."said Hoya.

The domino effect continued on the the Arbiter of Sangheilous "The Prophets and the Flood failed what makes you believe that you can kill him?"asked Arbiter.

DXDXDXDXDXDXD

Daddy was about to roll on the ground laughing when she saw her love escape. She smiled and moved lower, she was a little scared though she had to admit. She wasn't used to being a human let alone a Spartan, but she was adjusting. All the Grunts with the Didact's hand were confused by her mother's comments. She slowly took aim with her new DMR and zeroed in on one of the minors in the group. The Sangheili had their shields down a big mistake on their part "YOU KILLED MY WIGS YOU BASTARD AND IF BRITTANY DON'T KILL YA I WILL!"roared Emile laughing like a mad man.

Her heart shattered, her beloved love was in pain over her death. Jul' Madama made a comment about an Uggony and a demon was lowly under a offspring of a demon and Sangheili. Like he was planning with mamma. Junior got into it then "I AM OF DEMON AND SANGHEILI!"roared Junior. The Sangheili loyal to Mamma roared "THAT WOULD BE LIKE A SPARTAN TRYING TO BED A MIGGET!"said Buck laughing.

She was going to get the smart assed ODST Gunnery Sargent for that comment "YEAH A MIGGIT THAT WOULD SHOOT YOU IN THE COD PLATE! AND YOU TALK ABOUT HER LIKE THAT ONE MORE TIME BUCK AND I'LL KILL YO ASS!"yelled Emile.

She got an idea, she reaimed her DMR at a Ranger Sangheili further down the line. If Uncle Carter could do it so could she. She slowly pulled the trigger and she hit her target.

DXDXDXDXDXDXD

Everyone went silent as the Sangheili Ranger grabbed his crotch and began to fall forward. He looked around to find the source of the shot. He found it too, black and olive EVA armor similar to Emile's except for the big knife a energy sword was there. The marksmen stood up and jumped down to the ground. Wigs wore the same colors when he first met her on Earth, Buck had protected her form him too how could he forget that first meeting...

_Flash back _

_ He and Avery were meeting up with the 11__th__ ODSTs lead by Gunny Sargent Edward Buck only to see a Grunt. He raised his battle rifle at her, this Grunt showed no fear. Her eyes showed pain and loss,unlike the Covenant Grunts she wore UNSC gear the colors were Black and Olive and you could see her mouth and short little shark like teeth and she had a pink haired wig. Cortana thought it was cute and funny at the same time all he saw was a Grunt, that was until someone stopped him "Whoa there you too don't shoot that Grunt."said Buck
>"Shes a Grunt why shouldn't we shoot her?"asked Avery

"_Because I was raised by humans. Spartans to be closer to the mark. My adopted mother was a Spartan called NOBLE six. She fell on Reach. She raised me form as you call your young a baby."said the Grunt._

Cortana smiled "Shes right Chief I remember her. NOBLE team were the ones who got me to the Autumn. She and NOBLE 3 were with Halsey."said Cortanan

"_So she is UNSC?"he asked_

"_Yes."said Buck "And her adopted mother would come back from the dead and kill me or anyone who hurts Wigs."_

"_Wigs?"asked Avery_

"_Thats my name old man don't ware it out."said the Grunt._

End of flash back

He looked at this new Spartan, there was something about her that felt familiar. She looked at him and gave him the Spartan smile and he returned it "Another Demon? One who is a coward and shoots a warrior were no warrior wishes to be shot?"demanded Madama.

The Spartan turned and gave Jul the finger and Majestic lost it.

DXDXDXDXDXDXD

Who was this new Spartan, she wasn't freelancer that was for sure. Her armor looked like Emile's save for the visor "You new Spartan, nice shot. Would you take NOBLE 4 to Doc."she said.

The Spartan saluted and lead Emile away, Jul gave the order to attack and she smirked "To war."she said.

DXDXDXDXDXDXD

Emile looked this EVA armored female Spartan as she checked him over before Doc came in, he was already taking care of wounded thanks to the fucking Wraths "Your armor is like mine save for the color and the energy sword why?"he asked.

The female Spartan stopped and looked at him, she reached up and slowly removed her helmet. Pink hair flowed from it when her eyes opened he couldn't breath he knew those eyes "Because I am someone who loves you."she said looking down blush crossing her cheeks

"Wigs? It can't be. You died how?"he asked reaching for her with his good arm

"My love for you brought me back with the help of the Librarian."she said.

The Librarian? He would have to thank the Forerunner when he saw her again "You have no idea how much I love you Emile."she said.

He removed his helmet with his good arm "I heard Jun and Brittany talking about your data pad."he said.

She looked up at him her emerald eyes wide "You did?"she asked

"I have my skulls as well. I wished you were human as well just to hold you, touch, and kiss you. You bring Harmony into my life. When I saw your body covered in blood I..."he broke off

"Emile, my Emile."Wigs whined throwing herself at him.

He winced but held her crying form, this was more than he could ever wish for "Well don't let me desturb you, but you need your arm and shoulder looked at as for you Miss. Your needed on the front lines."said Doc.

Wigs looked at him "Go, I'll be alright. Brittany and Jun need you out there. And take my knife and shotgun."he said

"I will my love."she said.

He kissed her soundly and let her brake away, she put her helmet on and took his knife and shotgun and looked at Doc "Take care of him."she said

"Wigs?"said Doc

"No, Harmony."said Wigs as she put her hair in her helmet and put it on.

He smile he had his Harmony in his life again and she would give Jul' Madama hell in his stead...

FINALLY! I am done with this chapter! Please review.

18. Chapter 17

A/N: Alright here is the next chapters and some friends are coming to the rescue. Read to see who as for the Sangheili who got shot in unmentionable places it was not Jul' Madama it was a Ranger class.

Chapter 17: WE'RE GOING TO DIE!

They had been fighting for what seemed like hours when the Promethians showed their ugly faces on the battlefield. The casualty count was rising on both sides and even though Freelancers as well as their Spartan II and III cousins they were running low on ammo and luck. The new spartan though was killing so many of Madama's forces it would make Emile smile. The EVA armored spartan either nailed the enemy with Emile's knife or blew it away with his shotgun. Brittany had gotten nicked by a balmite round in her right arm not enough to put her out of action, but enough to piss the Freelancer princess off. Jun for one had no idea how they were going to win this with out blowing Valhalla, but there was always hope Chief; Brittany's father had pulled that out of his ass so many times hope was what you could count on. No one expected this though Mexican music blaring as a warthog came driving over a hill.

It was Red team, Brittany had them fall back when the Wraths showed up. Shilla was their main worry and Brittany knew it Griff was driving, Simmons was on the turret, and Sarge was shotgun with a shotgun.

DXDXDXDXDXDX

_"WE'RE GOING TO DIE!"_cried a voice

"_SHUT UP GRIFF WE ARE NOT GOING TO DIE!"_replied Sarge

"_Then Brittany is because there are no brakes."_said Griff.

When the words 'No Brakes' came out of Griff's mouth he say looked for Brittany. He found her in the mist of Promethian crawler soup "Brittany, Sarge's ride has no brakes get out of there."he said

"_I heard Jun, don't worry about me babe."_she said.

The warthog splattered the crawlers, but it wasn't enough to stop the Warthog "BRITTANY!"he screamed.

Just then white armor lept over her head and landed on the front end of the warthog crushing it, throwing the passanger and the driver. He was shocked at Thom's weight. If Thom could cause that much damage to a Warthog he could only guess how much damage, to a ghost. Brittany shook her head as Thom let lose with his Brute Blaster roaring and hissing at the enemy. The promethians and Jul's other forces retreated for the time being.
>Brittany removed her helmet and looked over at him and nodded, their priority one job was to get the wounded off the ring and onto the Infinity. He walked over to her an put an arm around her waist "Are you alright?"he asked

"Yeah, I'm fine. Are you?"she asked

"Yeah."he replied.

She rested her head on his shoulder "Jul will have to bring more than that if he wants this ring."she said

"I know, thats what I'm afraid of."he said.

He walked her to Doc's office where Emile sat up in bed "Damn, I heard all the fun in here how did Harmony the new Spartan do?"Emile asked

"She was well..."he broke off

"She would give you a run Emile, she was taring them up."said Brittany.

Emile smiled and nodded "Brittany, could you sit down. I need to check your wounds."said Doc

"Of course old friend."she said.

He knew Brittany was not going to like the casualty list one bit. Wigs was the first then there was no telling how many more were dead.

DXDXDXDXDXDX

Brittany got the final count now 100 dead and 63 wounded, not compared to Jul's forces he had well over 154 dead and 200 wounded. Doc disinfected her wounds as she read the reports, the wounded were being taken to the _Infinity _and more troops were coming down. She let out a long sigh "What is it?"asked Emile

"Nothing really I am just tired." she said

"Yeah Jun hit the mark didn't he?"asked Emile

"Yeah, and I tire easily now which isn't good."she said

"Well as your doctor, get some rest you need it."said Doc.

She nodded not wanting to argue with Doc "Doc we need O'Mally."she said

"Are you crazy? I can't use him."said Doc.
>She put a hand on his shoulder "Yes you can, you have too. I have a plan in the works and I need him while Wyoming, New York, and Texas go to Madama's ship to retrieve Halsey and the other half of that key."she said.

Doc nodded as she headed for hers and Jun's room, as soon as she got there she fell face first into the soft mattress. She heard a chuckle behind her and saw her father "Dad, I am leaving Jun in charge Doc wants me off my feet in the next battle and I am listening I can't risk the children."she said.

Her father nodded and looked at her "Well Griff and your other friends from Red base are going to guard you."said her father.

She nodded and laid back, she had to get some rest. Jun entered the room with her 'guard' "So Doc told you to get some rest?"asked Sarge

"Yeah and you five are to guard me."she said

"We wouldn't want anything to happen to you or the baby."said Donut

"By the way who's idea was it to disable the warthog's brakes?"she asked.

Like she had to because all fingers pointed to Sarge "Now you know whom to yell at Jun."she said

"Good because if I wouldn't have found and something happened I know some reds who would die slowly."he said.

DXDXDXDXDXDX

Harmony made her way back to Emile, he had fought to stay behind to protect her adopted mother. As soon as she entered Emile looked up at her a soft smile on his face "Hello beautiful."he said.

She felt her cheeks heat up behind her visor "Hello my love."she said.

Emile stood up and walked over to her and put his good arm around her "I heard you made a lot of upset split lips today."Emile said

"Yes and Promethians even though momma almost got flattened by Sarge and his nitwits."she said.

Emile nodded and lead her over to the bed "You need some rest as well."said Emile

"Only if your with me."she replied.

Emile nodded and laid down beside her and the pair drifted to sleep.

Sorry this one is short.

19. Chapter 18

A/N: I am two almost three chapters behind, how could I let this happen? Any who the plan to get Halsey is about to be in full swing and those of you wanting a little romance between Kat and Carter as well as Harmony and Emile oh it is coming soon enough.

Chapter 18: All Hell has broke lose!

Over the next two days the casualty count rose by 60 for the Valhalla and UNSC forces and multiple for losses for Jul' Madama and his forces with a casualty count of 2000. Fireteam Crimson was the best of the best next to Majestic with those two fireteams as well as NOBLE and BLUE they were the four deadly teams. Brittany made her way to Palmer who had been meeting vie sattilite with Captain Lasky "Rumors are sir Brittany has a plan to get the other key as well as Halsey."said Palmer

"Rumors are true Commander."she said causing Palmer to jump causing Lasky to chuckle.

Palmer spun around to face her "Colonel."said Palmer

"Commander, Captain. Yes I do have a plan in the works to get the other Key as well as Halsey. You might not want to hear it though even though I do admit a AI of deadly origin will be replacing one of our most valuable Freelancer assets."she said.

Lasky nodded "You know after this is over you have to go on the run again until you take down the Director?"asked Lasky

"Trust me Captain, we already know where he is. I had ISIS track Georgia."she said "That is beside the point right now. I am having a six man Freelancer fireteam going to retrieve Halsey."

"Who?"asked Palmer

"Agents Maine, Wyoming, North, Washington, New York, and Texas."she said.

Palmer's eyes went wide "And who is the AI?"asked Lasky

"O'Mally."she said

"O' Mally is an unstable AI that Director Leonard Church made are you sure you want to be using him?"asked Roland

"Mally has always been loyal to me and he has a crush on ISIS."she said smirking.

Roland shook his head "When does your Fireteam leave?"asked Lasky

"They will be leaving in two hours sir."she replied "I feel sorry for the ones who have to guard Halsey and the ship though."

Palmer shook her head as did Lasky, anyone would feel sorry for the one who got in Maine or Tex's way.

DXDXDXDXDX

Jun had removed his Scout armor to let it recharge with the two whole days of fighting the energy of the armor was seriously depleted and needed to be recharged and his wasn't the only one. Spartans clad in only their Skin suits ran around the base cleaning their weapons and preparing for the next attack. He had went to his and Brittany's room only to see that she wasn't there and went to look for the mother of his triplets. He was still trying to wrap his head around the thought of three children in one shot. He found Brittany talking with Palmer "I hate to say it, but I think your Freelancers will give my Fireteams a run."said Palmer

"Thats what happens when you come down here and start shit. Tex has already asked me if I wanted you taken out."Brittany replied.

Palmer looked at Brittany wide eyed "Don't worry I told her no, right now we don't need to be fighting eachother."Brittany said

"Excuse me ladies I hope I'm not interrupting anything?"he asked

"You know Jun, I knew you were standing there."both woman replied at once.

He smirked "Really then why did the two of you jump?"he asked

"Do I need to sick my father on you?"Brittany asked.

He held his hands up on that one "No quite frankly I think your father loves to beat the hell out of me when you or your mother aren't looking."he said.

Palmer looked at Brittany "My father don't like Jun much, like he can tell me how to live my life."Brittany said waving a hand in the air

"When Emile had me up against the base what did he mean by 'Three more lives'?"Palmer asked.

Brittany sighed "Good news sure does travel fast with Sister gossiping."Brittany said

"Brittany is pregnant with triplets."he said.

Palmer looked at him "And your letting her fight? Have you lost your mind sir?"asked Palmer

"Like I can tell her what she can and can't do she is two grades higher than I am Commander."he said.

Palmer nodded "I have been off the field for the last two days at doctors request. I'd really be in trouble if I wore my Spartan armor."Brittany said

"The radiation would speed along her pregnancy."he explained

"Can't have the Freelancer princess going into labor in the middle of a battle now can we?"asked Palmer

"No most certainly can not have that."Brittany said.

Brittany crossed her arms over her chest "Commander have your troops get some rest they need it, Jun you too thats and order."Brittany said

"Yes sir!"he and Palmer both replied.

DXDXDXDXDX

Harmony came into the room wore out with a little battle ware to her armor, he couldn't help but want to put both arms around her. Doc was tending to several wounds she had revived during battle "You need to stay off your feet for a few hours Harmony, you are still getting used to your new body."said Doc

"Has anyone been able to figure you out yet?"he asked.

He knew he got a heated glaire from behind her visor "Master Chief suspects no one else as of yet why? Scared mamma and daddy will kick your ass?"she asked.

He held his hands up "I'd more be worried if they find out without you telling them."he and Doc said at once.

Harmony sighed "Your armor needs recharging head to the armory and get it off."said Doc.

Harmony got up and left the room, she was tired and he could tell "Give her a few more battles and she'll be able to use her new gift of a body to its full potential Emile. After all look who took her in and raised her."said Doc

"Yeah, at first everyone, but her and Jorge thought it was a bad idea."he said.

Doc nodded "Look how she turned out she was braver than any Grunt the Covenant had."said Doc.

DXDXDXDXDX

When she returned to Emile, Doc was gone leaving them alone. She closed and locked the door "I am going to take a shower."she said

"Yeah, you don't smell like a rose right now."said Emile.

She shoot him a 'Don't you start' look and went into the bathroom. As soon as she was in she closed the door and locked it stripping bare and turned on the shower. She stepped in letting the hot water hit all of her sore points of her body and began to wash away the dried blood that she had form her wounds. Mamma always told her that dried blood was not to be worn on ones person let alone their armor, her pink hair turned blood red under the hot spray as she washed the grime of the battle away. When she was done she turned the shower off reached for a clean towel and wrapped it around her person. She took a smaller towel for her hair, and dried it off then brushed it out. When she got out of the shower Emile was no where to be seen in the room so she got dresses and pinned her hair loosely to her head.

She pulled the covers back to her bed and got in when the door opened, she sat up to see Emile bringing two trays of food in "Here I know your hungry."he said.

She sat up and took the tray he offered her "Thank you."she said.

She saw pizza a human food she loved as a Grunt, it was pepperoni, cheese, mushrooms, ham, and bacon her favorite. Then a bottle of water while Emile had a monster energy drink the green on. It was because of that green can they found out you never give a grunt caffeine or sugar "I'm not a grunt anymore Emile."she said

"I know thats why I grabbed two with out anyone knowing."he said holding up a second can.

She smiled and took the second, she ate her pizza and everything else on the tray drinking her monster and water. When the trays and cans were emptied of its contents she set hers on the dresser and laid her head on his broad shoulder "Emile?"she asked

"Yes Harmony?"he replied

"I know mamma is carrying and all, but what is this I hear about triplets?"she asked.

Emile snorted "Why looking to start trouble between me and your parents?"he asked.

She giggled "I heard its rare for human women to have more than two."she said "And you have been causing them trouble since I could talk."

"True, it is rare. I guess Jun didn't hold back."Emile said.

Emile smelled of Axe Phoenix and gunpowder a sent she always found alluring even as a grunt it drove her crazy. Emile put his tray to the side and put an arm around her " Harmony, you need rest."he said

"And if I wanted something else?"she asked running a finger over where the scar that killed him would have been.

He groaned as his grip on her tightened "Harmony, your messing with things you shouldn't mess with at the moment."he said

"Since when did a NOBLE other than my mom do as a Doctor told them?"she asked whispering in his ear seductively.

She could feel him shake with desire, something she to had "Harmony."he warned

"I'm not scared Emile."she said.

DXDXDXDXDX

He pulled Harmony across his lap and kissed her, she wanted this and he wasn't the kind of man to leave a woman to want what she needed. He broke the kiss and looked into her emerald eyes "All in or all out, because once I start I may not stop."he warned her

"I only have and always want you Emile."she replied returning his kiss.

The need and longing in it made the animal inside wake up and roar with need, he let his wounded arm support her back as his good arm move over her. He was not going to leave her disappointed, his hand moved under her tank top to cup her breast and she moaned. He deepened the kiss gliding his tonge into her mouth slowly coxing hers. Her finger went to his hair as he re situated them, now with her legs wrapped around his waist. He picked her up and laid her on her back, he broke the kiss to look into those emerald pools and began to leave a trial of nip kisses down her neck. She mewled under him digging her nails into his good shoulder and wounded shoulder. He hissed in pain "Easy there my Harmony, one of those is my injured shoulder."he said

"Sorry my darling Emile."she said kissing his wounded shoulder.

He groaned and nuzzled her neck "This shirt of yours my dear needs to come off."he said lifting her shirt up and off of her.

The Librarian spared no stone unturned when giving her a human body, she could rival her adopted mother in breast size.

She had no idea what he had planed until his hot mouth took her left breast. Her back arched as new sensations rippled through her body like a tidal wave of pleasure one she never experienced before now. She withered against him moaning his name softly; she clawed at his shirt trying to get it off of his frame. He stopped and removed it for her and went back to work on her body, she knew of his past and didn't care as long as she was his now and his alone. She felt something hard against her stomic and reached down and stroked it to get a growl from him "Harmony, this is your first time. I would like to make it as easy for you as possible."he said

"I don't care I want to feel."she said.

It was like he sifted gears, he finished stripping her and himself. Pulling something out of the nightstand and put it on. He had a preditorial look in his eyes more than he ever did in his bloodlust against the Covenant. He entered her and she jerked he was HUGE! Her little Uggony body wouldn't be able to handle something that big it would kill her. He stopped letting her adjust, he was looking down at her and began to move. She felt pain and he nuzzled her neck "It will pass my little Harmony."he whispered kissing her neck.

He slowly moved in and out of her and he was right, it did pass. As soon as she moved against him he thrusted into her hard sending a shock wave of pleasure into her body. She threw her head back and moaned "You like that?"he asked

"Yes."she moaned.

Emile gave her what she wanted, and she moved with him. His name leaving her lips over and over again his groaning making her hungry for more. Something inside of her was turning inside her like a wave against a rock in a storm. She was close to her end her nails digging into his back drawing blood as she screamed his name.

DXDXDXDXDX

His little Harmony gave him so much and she was withering against him. Her body tightening around him. He reached his own end after she did, rolling onto his back with her on her chest "I love you Emile."she said.

His heart hammered against his chest, he was so used to one nightstands with girls that wanted sex. He kissed the top of her head "I love you too my little Harmony."he said and pulled the covers over them and drifted into a deep sleep.

DXDXDXDXDX

Brittany leaned against Jun "Harmony, there is something about her that irritates the hell out of me."she said

"I know the feeling shes like a female version of Emile."Jun replied kissing the top of her head.

Brittany looked at him and kissed him; she loved Jun and always would. He smiled against her lips, he broke the kiss "Brittany, do you know what to day is?"he asked

"No, what?"she asked

"Today is the day you joined NOBLE."he said smiling at the memory.

She looked at him "I have only one regret."she said

"Whats that?"he asked

"Not telling you how I felt before I fell."she said.

He kissed her forehead "I know the feeling."he said.

Jun pulled the covers over them him nor Brittany knowing Harmony was Wigs, nor did they know of what she and Emile just shared together.

DXDXDXDXDX

Jul' Madama and his troops attacked in the early hours before her six man teams mission, the whole base was in an up roar. Everyone was scrambling for their armor and Doc knew O' Mally was needed Doc what are you hiding form me?"she asked.

Doc looked at her "You mean that Wigs is Harmony?"said O' Mally.

She dropped her helmet "O' Mally, you knew?"she asked

"Ooops I should not have said that."said O' Mally "Nor the fact what she and Emile were doing last night...Shit."

Emile KNEW? She was going to get his ass for that, as for Wigs. She grabbed a shotgun off the wall and stormed out of the armory "Griff, have you seen Emile?"she asked

"Ah, no why?"he asked

"Just asking because I just found out Harmony is Wigs."she said

"What?"said Griff.

She continued on looking for Emile.

DXDXDXDXDX

Emile heard pounding on the door "Who is it?"he asked.

Harmony still slept on his chest "Emile, you better run O' Mally told Brittany."said Sarge

"SHIT!"he and Harmony said at once

"So it is true? Boy you better run she's going to skin your hide."said Sarge.

He and Harmony threw their skin suits on and ran to the armory using the back ways to get there. As soon as they were in their armor they hid in a pelican not knowing it was the six man fireteam's and that it was bound for Madama's ship.

That is all for this chapter forgive me that I am a little bit behind in chapters I am trying to get somethings done before I can get my bigger ranch for my horses.

20. Chapter 19

A/N: Here is the next chapter so recap last chapter Brittany found out Harmony's true identity; she is overly pissed off with Emile for doing things to her adopted daughter (Daddy is rearing his head in her) now Emile and Harmony are on their way to get into more trouble this time with Texas. **

Also I would like to thank my readers for the loads of reviews and your support. Here is the next chapter folks enjoy. Oh more Lemons ahead this time it is Kat and Carter. Next there may be some Chief and Samantha which her full name is Sarah Samantha Hawk. Samantha or Sammy.

Chapter 19: My Lovely Kitty

Brittany was looking for Emile and she had no idea why? She went to look for Carter to get him up and in his armor and found him in his armor ready to go "I don't know what he did, but Brittany is pissed with Emile."she said.

Carter looked at her putting his helmet on "No telling with Emile."said Carter.

She grabbed her Assault rifle and looked her pistol "Well all I have to say is what ever he did or didn't Brittany is going to skin him alive."she said.

Carter nodded and headed for the door and she followed him. As they went out side Brittany was heading back in cussing six ways form Reach. What ever Emile did pissed Brittany off big time.

DXDXDXDXDXDXDX

Brittany went to her post Sniper rifle in hand as soon as she saw Emile she was going to shoot him in his ass. That had to wait right now Grant had taken the six maned fireteam to Jul's ship. Jul was not going to like the 'Renovations' the ship was about to get between Tex and Maine. She took aim and brought down a Hunter that had picked Hoya as its target and the beast fell on the poor VI "Brittany could you please keep things you shoot from falling on MY Spartans."said Palmer

"Sorry Commander Hoya looked like he needed help."she replied.

She swung over to see a pair of Promethian Knights trying to sneek up behind Kat and Carter "I don't think so ass holes."she said pulling the trigger.

The first one when it dropped and turned into data let the other know there was a sniper and it disappeared and reappeared behind her where she had her Energy Sword waiting. It roared at her "GERRRRR YOURSELF!"she said as she lobbed its head off.

DXDXDXDXDXDXDX

Jun watched as Brittany took the Knight's head with her Energy sword "What has her so pissed off today?"he asked

"_Something Emile did."_said Kat

"Oh no what did he do now?"he asked

"_No clue but it has Brittany wanting to hunt his ass."_said Kat.

What ever Emile did he needed to apologize for or she was going to turn him into a girl spartan named Emily. He looked over at his beloved as she looked at him then to Jul' Madama who was back stepping. Where was Harmony and where the fuck was Emile.

DXDXDXDXDXDXDX

They heard voices one of them belonging to Texas "As soon as we get in Grant keep the bird ready."said Texas

"We have guests."said Sigma
>"Shit."she and Emile said

"Emile, Harmony? What are you two doing here?"asked New York

"Hiding from Mom."she said looking down

"Hiding form...Wigs?"York asked

"Yeah, O' Mally let it slip I let Emile know before her and now..."she broke off

"Brittany wants to kick my ass."said Emile.

Tex laughed and shook her head "So thats what you two were doing last night."said Tex

"Your dead."said Washington

"Brittany, will let it go in time chaps don't worry."said Wyoming.

Emile laughed and looked at Wyoming "Your not the one pregnant with triplets she is that means mood swings are going to be a hell of a lot worse."said Emile

"TRIPLETS?!"said North

"You heard right. Alaska is having three wee little ass kickers."said Texas.

As soon as the Pelican landed the six went to head out "Since your here you can help."said Texas.

They nodded "So where is Halsey being held?"she asked

"We don't know yet. Sigma is trying to find out."said North.

DXDXDXDXDXDXDX

He was paired with Harmony and Thom, he smiled it was just like old times between him and Thom before Brittany joined the team. Harmony took point and looked at him "So you two using protection because I hate to have to let Tex kick your ass Emile."said Sigma for Thom

"Yes we are."said Harmony

"Good not telling with you once being an Uggony 100 little Emiles' running around."said Sigma.

That was Uncle Jorge's worst nightmare come true then "Sorry Thom ole pal, one of me is enough right now."said Emile.

"_Tex to Maine we have the other key."_said Tex

"Copy that Tex we have found Halsey and getting ready to get her out."said Sigma.

The entered the cell block and found trouble 30 sangheili looked at them and roared "Yeah about that we are going to need back up."said Emile

"_Why you have Maine."_said York

"Time to go META on their asses."said Sigma and the shit hit the fan.

DXDXDXDXDXDXDX

Mom was going to kill Emile, during the attack in the cell block she had gotten nailed by a belmite round in the side even though the crystal was pulled out and Bio-foam was applied Emile had gotten the hell beat out of him by Texas. Halsey looked at her "Are you alright spartan?"asked Halsey

"Worried about my Emile is all."she said

"Texas just dislocated his shoulder nothing major."said Halsey

"Before or after Brittany gets her hands on him next?"asked North.

Halsey smiled and shook her head "Alright, why would Brittany care?"asked Halsey

"I was at one time Doctor Wigs."she said.

Halsey made the 'Oh' face "Yep you have right to worry for that bonehead."said Halsey

"Alright ya ole hag."growled Emile

"Like you scare me Spartan."said Halsey

"Brittany will."said Texas.

Maine leaned back and shook his head "Poor Emile."was all Sigma said.

DXDXDXDXDXDXDX

Jul and his forces pulled back after their ship reported that Demons were on board and stole the Key and the Doctor. She followed Carter into the armory "You had me worried Kat."said Carter

"Sorry Colonel."she replied as her armor came off.

She felt hands spinning her around and lips on hers, she melted into it. The night they lost Jorge on Reach was the last time they kissed like this. When the kiss broke Carter rested his forehead on hers "I don't want to lose you again."he said.

She looked into his eyes and saw the pain there, even with someone tying him to a bed and dressing him as a big present they didn't make the most of it at all. She leaned in closer "Carter, take me to bed or lose me forever."she said.

Carter scooped her up in his arms and headed for their room, when he closed and locked the door they striped out of their skin suits and began a heated make out session that lead to tangled limbs and sheets. Carter's lips went to her neck as they made their way to the bed where he laid her down on. Carter was a passionate man always had been. He wasn't one for voicing it out loud in front of others. His lips moved to her breast as he moved lower. He slid a finger into her and she arched up into him "Carter."she moaned

"Mmmm?"he asked.

DXDXDXDXDXDXDX

He smiled as Kat withered under him, she was clawing at his back as he slipped the condom on "We are not pulling a Brittany and Jun."he said.

Kat laughed at that "Well did I tell you they are expecting triplets."she said.

He froze and looked down at his Kat "Triplets? What the fuck have they been doing?"he asked.

Kat laughed and pulled him down for a kiss as he entered her. She gasped and those nails, sweet Librarian she felt so good around him. He started a slow tempo waiting for her to adjust as soon as she began to move he picked up his pace. She arched into him; her toung rolling over the lump on his throat and that alone just sent him wild. She was getting tighter and screaming his name his beloved little Kitten. He followed her over the edge.

DXDXDXDXDXDXDX

Brittany waited as the Pelican landed to see Harmony frozen "Were is he?"she asked

"Tex, dealt with him stop acting like your father."said North

"He should have told me. She should have told me."she said looking at Harmony who looked down

"We wanted to, but now wasn't the time."Harmony said sadly.

She let out a sigh "Get to bed the lot of you."she said.

Harmony looked at her "Mamma, are you alright?"asked Harmony.

Things began to spin and the last thing she saw was Nat rushing over to catch her before darkness took her.

21. Chapter 20

A/N: Alright here is the next chapter I am going to hold of on the romance of Sarah and Chief for this chapter. Brittany is out cold and now there could be a new problem.

Chapter 20: No more

Brittany woke up in the make shift med bay with a splitting headache "You alright?"asked Emile

"You caused it."she pointed out.

Emile shook his head "No the three little ass kickers inside of you caused it. Doc said your stressed out your body and the three inside had you stop."said Emile.

She looked at Emile "What happened while I have been out?"she asked

"Jun got caught by Jul' Madama."said Emile looking down.

Her heart slammed against her rib cage, the father of her children; her beloved Jun was in danger. She had to get up she had to bring him home. She began to get up "Brittany, what the hell are you doing?"asked a voice.

She looked to see her father "What does it look like?"she asked

"Brittany, Doc wants you to stay in bed."said her father

"Fuck you dad."she growled.

Emile slowly moved out of the room "Brittany I am your father."said Chief

"Really? Then where the fuck were you when mom died? Where were you when I suffered in Project Freelancer? Where were you when I fell on Reach? NO WHERE THATS WERE!"she screamed her emotions in a uproar due to her pregnancy.

Her father gripped her shoulders "You are in no condition to fight."Chief said

"And What let Jun die?"she asked.

Her father gripped her shoulders harder trying to get her out of her emotional rampancy "He wouldn't want you to get yourself or the children killed."Chief said

"You don't understand you don't know how I feel, what I went through to protect him. To keep him safe, the first time. What I go through now to protect him. A wolf protects its pack."she said "And to hell with anyone who stands in a wolf's way."

She shoved her father back and kicked him hard in the chest plate "I'm sorry but you are not keeping me away form him as much as you hate it _Dad _I love him and you nor no one else will keep us apart."she said.

She left the room "Emile, get NOBLE together we are going to bring Jun home and the hell with Jul' Madama."she said.

DXDXDXDXDXDXDX

Jun looked around his cell, this was just fucking grand he was caught and in the enemies hands. Brittany, was she and the babies alright? "Judging by the look in your eyes Demon, your mate is the one who is mine."said a voice.

His blood ran cold how dare he see Brittany as his, she belonged to no one or no man. She was a lone wolf who ran by her own rules and he was a wolf who followed his pack to what ever end "You know nothing about her."he growled.

Jul' Madama came up and chuckled "You hold her back demon, you claim her as your own but what you did is that you trapped her when you need to brake her."said Jul

"Like the women of your kind? Here its different she rules here and you are an invader here. You threaten her people, her family, and her friends."he said.

Madama looked at him "You speak as you know her very soul, a soul that needs to be broken."said Madama

"How can one brake what has already been broken?"he whispered.

Jul left him alone he needed to think of a plan to get out of this hell and back into Brittany's loving arms.

DXDXDXDXDXDXDX

She had never seen John this pissed "She kicked me, knocked me out then left. Sammy, what is wrong with her?"he asked

"She is proving herself to you that she is not a weak hearted person that she is in every meaning of the word _SPARTAN_." said Halsey who stood in the door way.

Samantha looked at him "She has been alone her whole life John."said Samantha "She has found her pack."

Halsey smiled and nodded "Samantha why a damn tree frog, bean sprout, ten to one stripper pole?"he asked

"For our daughter maybe."said Samantha

"She sees the only one who understands her loneliness."said Halsey.

What was the doctor trying to say? Samantha smiled and kissed his cheek "John he is 092 and 130s son."

He stood there shell shocked Alice-130 and Jerome-092's son? Jerome was his friend and so was Alice. Jun was their son? He couldn't believe it. He sat down before he fell flat on his ass "His parents were still on the _Spirit Of Fire_. That ship was lost with all hands, how could that have?"he asked

"He is who he is."said Halsey.

If Alice and Jerome saw him knocking their son around they would chase his ass with a Grizzly tank. How could he be so blind, he knew Jun looked familiar, but he couldn't remember who. Now who Jun was he felt like an ass.

DXDXDXDXDXDXDX

Brittany was in her black scout armor something Doc had a shit fit over, Madama wanted the demon of Reach well he was going to get the Demon of Reach. She looked over at Emile and nodded "Brittany, are you sure about this?"asked Carter.

She and Carter stopped using their ranks when they first came here even though Carter was a grade 1 and she was a step below Brigadier General a Colonel Grade 3, Carter saw her as a higher rank "I am positive what kind of person I would be if I repeated my fathers mistakes."she said.

They used the gravity lift to get into the ship and not a asshole in sight. She looked at ISIS in the top left hand corner of her HUD "ISIS, where is he?"she asked

"Jun, is being held in interrogation for now. Records show he was..."ISIS paused

"ISIS we need to know."said Kat

"They have been torturing him."said ISIS.

She closed her eyes and fought the tears back "Leave none alive."she said

"Momma?"asked Harmony

"They want a demon they got one."she said.

DXDXDXDXDXDXDX

His body laid broken on the floor he was alone to die, he wanted to hold Brittany again. He wanted to hear the cries of their children when they were born. Brittany had her parents both of them now, they would look after her and their children. His eyes felt heavy he heard movement out side the door sounds of gun fire. A pair of hands grabbed on to him and he fought fear stabbing into his heart "Jun, please stop."said a voice.

That voice it felt so familiar who was it? It couldn't be Brittany could it?

DXDXDXDXDXDXDX

She removed her helmet as she saw Jun laying on the floor and laid it on the table, she knelt down and went to pull him into her chest to hold him. To cry over him, hoping he was alright. His eyes flashed open wide and in fear blurred thinking the enemy came to finish him off or worse make him suffer more "Jun, please stop."she said.

He slowly stopped his struggling "Jun, what did they do to you?"she asked looking over his naked form.

Multiple cuts and lacerations, she pulled out the med kit. She began to clean his wounds "Jun, please hold still."she said.

He did as she asked "B-B-Brittany?"he asked

"Yes my love?"she asked.

His labored breathing calmed as she cleaned his wounds and began to reach for the Bio-Foam. Carter and the others were at the door "Here put this around him."said Emile.

A UNSC issued sheet, Halsey's no doubt at one time. She wrapped Jun up in it "Jun, don't worry we'll get you to safety."she said.

He was out cold from his injuries _'Don't you dare leave me Jun. You are my ALPHA you lit my way from the darkness of being alone for so long. You filled me with hope; when I had none. Don't die Jun not only do I need you our children need you.'_she said to herself looking down at his handsome face.

DXDXDXDXDXDXDX

Everyone split as Jorge carried Jun into the base, Commander Sarah Palmer looked at Brittany who looked so distressed over Jun's shape "Brittany?"she asked

"They put him in so much pain."Brittany whispered "When I found him the look in his eyes..."

Sarah could only guess what that look was, she put a arm around Brittany "He'll pull through for you and the babies."she said

"Sarah, I love him. If I lost him I don't know what I'd do."Brittany sobbed softly.

The daughter of the legendary Master Chief 117 was worried for the man she loved. She helped Brittany to the armory as Doc came in "See you have been up there for 17 hours and now look at you! You are 7 months pregnant. I told you not to but did you..."Doc stopped as she and the rest of NOBLE and Majestic shot him a glaire.

Brittany didn't need this right now "How is he?"Brittany asked

"He'll pull through he will be in a lot of pain for a while. Any later and we would have most likely would have lost him."said Doc.

Brittany nodded and left the room once she was out of her armor.

DXDXDXDXDXDXDX

She wanted to be close to her beloved Jun. She looked at him as he slept and joined him in the next bed pushing it next to his. She curled up beside him and let sleep take her.

DXDXDXDXDXDXDX

His daughter was in so much pain, she loved Jun _'Your parents would be proud of you Jun.'_he said to himself.

He walked over to his daughter a blanket in his arms and put it on her. He then left them alone and went to his and Samantha's room.

22. Chapter 21

A/N: Alright here is the next chapter Madama was not on the ship when Brittany and NOBLE showed up to save Jun, but Jul is about to have a very angry and pissed off bunch of Spartan II, IIIs and ODST on his ass.

Chapter 21: Remember when

Brittany hated seeing Jun like this, he was so messed up her heart shattered. It had been almost a week since they rescued him and Jul was being smart and staying the hell away. She had staid by Jun's side the whole time and only left when Jorge drug her out to eat something. She ever loyal to Jun the man who opened her eyes again to having a family. Harmony would offten visit and give her information on what was going on. Seventeen hours in her armor made her seven months pregnant, Doc had checked the children the three where alright. Her Fred and the others in her father's team would stop by all feeling sorry that it had to happen to the son of two close friends. Something she didn't understand "Maybe if you talk to him he will wake up."said Doc.

She had to try what harm would it do? She looked at him and smiled sadly "Remember Reach Jun, remember when we met again after what happened. Even if you didn't know it at the time I did."she said

Flash back

_July 7__th__ 2552 Reach_

_ Brittany had just gotten out of the Warthog, funny how fate would throw her into the hands of the very team who's sniper she almost died to protect. He was a Tree frog by alrights. He climbed like one hell he jumped like one, the only thing he didn't do was go ribit, ribit or bump his ass on the ground as he bounced around. As she neared the base she walked right by the Falcon with him inside. He was loading a clip of sniper ammo, gods how his eyes burned holes in her. She was Thom's replacement, and he didn't want her there. She continued to push on walking into the base._

End Flash back

She paused "At first you didn't want me there none of you did. Over time I earned my stay battle after battle earning respect form all of you. I still remember when you saw my face for the first time.

Flash Back

_July 18__th__ 2552 Reach_

_ She had just taken a nice hot shower after training for what seemed like months, Carter was a control freak one she didn't mind as long as he didn't keep it up for days on end. She was clad in a black tank top and black cargo pants when she bumped into someone. Her heart skipped a beat "Sorry Jun."she said._

The look on his face was priceless, he looked like he had seen an angel who had fallen form heaven. For her it was like a she devil form the pits of hell itself "Forgive me Six I should have been paying more attention to what I was doing."he said

"_No I am at fault your not, now if you'd be so kind to move out of my way so I can go to bed."she said._

Jun moved and she made a beeline for her room, she still had not gotten over the shock of seeing him bare assed when Emile made them both ware cake. Not that she didn't like the view, she did. Now she knew one of the reasons why Natty loved Jun so much he had one of those asses you couldn't help, but hold a drool cup under you chin and look. Or if you had the balls to walk up and grab it...

Brittany's voice he could hear it she spoke of memories he had all but forgotten when he...

Flash back

_ August 23__rd__ 2552 Reach_

_ There was no way in hell if she was still alive that he was going to leave her here. He looked at Wigs who had been by his side and nearly attacked Halsey to come looking for Brittany and Emile. As soon as he landed the Pelican they found Emile a gaping hole in his chest from and energy sword. Wigs looked at him pain in her emerald eyes "I hope mama isn't the same way. Hes been dead for days."said Wigs_

"_I hope so too Wigs lets hope she is still alive."he said._

The pair looked for the only markings that Brittany had been in the area...a large mass of dead bodies belonging to the covenant. His heart raced as they followed the trial of destruction finding a total of 200 out of ammo UNSC weapons. The first thing he saw was her helmet laying on the ground the visor cracked. Then he heard Wigs's and her little yelp cry, he looked to see Wigs laying her head against a body crying "Mamma, no."cried Wigs.

He fell to his knees he and wigs were the only two NOBLEs left alive. They were what was left of the team that went on the hardest missions to prove that they weren't expendable assets. He didn't want to see Brittany's face he didn't want to see that beautiful face covered in her own blood...

End of Flash back

He slowly opened his eyes to feel someone's head on his shoulder, he looked to see her and...good Librarian who brought her back whats she do while he was out eat a HUNTER?! She was HUGE! He groaned another thing for her father to kick his ass over "I remember everything Brittany just like I remember when you came back to me. I never wanted anyone, but you."he whispered.

He took his hand and ran it through her hair, the feel of her hair and skin made him fight to stay alive even when the hope of being rescued was fading. Brittany began to wake her eyes meeting his and a smile came to her face "Brittany, thank you."he said

"I thought I lost you, when Emile told me what had happened..."she broke off

"Thats why you look like you ate a hunter. You wore your scout armor."he said.

She blushed and he shook his head "You did what you had to do to save me. I am grateful that you did. I love you."he said

"And I love you my tree frog."she said.

He chuckled "Enough with that nickname I don't bump my ass on the ground."he said

"What about my shadow wolf."she said.

He looked at her and smiled "That I can deal with better than the frog."he said.

She kissed his forehead "I'll be back Jun I am going to get you something to eat."she said.

Jun's eyes followed his lover and the mother of his children out of the room _'What I don't want to remember is what they did to me.'_he said to himself.

Flash back

Jul' Madama's ship

_ The Sangheili laughed as he injected something into his bloodstream, what ever it was burned like hell. The pain was so much he screamed in pain. Everything around him going dark as Jul laughed at his pain. When he woke up he wasn't himself he looked around to see female Sangheili laying naked around him. What had he done? He cheated on his beloved Brittany, Jul's laughter caught his attention "Looks like what is left of the Didact has fused well with us both demon. I look forward to see what pain you can withstand after you gave your seed beyond your own knowledge."said Jul._

He looked at Jul "What the hell did you do to me?"he growled

"_I just found away to make your mate mine through you."said Jul_

"_I'd rather die than imagine the thought of you touching her through me."he bit out._

Jul laughed "Everytime you touch her I will feel see it. And everytime she touches you I will feel it."said Jul as he left "Enjoy your company while you can Demon. For you are about to go through the pain to cleanse you of your sins."

_He fell to his knees what the extremest said couldn't be true could it?_

End of Flash back

Jun shivered at the thought of Jul touching Brittany through him, he had to seek out help to remove what ever it was in his body out of it if what Jul said was true. ISIS appeared before him "Jun, you seemed stressed."said ISIS

"ISIS, do me a favor run a test on me look for anything Forerunner belonging to the Didact."he said.

ISIS nodded and ran the scan, she looked away "Should I inform Brittany?"she asked

"Not until I am gone, I have to get as far from her as I can. Jul injected himself with it as well I can't bare the thought of him touching her through me."he said

"I understand Jun, I am sure the Librarian can help you."said ISIS.

He hoped so to or he would never be able to touch Brittany again.

DXDXDXDXDXDXDX

Emile's head rested in her lap as she ran her fingers through his hair "Emile?"she asked

"Yes Harmony?"he replied

"Do you think Chief will except Jun?"she asked

"I don't know he might when Jun kicks off in his Jolly Green ass."said Emile.

She smiled and giggled at his words "Whos Jolly Green ass?"asked a voice

"Fuck me."said Emile.

She couldn't help, but laugh "Hello Grandpa."she said

"You two better get inside Brittany, went to get Jun something to eat when he woke up."said Chief

"Hes up?"asked Emile shooting up

"Yes, but when she returned he wasn't there."said Chief

"How can daddy just up and go in his condition?"she asked.

Emile and she stood up as her grandfather shrugged "I don't know, but Brittany is in tears."said Chief.

DXDXDXDXDXDXDX

She tried to calm her daughter down, but it wasn't working there was something more going on than what Brittany wanted anyone to know "At this rate she is going to go into early labor."said Doc

"Brittany, calm down."she said

"I can't mom. What Jul did to Jun was worse than we thought. He left to protect me."Brittany sobbed

"Brittany tell us what happened what was it that Jul did?"asked Sarah Palmer

Brittany looked at the Commander of the _Infinity _"He injected Jun and himself with what DNA was left of the Didact."Brittany said shaking.

Halsey paled "Thats what he was going to use it for."said Halsey

"You knew?"Brittany asked.

Halsey looked saddened at her daughter "Yes, I had no..."Halsey didn't get to finish

"YOU STUPID BITCH WHY DIDN'T YOU TELL SOMEONE THAT THE BASTARD HAD THE DIDACT? WE COULD HAVE PROVENTED THIS! ITS YOUR FAULT HE LEFT!"screamed Brittany making a grab for Halsey to have Fred and North grab her "I SWARE IF THEY LOSE GRIP ON ME I WILL TARE YOUR FUCKING THROAT OUT YOU DUMB BITCH!"

No one apparently had seen her daughter this upset before "IF IT WASN'T FOR YOU HE'D STILL BE HERE! HE WOULDN'T HAVE LEFT IN HIS CONDITION! I HATE...AHHHHHHHHH!"Brittany collapsed

"Oh great now you've done it Doctor Halsey you put her in labor."said Doc

"OH SHIT!"said a voice.

Emile and the rest of NOBLE were at the door looking on in shock at what was going on "How much of that did you catch?"she asked

"All of it."said Kat with a dark look on her face not happy at what Halsey had caused.

She looked at Palmer "You and Majestic get my daughter to the _Infinity_. NOBLE and BLUE team your with me. We are going to drag him back kicking and screaming if we have to. And as for you Halsey."she said looking at the doctor who got out of Brittany's fist range as Fred and North handed her over to Hoya and Thorn "You better hope we find him alive, because your Spartan IIs won't save you form me because they have to go through Freelancers first."

"Now I know your not leaving us out of the fun."said a smart assed voice

"Who said I was leaving you ODSTs out?"she asked

"Thats what I like to hear."said Buck smirking darkly.

DXDXDXDXDXDXDX

She was in so much pain, how could Jul do this? Why would he do it to Jun? She knew Jul connected the dots between her and Jun, but why do that to him? Another contraction tore through her as the Pelican flown by Grant made a beeline for the _Infinity _"Grant, to Infinity come in."said Grant

"_Go ahead Grant this is Infinity."_said Roland

"We're coming in hot, Mini Chief is in labor. I repeat! We're coming in hot, Mini Chief is in labor."

"_Grant this is Captain Lasky get her ass on this ship now."_said Lasky.

Her heart flew to where ever Jun was right now hoping that her mother and the others found him alive and alright.

23. Chapter 22

A/N: Here is the next chapter people I hope you all are ready this takes place three days after Jun remembers the horrible truth and has set off to find the Librarian on Valhalla.

'Thoughts' or Flash backs

"_Communications" _

"Sangheili"

Chapter 22: The long road ahead.

Brittany was depressed and everyone knew why. The 11th ODSTs lead by Buck nor BLUE team or NOBLE team where heard from for three days after she went into labor. Things on Valhalla were getting worse as Jul' Madama pressed his advance to claim the HALO aray. Brittany how ever didn't show her depression in battle though. That depression turned into pure rage, one that would send even her own father running for the hills to get away "Junior, how much more of a charge do you have left on that energy sword?"she asked "Not much."said Junior.

She had to think of something Jul sent his troops to do the dirty work while he hid like a coward form her rage. It really didn't help when she came back down after a few hours of having her daughters Catherine and Mikayla as well as her son Jun jr. Hell the name for her son stuck because Natty seen him and her eyes lit up "Look its Jun Jr." Natty said.

Brittany of course cried after everyone left as she nestled her son close to feed him from her breast "I miss your father little one I wish he was here now to see the three of you."she said to her son.

That was three days ago this was now and there was no way Brittany was letting that sick son of a jackass get away with what he done to her shadow wolf.

DXDXDXDXDXDXDXDX

Jun staid with the Librarian in the light for three days hoping to get her Ex-Husband's DNA out of his body. The first day was full of pain, the second the pain lessened now he barely felt a thing. The Librarian had invaded his own body digitally to fight off what Jul had done. When he woke up he was greeted by the face of a pissed off Harmony "WHERE THE HELL HAVE YOU BEEN?"asked Carter taking the words out of Harmony's mouth

"I don't know how to answer that."he said

"Well you better before Brittany's mother and father get here they are ready to skin you alive."said Emile

"No worse than what Brittany wants to do to Halsey."said Kat.

He looked over at Kat "What thats supposed to mean?"he asked

"Halsey knew about Jul having the DNA."said Harmony

"And when Brittany found out because Halsey said it in front of her..."said Jorge darkly.

Had the big guy turned on Halsey? "Brittany went to flipping ship I mean she had me about to hide in a dark corner some where to avoid her for a while."said Emile

"She scared the hell out of everyone. I think they heard her on the _Infinity _taring Halsey a new one North and Fred had to hold her back."said Carter

"Yeah dad she wanted to kill Halsey over you leaving. Then shit really hit the fan."said Harmony

"How so?"he asked

"She went into labor."said Carter flatly.

He couldn't help it he facepalmed "Fuck."he groaned

"Fuck is right you little shit."said a voice.

Oh well he was a dead man now, her father had shown up "You really stepped in it know Rookie."said Buck.

He stood up no way in hell he was going to let Chief beat his ass this time, not with out getting at least one good hit in "Do you have any idea what you have done?"asked Samantha

"I have heard."he said

"Why did you do it then?"asked Chief

"Would you have believed me?"he asked in a deadly tone.

Emile backed up it was the same tone he got with him when he 'Grabbed' Brittany all that while ago aboard the _Infinity _kid gloves were off now. Chief walked over to him "Chief don't do it."said Fred.

Chief swung and he ducked moving out of the Spartan IIs foot range, now he had his ass. For all the times Chief picked on him acting that he wasn't good enough for his daughter, all that rage went into the power of his fist. He caught Chief right across the chin platting landing a hit on the suit that covered his chin. Chief's head snapped back "I am tired of your shit. Stay the hell out of my way."he said stepping around Brittany's father and heading for the exit.

DXDXDXDXDX

She was beyond pissed Junior had been stabbed by Jul himself "So you finally show your face you creep."she said.

Jul just laughed at her "Your mate served his purpose aboard my ship for the little time he was on it. I have to admit in sleep seeing you through his eyes feeling him touch you was a experience I wish to live myself. Your mate is dead and will not return to you."said Jul.

She snarled at him "You forget who your messing with asshole. I took out over half of your battalion on Reach. And I have to say I know better. You see I am a lone wolf, I hunt alone. Yet I am not for along time I only let a select few near me. I never truly found my pack. On Reach is were I found them and my mate. Even though I did not see it until my dieing breath, I found my Alpha. Like me, he hunts in the shadows alone. Longing to feel excepted for who and what he is. I know he is alive Jul I feel him, I know he is coming home. I know of what you did to him and for that I will rip out your throat. For when you back a wolf into a corner it will show..."she paused closing her eyes feeling the ground beneath her feet she opened her eyes and looked at her opponent baring her teeth "OUR FANGS!"

She rushed forward jumping into the air energy sword in hand activated the blue pulsing blade thirsting for blood. As her attack came down Jul parried it delivering a kick to her side, she quickly recovered and went in for a second the fighting around them stopped to see the dueling pair fight. She was moving as fast as lightning dodging attacks and delivering her own. Her battle brothers and sisters chanted her Sangheili name over and over again giving her strength. Jul roared at her when she kicked him into a bolder and stood up. She was on top of him ready for the kill when he thrust his hand forward stopping her with an invisible wall before lifting her into the air and throwing her into the hardest thing she knew Maine. She stood up and looked at Jul "The Didact grants me power, he stopped you and tossed you away."said Jul.

She snarled in rage "You will NEVER have me, get it through your damn head asshole."she snarled.

ISIS had interfaced with her armor bringing up all Freelancer abilities. She had to find one for something like this and fast or she'd never see her children or Jun again.

DXDXDXDXDX

As soon as the got signal and heard what was going on they loaded up into the Pelican flown by Spartan Grant and headed for base. Jun had gave him one hell of a upper cut and was a wise ass too. Jun was smart enough to put his armor on when he left three days before. He had to give Jerome and Alice credit though the boy had Jerome's punch and Alice's 'fuck with me to much and when I have had enough I fuck you up' temper. His eyes focused on Jun the intire ride "Alright back there word is the fighting has stopped due to Jul' Madama fighting Brittany one on one. Also Junior The Arbiter of Valhalla has been gravely wounded."said Grant

"How long has Jul and Brittany been fighting?"asked Buck.

There was silents in the cockpit then Grant came onto their channels "Hoya says they have been going at it for 5 hours."said Grant

"Thats as long as we have been air born."said Dutch

"It gets better Hoya also said that Jul' Madama is using the Didacts power."Grant added.

His head snapped to the cockpit "Trust me I know how that feels its not fun."he said

"Is she alright?"Jun asked

"Still as scrappy as ever the way I hear it."said Grant.

DXDXDXDXDX

Brittany's waypoint came alive on his HUD they we about 1 minuet out. He had to help Brittany some how, question was how? As they got closer Grant got lower to the ground and they stood up "This is going to be fun."said Mikey

"Only you would call this fun."said Dutch

"Lock it down you two before I put my boots to your asses."said Buck.

Grant let them off on the high ground landing the pelican as they got to the edge Jul had Brittany by the throat. He reached for his sniper rifle and a round off of his shoulder guard. He chambered the round went into active cammo and took aim. He steadied his breathing _'Don't worry my she wolf. I am right were I need to be...home.'_he said to himself as he pulled the trigger.

He caught Jul in the shoulder and he dropped Brittany. She landed on her feet and looked to see where the shot came form. She stared right at him a smile coming to her lips. A genuine smile, it dropped as she put her 'I am going to kill you' face on.

DXDXDXDXDX

Jul threw her and her allies back ward about twenty feet into the air. Lucky for her she landed on Griff "Thanks Private Fat ass."she said

"At least this fat ass saved your ass."Griff shot back.

His remark got him punched in the balls by Tex, she chuckled and shook her head. Jul had lost one to many forces and was retreating permanently they had fought for Valhalla and one, but at a great cost as Doc came out "I bring sad news Brittany. The Arbiter of Valhalla Junior is dead."said Doc.

Everyone bowed their heads as Tucker began to cry "Also Doctor Halsey is dead. A balmite round through the skull."said Doc.

She was the second to the Arbiter meaning she now lead Valhalla.

24. Chapter 23

A/N: Alright here is the next chapter for all of you to read. A new Arbiter is about to be coordinated.

Chapter 23: The New Arbiter

After they laid their dead to rest, the preparations were being made for something what he didn't know. Even The Arbiter of Sangheilious was in the dark in the matter. Brittany had been gone for hours, leaving Sarah, Kat, and Harmony running around the base changing diapers and feeding the triplets. He of course still had to recover from his injuries and was servilely threatened by not only his future father in-law, but his mother in-law. It wasn't until sun down Brittany came into the room tired as hell. Not only did her eyes show it the way she moved showed it. She went straight to the bathroom and took a shower. Something was on her mind, what he did not know. When she finally came out she got into bed beside him and curled up "Brittany, whats wrong?"he asked

"Nothing just that the balance of power in Valhalla is about to shift."she said

"Is that a good thing or a bad thing?"he asked.

She looked at him "I was Junior's second in command here on Valhalla. As such I am his successor."she said.

He let those words sink into his head "Arbiter?"he asked shocked

"Yes and my father is really going to have a shit fit."she said

"How so?"he asked.

She had perked his curiosity and had his attention "My Field Marshall armor is nothing compared to the armor I am about to receive."she said.

His mind got to working on what the armor would look like "Why you horny man you."she accused

"What I am trying to see in my mind how bad it could be."he said innocently.

She crawled on top of him her thighs on each side of his legs "You really want to see it?"she asked

"Hmm, I can't leave here your mother and father threatened to brake both my legs."he said

"I will deal with them."she said

"Also how would it be a bad thing?"he asked

"ONI, they have been wanting the location of the Valhalla for years."she said

"Don't you technically don't play by their rules?"he asked.

She nodded "I just don't want a war started over this ring."she said.

DXDXDXDXDX

Jun kissed her softly "Babe, if I don't know better I'd say you are worried about ONI trying to use NOBLE and BLUE teams to gain control over Valhalla. You don't need to worry about it, everyone here is loyal to you and you alone. NO one...Well maybe ONI would be crazy and foolish enough to oppose the Freelancers and the comic relief on this ring, but people will back you up."he said.

She smiled and kissed him "You always know what to say to get my mind off of troubling matters."she said.

He kissed the top of her head "Oh your mother wanted to talk to you when you got back. You might want to see her."he told her.

She nodded and got up "Well I will go and talk to her."she said.

DXDXDXDXDXDXDXDX

She rested her head on John's shoulder when the door opened "AHHH!"cried a voice.

She looked over to see her daughter with her back turned "Oops."said John.

She playfully slapped his shoulder "John cover up."she said.

She put on her tank top and shorts as John went to the bathroom with a set of cloths "You can look."she said

"That is not something I wanted to see."Brittany said.

She smiled "Don't worry sweet heart."she said

"That will teach you to knock young lady."yelled John in the bathroom.

Brittany shook her head "Jun said you wanted to talk to me?"Brittany asked

"Yes I did, you have been gone all day what is going on?"she asked

"I have been asked to become Arbiter of Valhalla."Brittany said lowly.

She smiled she knew this day would come for her daughter "Brittany, you ran the Freelancers. Now you are moving up."she said

"Why am I always left out of the loop?"Brittany asked.

DXDXDXDXDX

The next day Brittany woke up early and woke Jun up as well, the two got ready and headed out to the villages in the sand belonging to the elders of Valhalla. She was to be given the armor of Arbiter, Jun put a hand on her shoulder "Are you alright?"he asked

"I hope what I am doing is the right thing."she said.

After spending hours of prayers and saying her oath she was taken to the chamber, her skin suit had been modified to show her midriff and only covered under her chest, her long powerful legs now bare. At least the cod and rear plate were long enough as well as the side. She was given a long robe (Think of Rosso the Crimson of DOC) her boots came to her knees and her arms were covered to just above her elbow. Her helmet fitted to her head perfectly "Lady Akira, what is it that you wish of us?"asked Tila.

She was Brittany Spartan B-312 to the UNSC a lone wolf here she was Akira of Valhalla "I need a new name don't I one that is both known to Valhalla and the UNSC?"she asked

"It would be wise Arbiter."said Til' Dame the lead elder

"Akira the wolf."said Nipps.

She smiled it had a nice ring to it "Arbiter Akria the wolf it is then."she said.

Ulin' Dame, Til's son came in and knelt "My lady your mate grows impatient of waiting."said Ulin.

She chuckled "He is who he is."she said.

DXDXDXDXDX

Jun leaned against the column as Brittany came out and as soon as he laid eyes on her he was glued to the spot "Yeah your father will really love this."he said.

He couldn't help but want to take her back to base and ride her injured or not. She looked at him "It is time."said Til.

When they touched down Carter caught Brittany's state of armor and bowed "Ma'am."Carter said

"Carter, even in this armor use my name."she said

"Brittany."Carter replied

"Carter what are you...Oh my god. Thats what Junior ment by the light will brighten a new path."said Kat.

All the freelancers and both red and blue bases bowed as Brittany walked by Kat and Carter followed close behind them. As soon as Jorge, Emile, and Harmony saw them they bowed and joined Kat and Carter.

As soon as they entered and John seen his daughter he couldn't help but laugh like everyone else. The big bad Master Chief passed out form seeing his daughter's new armor "Am I going to get an ear full later."Brittany said

"Well that isn't something you see everyday."said Buck

"Hes going to have a nice knot on the back of his head form that."said Cortana

"Its not everyday your daughter becomes Arbiter of Valhalla waring something that looks like that."said Avery.

Brittany headed for the war room "Brittany I have gotten a message form Captain Lasky."said ISIS.

Brittany put her hand on the map table "Lets hear it."she said

"Admiral Hood is on board the ship. He has The Directors location."said ISIS.

DXDXDXDXDX

She looked at the Arbiter of Sangheilious "Vadeem, I need you and your troops to stay here encase Jul decides to show up again. You will be helping protect the ring. Freelancers, Reds, Blues, NOBLE team, BLUE squad, and ODSTs we will be heading to where Director asshole is."she said.

This got laughs out of Buck and his ODSTs "As you wish."said Vadeem

"ISIS how long til transport?"she asked

"Its arriving now. One Pelican super support troop carrier is arriving and I don't need to tell you who is flying it."said ISIS

"And the other half of the Key?"she asked

"Do you think someone is crazy enough to take it from Tex?"asked ISIS

"Point taken."she said.

DXDXDXDXDX

When he woke up he was on the a Pelican "BRITTANY WHAT THE FUCK ARE YOU DOING?"he asked

"Oh good morning father how was your sleep?"Brittany asked

"Don't change the subject, what the hell are you wearing?"he asked.

Fred and the rest of his team shook their heads "John, are daughter is the Arbiter of Valhalla now you are going to have to deal with that fact."said Samantha.

The Gold and Blue Junior once wore was now on his daughter, something he never saw coming "I swear if anyone gets 'Grabby' heads are going to get cracked open."he said

"You mean like yours when you passed the fuck out?"asked Buck in a smart assed tone that got a snicker form everyone on board.

He felt a bit of pressure to the back of his head and looked to see Samantha "Sarah Samantha, what the hell are you doing to my head?"he asked "Trying to see if the knot has any swelling in it."she replied.

Jun put an arm around Brittany who had the children with her at least they were smart about it.

He was not going to live this one down.

25. Chapter 24

A/N: Sorry it has taken me a bit, but I am excited about this chapter! How will Lord Hood and Lasky not to forget Majestic's DeMarco, Hoya, and Madson react to Brittany's new look? Read to find out.

Chapter 24: The Director's Mistake.

Brittany and her 'Guard' as York called both BLUE team and NOBLE followed close. She was in the middle of the two teams as her father was behind her and Jun was in the front. Something she was going to have to get used to. Crimson and Majestic waited at the lift doors "Where's Brittany?"asked Grant.

Jun moved and she stepped forward "Sweet baby moon walking Moses. Your father is letting you walk around in that?"asked Hoya drooling.

Hoya wasn't the only one DeMarco and Madson were too "Guys back off look at the armor color."said Thorn.

She looked at Thorn at least he was the smart one "Shes the new Arbiter?"asked Grant

"Correct, now if you will be so kindly as to move I have a meeting to attend. Carter, John. You two are the only two to accompany me."she said

"Yes Ma'am."said Carter and her father.

DXDXDXDXDXDXDX

Jun watched as Brittany, Carter, and John got on the lift. Her eyes met his and she smirked, well he for one needed to find a place to sit down "Your still not fully recovered."said Grant

"Don't worry about me."he said

"Boy sit down before you fall down."said Avery.

He looked at Brittany's father's best friend and cohort through the war. He sat down and looked at Avery "Johnson, I was way ahead of you before you said anything."he said

"I can tell you were fighting to stay on your feet since we landed."said Avery.

He winced "Jun, you pull a stunt like this again. And when we are off duty I will kick your tooth pick ass."said Samantha.

He didn't know what to say to that.

DXDXDXDXDXDX

Brittany stood there as Palmer's mouth dropped "So your the new Arbiter. Congratulations."said Lord Hood

"Thank you sir."she said

"How did your father take it?"asked Lord Hood.

Carter snorted as well as she did and her father growled "He ah...didn't handle the new armor to well...and well he sorta kinda passed out."she said.

Lord Hood busted out laughing as Lasky shook his head smiling "At least it is safe to say his 'fatherly' instincts kicked in full force."said Hood.

She smiled "Brittany..."her father growled

"Settle down Master Chief."she and Hood said at once.

She walked up to the map table "So where is he and who do I have to thank?"she asked

"Director Leonard Church was turned in by Chairmen Sheppard."said Lord Hood.

She wanted to laugh she always knew Sheppard would betray the Director because of her "Never leave him out."she said

"Indeed, as for the location its the same place Madama is heading. Apparently Church and Jul have an alliance or have just founded one. One of which you Arbiter are their common enemy."said Lasky

"Oh joy."she said smiling looking at Carter.

Lord Hood's face got serious "They are meeting on Reach."said Hood.

Reach the planet where over 300 spartan IIIs lost their lives as well as NOBLE, save for Wigs and Jun. So that is where the bastard was hiding? And Jul' Madama was heading there to forge and alliance? Well this was going to be fun "Their greatest mistake was going there."she said

"To many bad memories."said Carter.

It was true Reach was nothing more than glass now, but there were some small areas that could have survived the glassing of the planet. She looked at Lord Hood " Why do I have the feeling that someone other than Shepard ratted him out."she said

Lord Hood smiled "You'll see when you get there. Now as for the concordance of which you will meet them."said Lord Hood.

She nodded and looked to her father and Carter "I guess we have our new mission and it isn't going to be easy."she said

"It wouldn't be a NOBLE mission if it was."said Carter.

She smirked then looked at Carter "Just don't go flying Pelicans into things like you did last time."she said.

Carter gave her a pointed stair "Like I said bad memories."said Carter

"The ship the UNSC _Enterprise_ will get you to Reach. Good luck Arbiter you are going to need it."said Lord Hood

"I hope there is going to be plenty of supplies."she said

"Yes the _Enterprise_ will have two teams going with you Crimson and Majestic. As well as the latest technology not available to you during the war."said Lord Hood.

After that they headed back down the lift to the others.

DXDXDXDXDXDX

Jun was sitting when Brittany and the others returned "ALRIGHT LISTEN UP LADIES AND GERMS!"yelled Brittany

"Is rasing your voice truly necessary?"he asked

"Oh so you are awake good."she said.

He sat up "You have still a lot to learn dear."he said

"We have our orders in. Jul' Madama is forming an alliance with Director Leonard Church."Brittany said.

She had his attintion now "Really? And what makes him think he can win?"asked Emile

"More intell will be given when we reach our contacts. Look there I gave a hint to as where we are going."she said.

He looked at Brittany "Where are we going? If the hint was given?"asked Emile

"Remind me to dye his hair while he is sleeping and in big bold font

on his forehead DUMB BLOND!"said Brittany

"More intell will be given when we..."Kat started to say then she stopped.

Her eyes widening "Reach? They are on Reach?" Kat asked.

He and Harmony froze on the spot "Thats where they are yes."she said

"Well that isn't good."said ISIS

"Why is that?"asked Jorge.

ISIS remained scilent "ISIS if you have anything you need to add do it now."said Brittany

"If they have found it, it would cause trouble. There is a cloning device on Reach not where the ice cap was but some where else. If Jul or Church get their hands on it and say I don't know...Armor belonging to certain NOBLE team members who died. They could clone them and they could cause a lot of trouble as Freelancers."said ISIS

"Two Emile's? Thats a nightmare."said Jorge.

"Or two Brittanys."said Emile.

He shivered at the thought "Brittany, if he makes a clone of you what do you think will happen?"he asked

"As ISIS put it TROUBLE."she said.

He nodded "When do we leave?"asked Jorge.

The big man was pissed that someone couldn't leave the dead at rest especially on his home planet of Reach.

DXDXDXDXDXDX

Jun looked upset by the news when she first told him the crew of the _Enterprise _didn't like the fact that she was human waring Sangheili armor. She could hear the words of traitor being said by some others admired her bravery to bridge a gap. She kept walking til she came to hers and Jun's quarters. He laid in bed with a triplet in each arm and one on his chest. She entered and closed and locked the door his eyes opened and looked at her "Jun, are you alright?"she asked

"The doctor said I should be fine once we reach Reach. I still can't believe we are going back there."he said.

His eyes glazing over in pain and sorrow "I know, but it has to be done."she said.

Jun nodded his head "What if they get to the cloning device before we get there?"he asked

"I am sure one of me is enough."she replied.

Jun's blush said it all "JUN!"she said stunned

"What I'm just a GUY!"he said waking the triplets.

She rolled her eyes "Way to go daddy you woke up your kids."she said.

Then the smell hit her nostrils and she laughed "And scared the shit right out of them."she added.

She got two girls as Jun got Jun Jr, once the three had clean diapers on she looked at him "We should have had children sooner. Their diapers could have saved Reach."she said.

Jun snorted a laugh and he shook his head "You my love are funny, and here I thought Freelancers didn't have a sense of humor."he said.

She playfully slapped his arm "Jun darling behave or I will tell my mother and father about your little fantasy."she said playfully

"What can I say? I am only a guy."he said.

She shook her head as she laid Jun Jr in his crib "Jun, keep on and I will show you why you can only handle one of me."she said.

He laughed and shook his head as he put an arm around her waist "Brittany, I love you."he whispered in her ear.

She shivered it wouldn't belong before they reached, Reach.

26. Chapter 25

A/N:Here is the next chapter and guess who is making a come back! Yes, I have brought back the master mind behind the Grizzly Tanks of HALO Wars. And You'll die of shock when you read who he is related to. Also I apologize for the lateness of this next chapter, I am 7 months pregnant and have a lot on my plate.

Chapter 25: Forging relations.

Brittany sat up and stretched her arms, she looked at Jun who slept soundly he looked a hell of a lot younger than when they first met up again after the war. Well after they were brought back "Jun, wake up."she said

"Whaaaaa?"he asked

"Wake up my love."she said.

When he didn't want to get out of bed she proceded to lift the bed "WHOA!"cried Jun as he landed on the floor "I said get up."she said with a sigh.

Jun peeked over the edge of the bed "Well, maybe I don't want to wake up right now?"he asked

"We are near Reach."she said.

He groaned and stood up "Alright I am up. Shall I go and wake up the others?"he asked

"Would be helpful."she said.

He nodded and got dressed as she went to check on the triplets Jun Jr was awake and looking up at her "Hello my lovely boy."she said picking him up.

Jun Jr cooed at her voice as she held him his little head rested on her shoulder, Kelly and Kat entered the room "My aren't you two up and about already."she said

"By your orders."said Kat.

Jun Jr looked at Kat and Kelly with sleepy eyes "Just like his father sleepy."said Kat.

She smiled cradling her son in her arms as Kelly handed her a bottle of formula. J.J as she nicknamed him was lulling off to sleep again.

Once the triplets were fed and put back to bed she went to the bridge in her UNSC uniform "Good of you to look more human."said the Captain

"Listen here you, I was born on Valhalla raised there until I was old enough to be shipped off to ONYX. So the next time you go and open your yap again. Know it is the penalty of Death for insulting the Arbiter of Valhalla."she warned.

DXDXDXDXDXDXDXDXDX

The Captain paled at her words as did everyone else "But I will report this to Lord Hood."she said.

He stood there with his arms crossed over his chest daring someone to say something "Colonel?"said the Captain looking at him for help

"Lord Hood has given her permission to lay down the law if need be, but as her husband I say don't piss her off."he said "She is the one who raised Wigs after all."

Brittany looked at him and smirked "Your wife sir?"asked The Captain

"Yes, his wife. I was also NOBLE 6 on Reach. I fought against the heretics who threatened to kill humanity."she said

"Wigs the grunt of the UNSC was raised by her?"asked a crewmen

"Yes she was, but like all things even Wigs has changed."he said.

Brittany looked at the map table and smiled "Not to mention my Mother was the first Freelancer and My father is 117."she said.

He smirked as the crew gasped in shock "So you be nice to me and I will not have to kill anyone or sick my father on them."Brittany said as she looked for a safe place to land.

He staid on the bridge with her as found the spot "Lance base? Your taking us home?"he asked

"Our contacts are in the mountains about less than a mile form the old base."she said.

He nodded, she wanted to make the trip easy for him do to the hell he had been through.

DXDXDXDXDX

Things looked the same as when she first came here. The covenant never attacked the mobile base and it still stood "Will you look at that the house is still standing."she said

"Home sweet home."said Emile sarcastic

"Why did you have to bring us back here?"asked Carter.

She looked at her old commander and smiled "Why Carter wouldn't it be obvious. We get the small base up and running and bring injured here for evac and to bring fresh ones in."she said

"She is as smart as a whip."said North

"Alright what do you need us to do?"asked Kat

"Kat, you do what you love to do. See if anything is in the crates if so see if it can still be used."she began "Jorge, Emile, and Maine you three will be moving anything that is 'hazardous' to ones health and putting it some where else. The rest of you have sweeping, mopping, and cleaning."

"Yes Ma'am!" came the reply.

Everyone went to work, she headed in to the medical bay and began to see if anything was left. She found several personal med kits, Medium kits around 20 of those. The large kits were well there were none. She made a list on her tech pad of the supplies that were needed. She moved some of the cots around and put them outside to be cleaned and dusted. She then pulled out the rest of it so Kat could check the breaker box. Kat had power to the building in less than 10 minuets faster than any past power company ever could. She proceeded to move the shelves and cots back inside.

DXDXDXDXDX

The old home of NOBLE was now back in perfect shape Kat had power running to all the buildings and Brittany had the inventory list of the things that they needed. She looked at him and headed into the main building their building. He never thought they would be back in here, she went straight to her old room "Wake me up in two hours I need a nap."she said.

Carter and her father were about to say something when Kat steped in "Let her be she cleaned the entire med bay by herself."said Kat.

He went to her room to see her in just her skin suit and asleep, she looked so peaceful like that he couldn't help, but want to lay beside her "I think we all need a nap."said Cortana

"Well I will wake you all up then."said ISIS.

He laid down beside his beloved Brittany and drifted into a deep sleep.

DXDXDXDXDX

He still couldn't believe he was brought back on Reach and not the _Spirit Of Fire_; of course beggars couldn't be choosers. The Librarian did say something about 'The son he never met' or something along those lines. As he watched the large group of Spartans he was shocked to see them beside Freelancers "And here I thought the spartan I and IIs where the only ones? What has happened since I fell imploding a planet's core."he said to himself and to no one at all.

One of the new spartans caught his attention, the commando armored one with the blue and steel. He looked just like him. He remembered his wife Rebecca and shed a tear "So thats our son?"he said "And he is a spartan."

He heard something behind him only to have a shotgun put against his back "Get up slowly."said a voice

"I am a friendly spartan you can relax."he replied

"Emile, he sounds like Colonel Carter."said a female voice. >His son was a Colonel? He reached for his helmet and removed it slowly "Maybe because your Colonel is my son. Sargent Jacob Forge Spirit Of Fire."he said.

The one with the shotgun at his back lowered his weapon "Carter is the son of the creator of the Grizzly tank?! The one like the ship he was stationed was reported lost with all hands on board?"asked the Shot gunner.

He nodded "Unfortunately, The Ship is still out there. As for myself well I died."he said

"I know the feeling, Emile NOBLE 4. I served and died here on Reach and like you brought back."said the Shot gunner

"And I am Harmony. Come you must meet with the Arbiter of Valhalla my adopted mother."said the female.

DXDXDXDXDX

Kat leaned against Carter's chest, at least they had this time out of their armor. Carter closed his eyes as he placed a kiss on the side of her neck. Kat mewled "NOW IS NOT THE TIME FOR MAKING BABIES!"yelled Fred through the door

"Fred, whos the higher rank?"asked Kelly >"FUCK!"yelled Fred.

He smiled and kissed Kat's temple "Hes right Carter, we don't have time."Kat said sadly

>"When this is over we will."he whispered.

He could see the color come to her cheeks, when there was a knock at the door "Enter."he said as Kat got up

"Carter, Emile and Harmony just reported in something about a lost hero returned."said Jun.
>He nooded "Thanks Jun, how are the triplets?"he asked

"They are fine, the mid-wives on the ship are taking care of them even though Brittany don't show it I think she is worried about them."said Jun leaving

"Come on Kat."he said and they left the room.

DXDXDXDXDX

So that was Jacob Forge the maker of the meanest tank the UNSC had in its arsonal sadly the plans to those beautiful tanks died with him. She circled around him "So your the Arbiter of Valhalla, and your..."Forge was searching for the right words she could tell

"Human, well my predecessor and best friend was half spartan and half Elite. Valhalla was one the original instillation for project Freelancer. It was also home to Covenant who were tired of the war tired of taking human lives."she said.

Forge nodded "That would have made you his second in command."he said

"Correct, I just never played by The Director's rules."she said
>"I bet, I heard rumors that Agent Alaska the first Freelancer didn't."he said

"I was her replacement and her daughter, I am sure you remember BLUE team who is lead by my father. The Master Chief Petty Officer John 117."she said

"That by the book hard ass got laid? Jerome would love to hear this."he said.

She chuckled as her father walked up "Yeah, and you would supply them the Grizzly's for me to run from after bugging the hell out of his son."said her father

"Jerome and Alice's son Jun is here?"asked Forge shocked.

Jun? What did Jun have to do with any of this? Let alone who was Jerome and Alice? She looked at her father "Alright ole man, start talking."she said

"Jerome and Alice are both Spartan Iis."said Kelly.

"What do a pair of spartan IIs have to do with me Kelly?"asked a voice.

Jun joined them "Carter and Kat are on their way out."Jun added

>"Thanks."she replied

"That pair of Spartan IIs are your parents kid you were born on the _Spirit Of Fire_."said Forge

"And you would know why?"Jun asked trying to make since of it all

>"I served with them they were the last people I ever saw alive before I imploded a Forerunner shield world full of Ships that the covenant wanted to fly up the UNSC's ass. At the time my soon to be wife was pregnant with my son."said Forge.

She looked at Forge and her mouth dropped Forge looked like...CARTER! Even Jun was stunned "Thats was my reaction."said Emile
>"So Director asshole has been using the cloning tech already."said a voice

"Ah, Carter thats no clone."Jorge said

"Colonel Carter, Meet Sargent Jacob Forge of the UNSC _Spirit Of Fire_. Your father."said her mother.

Carter froze on the spot and looked at her "Is this a joke?"asked Carter
>"Afraid not son, your father was the master mind behind the Grizzly and Jun might know the location of the missing Colony ship that your father Imploded a planet to protect."said Johnson.

Did self appointed Suicide missions run in the family? She watched Carter fly a Pelican into a Scarab and his father imploded a planet "Like father like son."she said
>"Whats that supposed to mean Lady Arbiter?"asked Forge

"Your son like Emile, Kat, Jorge, and myself fell here on Reach. Your son flew a Pelican into a Scarab while I was carring a package to the _Pillars Of Autumn_."she said.

Forge looked at Carter and shook his head "Looks like me, talks liked me; a stick in the mud like his mother and self sacrificial missions...yep he is my son alright."said Forge.

DXDXDXDXDX

Forge had given them the location of the device in question and the quickest way to it considering the Director and his 'Ally' were having to dig their way to it "So we go in an Isis can self-destruct the construct."said Cortana
>"At least its not near the planet's core."said ISIS.

She had to get the plans thought up in her head "ISIS, how long do we have until they get to it?"she asked

"A week tops at this rate it will take them a week."said ISIS.

She nodded it was time to assign work and jobs and she had a plan to have a little 'friendly' competition. She was going to team Carter up with Kat and his father. While she Jun and her father would team up. This was going to be in on word FUN!

DXDXDXDXDX

His mind was finally free of the Director's control, he was going to bide his time. He would have to thank Maine after this. He didn't suvive being a T-rex's chew toy or fighting something along the lines of a 'retarded Brute with super powers' as Fred called it just to watch in horror as he murdered his twin in cold blood and hurt his niece and the man she loved. That is why he couldn't harm South Dakota, she reminded him of Sarah. He did know one thing he was going to kick John's ass for knocking his sister up and letting him harm her. It was time for Georgia the cold blooded Agent of project freelancer and welcome back the Spartan he used to be.

That is all for this chapter and thanks for the reviews and messages I enjoy them. As soon as I am done with this one I will post the first of two prefaces to this one. Special Shout outs to those who guess who the Spartan is that became Agent Georgia.

27. Chapter 26

A/N: Alright, for the Carter and Forge being related I remembered the old HALO Reach game preview where Carter looked like Forge, as for the mystory behind Agent Georgia its easy. For those who have seen or watched the anime HALO Legends. Georgia is in fact Spartan 1337. Or as he is known as Andy-1337 Sarah's twin, but how 1337 becomes Georgia will be in the Preface Miss Me BLUE. It will go in the past where John and Sarah(Samantha) first met, and how Brittany is born.

Alright here is the next chapter kiddies, enjoy! Oh and ghostmemory you wanted more Kater well you got it my friend :)

Chapter 26: Timing is everything

Jun looked at Brittany as she entered their room, she was yet again mentally drained. He got up and walked over to her "Are you alright?"he asked

"No, I'm not. Something about this has me worried. How are you holding up its not everyday you find out you were born on a UNSC colony ship let alone the one that is said to be nothing more than a lost ship."she said.

She was more worried about him than herself, he looked at her "Brittany, your holding back your feelings again."he said

"I'm sorry Jun I don't mean to do so."she replied.

He looked at her and nodded "Come on lets get you to bed."he said.

She yawned and nodded as he turned he felt her hand grab his ass and he jumped "Hey now, I don't think your father wants anymore grandkids at the moment."he said

"Since when did you care about what my father thinks?"she asked.

He swallowed like a school boy, as she unlatched her armor and let it fall to the ground "Even you said that it was a blessing the children weren't here. That we both needed somewhat of a brake, that we needed to be _Alone_."she said seductively.

She did have a point and with her waring her new armor, his mind ran rampant with naughty fantasies of him stripping that armor off and having his way with her. She was HIS woman, she was the mother of HIS children and he would be damned if anyone denied him alone time with her. He pulled her against him and kissed her lips passionately.

DXDXDXDXDX

Carter looked at his father, he still couldn't get his head around that "So do you have someone in your life and don't give me that 'Spartans don't have relationships' line of bull shit I know better."said his father
>"I do, she was shot in the head on a mission by an Elite with a Balmite rifle."he said "As for the Pelican and the Scarab incident I knew I wouldn't have made it."

"And you lost the woman you loved makes since."said his father.

He nodded "I am shocked Jun lasted as long as he did when Brittany died."he replied.

His father looked at him "Sometimes even when we lose those we love we feel them around after we're gone. Jun probably had an ancher to hold him down."said his father

"Yeah, their adopted daughter a Uggony named Wigs."he said

"A grunt?"his father asked shocked

"Wigs, was found by Brittany as a new born. The Elites killed her mother and sibblings. Brittany brought her back at first I didn't think it a good idea."he said

"A newborn is a newborn Carter. It dosen't matter if it is a Grunt or not."said his father

"Thats what she said."he replied "When Wigs was old enough she wanted to fight beside us her family. Wigs always knew about Jun and Brittany's love for eachother."

"And Who said Grunts were dumb."his father said

"Well you know Harmony?"he asked

"Yeah, sweet girl. Bad choise of men though that Emile has a personality of a Brute."said his father.

He couldn't help but snort a laugh on that one "Emile may have the personality of a Brute, but Harmony actually brings balance into his heart. Something Emile has never had."said Jorge

"That and Harmony loved him when she was still Wigs."said Buck.

His father looked at him "Emile loved her as well."said Fred
>"1st of all with Wigs being a Grunt and Emile being a spartan how would that work...I think I don't even think it possible and even so I DON'T WANT TO KNOW. And 2nd how is Wigs, Harmony?"asked his father

"If you didn't want to know then why did you ask?"asked North sitting down.

He smiled at North's remark "I was gravely wounded as Wigs by Jul' Madama the same heretic who wished to ally himself with a coward. I died in front of Brittany and Jun."said Harmony.

His father looked at Harmony and went cross eyed "The Librarian gave me this body to be with him. Now if you'd excuse me Emile is wanting dinner in bed and who am I to denie my lover that?"asked Harmony walking away.

DXDXDXDXDX

Kat looked over the data pad over and over again as Carter walked into the room "I think my father is traumatized."said Carter.

She smiled "At least I know where you get your good looks from."she purred.

He smiled and shook his head "I meant the Wigs and Emile ordeal."he said chuckling

"I would to, I am still trying to figure it out."she said.

Carter took the data pad from her and pulled her to her feet as he set the data pad on the nightstand "You know Kat, I have been thinking."he started

"Oh, and what may that be Carter?"she asked.

Carter leaned down and took her lips, she melted against him in an instant. Carter had always knew how to push her buttons and when. Her hands went under his shirt as he began to deepen the kiss. Her nerves were working over time at the pleasure his lips gave her, of course there where other things that he had gave her pleasure. His left hand supported the back of her neck as his right gripped her ass, when the kiss finally broke he looked at her "Tell me what you want Kat."he purred huskily

"I want you to fuck me Carter."she replied.

He smirked at that and his head tilted back as Kat began to fondle him through his sweat pants. His lips came down hard on hers as she landed back first on the bed with him above her supporting his body weight on each elbow. He lifted her shirt off and over her head tossing it onto the floor and she had his follow.

DXDXDXDXDX

Kat would always be the woman he had ever wanted, she had been there for him so many times and she stole his heart. In a way he always loved her, he kissed her as he his hands slipped down her sleep shorts. She moaned in her throat, he broke the kiss to look into her augmented eyes "Kat, I don't know what I would do if I lost you again."he said

"Brittany, would kick your ass if you did anything like you did last time."said Kat

>"I wasn't going to make it and I knew it. I did what I had to, so Brittany and Emile could get Cortana to the ship."he said

"I know, I just don't want you killing yourself over me again."said Kat.

He kissed her forehead "I promise Kat, that I won't."he said.

Kat pushed her hips into his and he groaned "Kat, do you really want to get Pregnant?"he asked

"I could handle it."said Kat.

He took her lips again kissing her as his hands slowly removed her sleep shorts and panties. Kat had always gotten hot and bothered by the most softest touches he gave her. He kissed down her jawline to the valley of her breasts. He loved the fact that he could make her scream when he messed with her chest area, but he had to hold off on that for now. He continued to move lower kissing her stumic and naval as he reached her wetness. He smiled and looked up at her; her eyes were closed and her breathing labored he wasn't hadn't even touched her yet and she was close.

DXDXDXDXDX

Kat felt Carter insert a finger and her back arched up off the bed, a soundless scream coming from her lips. No man in the universe could make her feel like this only Carter did, he always was there to protect her when she was unable to do so. As her beloved Carter pumped his finger in and out of her she moaned his name and was nearly driven mad when he used his toung and fingers. She bucked her hips and dug her nails into his scalp as she reached the first of many climaxes to come this night. She felt his lips on hers and she kissed him in turn tasting her own scent on his lips and toung when he entered her.

She gripped his shoulders and moaned softly into the kiss, if anyone even Holland came to desturbe them she would shot first then ask questions later.

DXDXDXDXDX

Carter flipped them over so she could be on top as her walls tightened he knew the end was near, her big bust bounced as she rode him. His fingers dug into her hips as he reached his end with her his beloved Kat collapsed onto his chest breathing as heavily as he did. He held her as she got off of him and laid at his side. He followed her into sleep.

DXDXDXDXDX

Brittany rested in Jun's arms after the sixth round so much built up sexual frustration between them and now it was released. His arms tightened around her as he kissed her shoulder "Jun, we need to sleep."she said
>"I know, I am just trying to relax you. Your still tense."he said.

She moaned and snuggled closer to him "Yeah, and tomorrow we have a lot of work to do."she said.

Jun kissed her forehead and they both fell asleep.

DXDXDXDXDX

"Sarah Samantha."he said looking at the mother of his only child

"Yes John?"she asked looking up from her data pad
>"BLUE team and I are going out on patrol."he said.

Samantha stood up and nodded "Just be careful I have a feeling that there is trouble coming."she said as she kissed his visor.

He smiled and removed his helmet and kissed her lips "Why kiss my visor when you can kiss me?"he asked as he broke the kiss.

She smiled at him "John, please be careful."she said as he turned putting his helmet back on.

He stopped at the door and looked at her "I promise Sammy."he said.

He left the room and headed off into the night to safeguard his family.

DXDXDXDXDX

Brittany woke up to find Jun not in bed, she got up and dressed and headed out into the mess hall to find him there. He looked at her a worried look on his face as she sat beside him "Whats wrong?"she asked
>"The others are returning and Holland is with them."he said

"We don't answer to him any more my love." she said

"You try to tell him that."he said.

She kissed him and he relaxed "NOBLE THREE AND NOBLE SIX WHAT ARE YOU DOING?!"demanded a voice.

She and Jun groaned Ubran Holland was back to torment and control them, they pulled away from each other "Why the Librarian brought you back is beyond me, but know this _Colonel _NOBLE no longer follows your rules or laws."she said.

Jun put an arm around her "A lot changes when one is dead."said Jun

>"You will follow my orders NOBLE 3 and 6 or I will have you court marshaled!"yelled Holland.

She looked at Holland and smirked "You stupid fool, don't you get it your a Colonel grade 3 same as Jun I am a Colonel grade 1 as for Carter and Kat they are Colonel grade 2. You also are over stepping because of the fact I am here to stop Jul and Church. Because if I fail Valhalla falls and as the Arbiter of Valhalla I will not hesitate to kill you if you get in my way. NOBLE and BLUE teams are under my command not yours Colonel Dickless." she said.

DXDXDXDXDX

It was no question that Brittany hated Holland, and he knew she would kill him "So your in command a rouge Freelancer who whores herself around?"asked Holland.

He went to go after Holland, but Brittany held her arm out to block him "MASTER CHIEF!"she yelled.

She was going to let Daddy handle him, her father walked in "You called daughter?"asked Chief.

Holland's eyes widened and his mouth dropped "Take Holland to the holding cell. I will contact the _Enterprise _to send Majestic down to get him."she said

"If I may what is the charge?"asked her father
>"Talking back to a senior officer, as well as calling me a whore. You father have a little more restraint thats why I called you or Holland would be in a pool of his own blood."she said.

Her father nodded "Very well _Colonel _follow me please."said her father.

She turned and looked at him "I didn't want to put you on report."she said
>"Thank you baby."he said kissing her.

DXDXDXDXDX

He placed Holland in the holding cell "Your lucky Jun didn't kill you. He was nearly killed by Agent Georgia protecting my daughter, he also went through rape and torture at the hands of the Storm Covenant. He is also my future son in law. The next time you bad mouth those of higher rank especially my daughter I will kill you."he said in a deadly tone.

Holland glared at him "Your daughter is a traitor for siding with that Grunt."said Holland
>"Holland, if you talk about wigs like that again I will let Brittany and NOBLE tare you apart and watch."he said and walked off.

His daughter was a hole of a lot of things a whore and traitor were not one of them.

Chapter 27: The Gravest Mistake

NOBLE team was out on recon to see if, they could cause a little more damage to both Jul and Church. He looked at Sammy, as she slept. It was funny how sometimes love worked. When they were both 23 you wouldn't be able to tell that they loved each other due to the whole revenge she original had planned for Halsey for her twin Andy-1337. Both of them doubling as a spartan or freelancer then a body guard to an heiress of a company. He would have saved himself a lot of pain if he had stopped her the day she left only to return to die in his arms due to Agent Georgia. Thinking back he should have stopped her that night. The night he confronted her; of course she called him a lair and threw everything in the room at him when he told her her twin was a live. He was shocked that she didn't put her Hyabusa armor on while he had none and tried to kill him, but she wasn't she was clad in only a crimson red lace bra and panties. Something that only turned him on and made it hard for him to dodge flying objects flying at his head. He had to admit though after he restrained her, oh...it was well a very good night to say the least. The woman was mad and in a sexy bar and panties, made for one night of steaming hot sex. He heard her move on the bed and looked over her eyes were open and looking at him "John, what are you thinking about?"she asked

"I just think its odd how Agent Georgia shows up right after 1337 went missing."he replied.

She gave him a glare "So your bringing my brother who is dead into this?"she asked.

He looked at her "Yes and No, and if you come out that bed and after me like you did all those years ago, you know as well as I do what will happen."he said looking at the wall.

Unlike all those years ago she was naked after making love the night before and he didn't see the smirk on her face when she tackled him out of the chair. She looked at him "I do have to admit that, all those years ago was one hell of a night I wouldn't mind having it again..._John_."she said trailing her hand down to his now hardening erection.

He growled deep in his throat, and looked at her "You play with fire _Sarah_."he warned

"Maybe I love getting this reaction out of you, as I recall it was that night I conceived Brittany."she said.

He looked at her, now he was seeing what she was scheming in her Freelancer head "Oh, and you figure you can get pregnant again."he said.

She got that evil grin on her face and she lightly squeezed and his head hit the floor "Ow Fuck, Sarah stop."he said.

She laid on top of him now "You know as well as I do you don't want that."she said kissing him.

She had always had him dialed in when it came to his body, she was stroking him now and it was driving his mind wild. Why did she have to be the one to bring him to his knees?

DXDXDXDXDX

Samantha left a trail of bite kisses down his neck as her hand stroked him, even after all he had been through he was still beautiful to her. She was the only woman who could get him to open up and tell her if something was troubling him. He shifted and she fell off and hit her elbow on the floor right in the funny bone. John saw her face and laughed softly, she gave him a purple nerple for laughing at her. He yelped protecting his chest "Damn woman that hurt."he said
>"You laughed when I hit my elbow on the floor."she shot back getting up.

She pulled this stunt a few times with him and knew once he was hard he would ponce on her. She heard him got up and went to walk into the bathroom only to be pulled back against him his hard on poking her in the lower back "You started something _Sarah Samantha Hawk_, and you are going to finish it."he growled huskily.

She smirked as he picked her up and carried her to the bed dropping her on it and he pounced. When he did the cot couldn't support the stress of John jumping on it and it broke sending them both to the floor. He didn't skip a beat he entered her in one move and completed her and she moaned. John was never the one to take her gently, he knew how she liked it and he gave it to her. He was drilling into her with hard passionate thrusts their heads hitting the wall. With the holding cells on the other side of the wall Holland was going to be mentally scared yet again. She was digging her nails into his shoulders and back leaving trails of blood in their wake, she was getting close to her end.

DXDXDXDXDX

Damn were they going to have a headache and have Brittany order a new cot. As for Holland well he was sure Holland was looking for a way to commit suicide for between last night and today. As for Captain and Commander Keys...he knew he was going to get an ear full form Captain Keys about mentally scaring his daughter Commander Keys. All that mattered at the moment was Sarah, she was almost over the edge and she wasn't the only one. Damn her for getting him so hot and bothered, then she tried to walk away form him while he needed this. Just thinking about it made him drill into her harder and faster. Her walls griping hard around him and he threw his head back and growled as he came. She on the other hand was screaming his "GOD DAMN AGAIN!"yelled Fred
>"Bow Chika Bow Wow."said Tucker
"TUCKER SHUT THE FUCK UP MAN!"yelled William.

He looked down at Sarah "You woman raped me."he said

"You can't rape the willing John you know that."she replied kissing his lips and they fell asleep.

DXDXDXDXDX

When she and NOBLE team returned Melinda Keys looked at her scared out of her mind "Alright what happened?"she asked

"You might want to check on Holland."said Forge with a shit eating grin on his face.

The smell hit her and she knew her parents got down and dirty scaring everyone in the base at the time. She went to the holding cells and saw Holland on his cot knees up to his chest rocking front to back shaking like a leaf singing 'their coming to take me away' she went to her parents door and punched it hard enough to leave a dent earning a 'What the fuck was that?' and a ' Hell if I know' "GET YOUR ASSES UP AND DRESSED AND TO THE MAP ROOM NOW!"she roared

"Oh-uh Brittany is pissed."said Emile

"You think?"asked Jun.

She walked away from the door jerking her hand out of it, she looked at it and headed for the Medical bay to fix her broken hand.

DXDXDXDXDX

Jun watched as she walked by and saw her hand, her temper got her a broken hand. He shook his head and followed her out. She looked back at him "Jun, what are you doing?"she asked

"Seeing if you want help."he replied.

She sighed and stopped, he looked at her and gently picked up her broken hand to see how bad it was. It was pretty broken "You shouldn't let your temper get the best of you."he said

"I know I just miss the children."she said.

He knew how she felt and kissed her broken hand then her lips. He broke the kiss and looked at her "Hows Holland?"he asked

"Not good, when I checked him he was shaking like a leaf rocking singing 'The funny farm'." she replied

"Fred said something about a pair of hunters wrecking their room."he said.

Brittany's face turned beet red in embarrassment and he chuckled "Come on lets get this fixed."he said.

DXDXDXDXDX

The sleeping gas was released on the ship that brought Brittany and her friends to Reach. He looked over at Jul' Madama "You know what her greatest weakness is?"he asked

"No, I do not. I have a feeling you are about to tell me."said the leader of the Storm Covenant

>"Children. That is her weakness. As of now the crew of the Enterprise will be waking up to find that her triplets are missing."he said.

Madama's eyes widened at his confession "Her mothers weakness was her brother and it got her killed by his own hands."he added

"Why tempt her furry and motherly rage?"asked Madama.

He laughed "A mother would do any thing for her children, come my friend we have a lot of work to do to make DARK NOBLE."he said.

DXDXDXDXDX

UNSC INFINITY

Palmer laid her head on Lasky's chest when Roland appeared "Sorry sirs but there is a ergent message form Spartan Grant on the _Enterprise_."said Roland.

They both got up and dressed what could have happened that they would call, when they reached the bridge Lord Hood was pissed "How dare he pull a stunt like this."Lord Hood growled

"Sir, what happened?"she asked

"Church had spies on the Enterprise and now he has Brittany's triplets."said Lord Hood.

She froze all hell was about to brake lose on Reach, Church had made his gravest mistake and that mistake would cost him.

That is all for this chapter please review.

29. Chapter 28

A/N: I'm back sorry for the leave I have taken my computer had to be put into the shop and I have just gotten it back here is the next chapter enjoy!

Chapter 28: The return of 1337

Reach

Sgt. Forge watched as his son and Brittany threw pretty much the metaphorical kitchen sink at the other in hand to hand combat. His son landed a few good hits on the daughter of the Master Chief and the Deadly Agent Alaska, but none as good as she gave him. Just then Grant and Majestic landed.

The fireteam's Commanding officer De'Marco had purpose in his step "Brittany we have a problem."said De'Marco.

Brittany and Carter stopped and she left to talk to De'Marco, they didn't know what was going on until Brittany chin checked De'Marco and fell to her knees screaming in rage "Brittany?"yelled Jun rushing over to her eveyone following

"Brittany, whats going on?"asked Jun

"That son of a bitch is going to die I sware to the librarian by the time I am done not even the Didact will want to ally himself with him in hell."she said through clinched teeth

"What happened?"he asked

"The Director has the triplets."said De'Marco.

Jun's face turned dark "What the hell happened De'Marco it was Majestic's job to protect them."he demanded

"Before or after we all got knocked out with knock out gas?"De'Marco asked.

This did not sound good at all "What are you talking about Spartan?"asked Jun

"The Director had moles on board."said Thorn as he came out of the Pelican

"Wouldn't surprise me the bastard don't like getting his hands dirty."said Tex.

The last two to rush out were Chief and Samantha "What the hell is all the screaming about?"demanded Chief.

Brittany stood up "Get suited up and ready to go the Director dies today."she snarled heading for the armory

"Not until you tell me what the hell is going on."said Chief

"Shut up Spartan and do as she says."snapped Jun following her.

He turned to the spartan legend "Your grandchildren were kidnapped of the _Enterprise _the Director has them."he said.

Samantha gasped and as for Chief well he was as red as a tomato with rage he followed the two into the armory "Brittany, it could be a trap."said her father

"That may be mother, but when it comes to the triplets I will spring the fucking trap and if he has harmed them in any way shape or form I will kill him _slowly_."she said.

DXDXDXDXDXDX

Brittany helped with his chest plate his children were in danger "Leave some for me."he said

"I will my love."she said.

He put on his helmet and put his rifle on the magnetic plate "Lets ride."she said.

They all headed for the Warthogs and Mongooses for them to go into the underground of Reach. He and Brittany rode together in a hog with Fred on the Gus turret. Something didn't feel right it was like they were riding right into...something exploded in front of them sending the Hog into the air and them out of it. Brittany and Fred landed on their feet while he landed on his ass "Take cover!"Brittany ordered.

He looked through the scope of his rifle and he had to do a double take "We're to late."he said

"What do you mean?"asked Emile.

The colors were reversed save for six, but it was them except for him. They died he survived "Brittany he cloned you guys I am looking dead at you."he said into the coms.

Brittany growled _"I doubt we can be reasoned with."_said Kat

"_Not by us, but by Jun."_said Carter.

He rolled his eyes and put his rifle on his back _"Be careful."_said Brittany.

He held his hands up "HAVE YOU GUYS LOST IT?!"he yelled.

He began walking over to the clones slowly as he got closer Dark Brittany put a Magnum to his back "Its good to see you _babe _why did you betray the UNSC?"she asked.

He had to remind himself these were close he was dealing with "I didn't."he replied

"Then why help traitors three?"asked Dark Emile "And I hope Wigs isn't involved."

"Wigs...shes..."he looked away

"Spit it out Jun what happened to my daughter?"Dark Brittany asked

"I really don't know how to explain it."he said.

Dark Brittany pushed the Magnum into his back harder "Come on tell me I won't shot you."she said "If you don't lie to me."

He saw the steel and sage EVA armor of Harmony "If you assholes know whats good for you let my father go now."she snarled

"Thats a relief here I thought he was going to say Wigs was dead."said Dark Emile

"I was, but you should see me now. I am three times worse than you or my darker version of my mother."said Wigs.

She jumped out of hiding attacking Dark Brittany and began to knock her out next was Kat who put up a fight.

DXDXDXDXDX

She had to help out before Jun got shot "Carter you guys stay put. Chief you and your team with me."she said.

She got up and ran at them Dark Carter seen her "What the hell two sixes?" Dark Carter said shocked.

She jumped and nailed him in the chest and tackled Dark Emile as her father and Fred took Dark Jorge down,Dark Emile sliced her across her stomic and was rewarded with a kick in the nuts. She held the wound and gritted her teeth Jun held her "How bad is it?"he asked

"Not bad: Are we clear?"she asked

"Yeah."said Linda.

Her father had his head lamps on and was shinning them on her stomic it was deep enough to bleed out, but not enough to see her insides. Jun applied the Bio-foam and held her as she hissed in pain "Get the med kit up here."he said.

DXDXDXDXDX

He looked at Dark Emile all of them the clones of his love and his team as they woke up "Son of a bitch Jun what the hell are you doing?"demanded Dark Brittany.

Brittany looked over at him "You know the five of you are clones right?"she asked

"Naw shit."said Dark Emile

"Don't get smart with the Arbiter of Valhalla."he snapped kicking Dark Emile

"What?"asked Dark Brittany.

Wigs removed her helmet and Dark Emile cat called "Damn Wigs you hot as a human."said Dark Emile

"Sorry Clone, but she can only handle one of us."said Emile.

Brittany explained to them as to why they were cloned and for what purpose that they were to be used for "Shes right even if I was cloned I couldn't have children unless in a forerunner brought me back."said Dark Brittany.

The sadness in her voice tore at him and he wanted to hold her "The only way you could have them if you were cloned is if the Director himself went in and fixed what Georgia had did."said North

"Jun, I ran a scan the Director did repair the injury in Brittany's clone the DNA of the child is that of North."said ISIS.

He froze the sick son of a bitch brought back the child she and North lost "We need your help, Church has the triplets."he said

"Whos?"asked Dark Carters

"Our children."he said holding Brittany.

Dark Brittany nodded "So thats who's children they were."said Dark Kat

"Brittany, ISIS also ran a scan on your clone."he said

"Oh?"she asked

"He fixed the issue and he also cloned yours and North's unborn child."he said.

Brittany's fingers balled into fists "He is truly pissing me off."she said

"There is a Sangheili with him Jul' Madama I think. He was warning Church on how unwise it was to bring the dead back to life as well as holding innocent children."said Dark Jorge

"We'll help, Six you stay out of the fighting you have to survive for that child even if we don't."said Carter

"Its only right."said a voice.

He turned to see her mother "Brittany you had a twin sister, but she didn't make it a identical twin."said her mother looking at Dark Brittany

"Two? Why didn't you tell me?"asked Chief

"Because I know how you would have reacted John and it wouldn't have been pretty."said Brittany's mother

"What was her name?"both Brittanys asked

"Savannah."said her mother.

DXDXDXDXDXDX

Maine had brought him out of the dark void he had spent years in. Seeing all the wrong he was forced to do not having control over his voice or movements until now. He was finally free, he had killed his sister in cold blood in front of his fellow Spartan IIs tried to kill his niece on multiple occasions only to have his ass handed to her by him. She was a lethal combination of her mother's beauty and her fathers will but both of their deadly skill sets. He had found his old armor and put it on the white _1337_. Still on the chest plate he was free and he would free his grand nieces and nephew form the Director then seek his niece's forgiveness if she granted it. For he was Andrew 1337 twin brother of Sarah Samantha Hawk and he would pay the Director back for all the innocent blood the bastard had him spill.

I am going to start with the NOBLE Avengers and work my way down then I will return to this one. To all the followers of this fic I thank you for you support and your constructive criticism. With your guy's support I will sure to have many wonderful fics to come.

Chapter 29: A Mother's rage and A Uncle's redemption

__All Andrew Spartan 1337 knew was that he had to find Church and that Elite Jul' Madama before they caused more damage to Reach the home of the original Spartan II project his home like many other surviving Spartan IIs. As he turned a corner he found Councilor Sheppard "If you are looking for the Director and Madama Spartan 3137 try looking in the cloning room."said the Councilor.

This guy was a hundred percent no friend of the Directors "He has three children your niece's children with him." the Councilor added

"I know thats why I have to be careful on what I shoot at."he said

"Oh it will also do you good to know he made a clone of your niece as well as your sister was brought back by the Librarian."said the Councilor

"Sarah?"he asked stunned as he thought back to the night he had killed her...

Flash back

_ He watched through his own eyes as his twin tried to fight him off, he tried to stop himself and found himself unable to do so "Sarah get away go!" he screamed at her knowing she could not hear him._

_She continued to fight as BLUE team came over the hill John 117 rushed to help her as he took his knife and stabbed her in the side with it twelve times. His sister's screams of pain tore through him like a shot, as his head leaned close "I want you to see his pain as you die, knowing that you will __NEVER __be together. That he will know he failed you as a lover. Freelancer Spartans and UNSC Spartans are __NEVER __meant to be Alaska." his voice darker and more evil thanks to the Director "Knowing that you will never see your child again were ever you hid he or she. You failed the child Alaska. I will enjoy taking its life."_

_He left before the Master Chief had reached him even under the control of the Director he knew he was no match for a pissed off John. _

End of Flash back

It was true he would have rather staid and took John's brutal beating for what he had done; he would have been better off dead at the hands of a close friend then a hated enemy. He also remembered the most recent damage he had done to his niece with the building steel and to her beloved. What was it between his sister and his niece and their pissing off the Director?

Flash back

_ He circled her_ _she was unwise in waring the lighter and less protective ODST armor "You foolish girl, you will die in the arms of your lover like your whore of a mother died in the arms of your father."he said._

He hated this first his sister now his niece when was it all going to stop? All this pain that The Director was causing him as he stood by being controlled by the son of a bitch as he was forced to kill Freelancers and ODSTs who all wanted the same thing to fall in love no matter what side they were from. The first of many of his victims his own twin sister Sarah. Was it to end with the death of his niece and her lover? As well as John who was to weak to fight thanks to all the drugs he was given for sedation not to forget all the drugs they gave him to breed with Spartan VI females who too were drugged. All to get the next and new generation of Freelancers to over through the UNSC? The sick bastard even thought of using Brittany for this sick purpose. He wasn't surprised when she tried to kill him with a grenade after all it is what her father would have done. He for one couldn't have been more proud of her.

That is when his eyes found that re-bar building steel. His hand curled around it and he lifted it up and like a whaler harpooning a whale he threw it. Brittany didn't even move when it sunk into her lower back until she fell to her knees. Her lover 'Tree frog' as he and other Freelancers called him grabbed the knife off the shoulder of the EVA CQC specialist of his old team and charged him in a fit of rage. Something John never had a chance to do. This boy was young and foolish which due to this it didn't take him long to stop the boy and use his own team mate's knife on him the same way he used his own on his sister forcibly all those years ago. The young Spartan screamed in pain like his sister had done "You failed her tree frog."he said

"_Thats what you think asshole META NOW!"yelled Tree frog smirking._

End of flash back

He had to admit not even he was expecting something like that, the Spartan III used himself as a lamb to have the META attack him from behind. He made his way using the shadows to the cloning room and waited for his niece and her lover to show up to save their kids while he killed the sick son of a bitch. 1337 had one hell of an ax to grind with the Director.

DXDXDXDXDX

Dark NOBLE lead them to the Director just her and Jun as 'Prisoners' well did they have a shocker in store for the bastard "Ah Dark NOBLE one well don't though I am shocked you brought Jun with you."said the Director

"Sir with all do respect he was one of us once he can be again."said Dark Carter

"Shame I have to re-clone Brittany though. Funny both of your clones will raise these three lovely children to serve me in the up coming war with the UNSC."said the Director

"I hope you choke on a dick you bastard."Brittany snarled

"Watch your language in front of your children and here I thought that whore of a mother taught you better."said Church.

The stasis cuffs lost power Dark Kat and Emile stood behind them to retrieve them "Commander have Emile execute them both."said Church.

Dark Emile took Dark Kat's offered pistol and pulled back the receiver "Sorry you two, but you'll wake up later feeling better and back with the good guys."said Dark Emile

" I have no idea what wigs ever saw in you Emile."she and Jun both said.

That was the cue Dark NOBLE aimed their guns at Madama and Church "Commander what are you doing?"Church demanded

"You brought us back to kill ourselves and to cause the clone of Brittany you made to suffer through the loss of a child that you forced her to lose before she joined NOBLE. Do you really think that we are going to let your sick sadistic ass get away with that shit?"Dark Carter demanded

Madama looked at Church "I told you your plan would back fire human, but your pride and arrogance got the best of you."said Madama

"Well I can say one thing the Didact's hand is a lot wiser than you give him credit for just like my daughter's smarts she gets from her father and I."said a voice

"Sarah Samantha Hawk, you do live."said the Director

"Let the younglings go and we may let you live."said Teila.

Meta appeared with Washington and Tex behind the Director, the three Agents took their children from the Director and jumped off the catwalk and onto the floor making sure the children were unharmed after the landing "Now that that is handled."said Carter

"I say we end this."said Dark Carter

"If anyone ends any thing I will be the one to do it, besides I have suffered the longest because of him."said a voice.

She and Jun froze as Meta hissed and snarled as he held J.J "Georgia."said her mother darkly.

A Spartan emerged from the shadows and he wasn't waring the Steel and Red hued armor he wore armor the same color and make as her father's on the chest plate above his heart in white the numbers _1337 _were scratched, but still visible "You controlled me into to things I couldn't stop first you had me kill my sister in front of my friends then you sent me after my niece and her friends. It took a severe ass beating from Maine to brake that hold. John never got Sarah to question you I DID!" yelled 1337.

She was shocked if she thought of the Director was a low maggot on the poll due to this news he lowered himself to a low life piece of shit in her book. Prometheans joined the Storm Covenant ranks it was going to get hairy and fast "Maine, Wash, and Tex. Take the kids and link up with Majestic."she said into the coms

"_Copy that boss._"said Sigma.

As they went out the enemy was closing in "I have to admit, Director you have hit a new low in my book."she said

"I don't give a damn what a whore like you and your mother think of me, let alone any of your friends."said Church

"That will be your down fall _Church_."said 1337.

A Zealot tried to get a cheep shot in only to have 1337's knife stuck in it's head "FREELANCERS AND VALHALLAN GUARD ASSIST!"she ordered

"SPARTANS ASSIST!"ordered both Carters and the fight was on.

DXDXDXDXDX

Gunfire was heard from where they stood, his daughter's clone was talking with North both agreed it was best for the child for them to stay together. North was being a man about it when the gunfire broke out "Well looks like the fun has started."said South who was looking as though she was going to pop any minuet.

He guessed waring the power suit was a good way to make nine months fly by in a few days "Chief, once the children make it here you take your team and help your daughter who isn't pregnant."said De'Marco

"Already planed on it. Forge help Majestic and the helljumpers protect my grandchildren including the one that is on the way."he said

"Don't worry Master Chief I won't let anything happen to any of them."said Forge.

Meta, Washington, and Texas came into view with the children "Wyoming, what do you know about a spartan called 3137?"asked Tex.

What had Andy have to do with this? "Andrew 3137 was Sarah's twin brother, she didn't know what she had done until Johnny boy there confronted her. She accidentally killed her own brother why?"asked Wyoming

"Not from what we saw and he is no clone Sigma gave us the file. The Director had implanted a control device in 1337 brain."said Washington

"1337 was given the Agent name Georgia. Sarah was murdered by her own brother."said Texas pissed.

This news went through him like a shotgun round to the chest with out armor...that actually did happen and it was Sarah who pulled the trigger. That was the night she left him only to return to die in his arms, but it was Andy who stabbed her? "Bloody hell, I didn't see this coming."said Wyoming

"Andy was always so care free and out going more of an oddball of the IIs than Jorge."he said

"Well hes in there right now getting ready to murder the Director for all the pain he was forced to cause and live through the past what thirty years."said Washington

"Give or take a year."said Texas

"Chief, I think its best we go now judging by the gun fire its an all out war going on in that room."said Fred

"Killing That bastard would be a mercy I think its time to make him suffer for once."said Kelly darkly.

He had to agree with that "BLUE squad lets move out."he said.

DXDXDXDXDX

The Director fired a shot into the war zone of the room, no one knew who was hit until he heard Harmony scream "MOM NO!"

He looked over to see Brittany with a hand over her stomic the Storm Covenant and the Prometheans stopped fighting them to see the Freelancer princess pull away her hand to see blood. His heart slammed against his rib cage as he pushed passed grunts, jackles, brutes, skirmishers, and elites form both sides to get to her. Harmony had gotten there first by the time he got there Harmony had helped Brittany gently to the floor. 1337 lept over the catwalk railing as her mother rushed over the Prometheans left the fight as Madama looked at the Director "Our alliance is over. You have no honor, you shot her instead of confronting her."said Madama.

The Storm Covenant leader started shouting out orders to fall back and to give the wounded Arbiter of Valhalla room to breath as he fell to his knees beside her "Fucking dick."she growled.

Harmony had already emptied a can of Bio-foam into the wound, but she was still bleeding "Brittany, stay with me."he said.

Her tan skin slowly turning pale from blood loss "Jun, I-I'm sorry I'm so sorry."she said trying to hold back tears.

She knew she wasn't going to make it "Brittany, don't you _dare _die on me."he ordered.

A armored feet stopped at the entrance of the door "JOHN!"yelled Samantha.

1337 picked Brittany up gently "MADAMA, I know you know were that room is I need you to lead me to it NOW!" Georgia snapped

"Carter and Jorge take Church into custody he will stand before a UNSC and ONI court marshal for his crimes."he ordered

"Killing him now would be a kindness he deserves to suffer."said Chief as he saw his daughter bleeding wound

"The Bio-foam isn't slowing the bleeding we need to move quickly. This facility has a regeneration room. I woke up in their after my run in with Meta."said Georgia

"Follow me demons my brothers will not harm you. The human Arbiter has gained our respect."said Madama

"This coming from the bastard that killed me."said Harmony.

This caught Madama's attention "I don't recall killing you."said Madama

"I was Uggony before I became a Spartan."said Harmony.

Madama froze "By the Forerunners how is this possible?"asked Madama

"By a Forerunner it was done."said The Arbiter of Sangheilious.

Madama nodded and lead the way to the room "Its this way, how is she doing?"asked Madama

"Not good if she dies fuck the Court Marshal."said Georgia

"Finally something we agree on."he said.

DXDXDXDXDX

When she woke up she was in the medical bay of the _Enterprise _the last thing she remembered was getting shot by the Director then seeing a bright light. She sat up slowly to see Georgia sitting there. She pulled the IV out ready to stick the son of a bitch if he tried anything "Relax Brittany I am not your enemy anymore. If it wasn't for Thom I would still be the Director's puppet."said Georgia

"Why should I believe you?"she asked.

He held something in his hand "They removed this a few weeks ago, the source of our families pain."he said sadly.

She looked at the device it was a controlling device "It all started when I fell off a building because of your mother's stubbornness. Then I woke up no control over my words or body I stopped being 3137 the odd ball of the Spartan II program and became the blood thirsty Agent Georgia. Although not by choice I was forced to kill. I tried and tried to fight and the control over me got that much stronger."he said "My first target was my twin sister who fell in love with a friend. That twin and the friend in question were your mother and father."

She looked at him as he removed her helmet black hair lined with gray framed pale skin and pale blue augmented eyes that held so much pain so much sorrow "I was forced to kill others while you were hidden away growing up not knowing of your mother or father or myself. Then when it was discovered on who your parents were and that you were following the same path like your mother I was ordered to kill you and Jun both."he said

"I lied that day, I did it to save a friend."she said

"I knew but the Director didn't I was nothing more than a slave to his will. A mindless slave that didn't know the truth from a lie. The way you fought woke me up from the darkness I saw so much of your mother and father in you that it lit a hope that one day I would be free. You started the down fall of the Director's control when you faced me the first time."he said "When you fell on Reach that hope began to die."

"What do you mean the down fall began the first time we tried to kill each other?"she asked

"The control device began to slowly lose its power when you suck me with a plasma grenade then proceeded to Spartan kick me off a steep cliff."he said "Then it lost more power at ONI HQ. When you sprung your father out of that prison."

"If I would have known I would have found a way to save you."she said.

He chuckled "Your just like your mother. Your father fell in love with her for that reason like Jun I hear fell for you. That is your greatest weapon of all."he said "I had enough control to think for myself so I kidnapped South thinking you would come. I was shocked to see the Meta pounding down my door with out you there. It tore me apart to hear North telling me that I killed yours and his child. I still blame myself for everything."

"Geez you sound like North and Jun. Like I told them your not to blame you were not yourself and in knowing this all blame falls on the Director were ever that bastard is I for one hope his is burning in hell."she said.

Her Uncle hugged her then crying "Thank you Brittany, as for that _bastard _he is in the brig."said her Uncle.

DXDXDXDXDX

Jun had his handsful with changing dirty diapers and feedings how the hell did Brittany let alone any woman did this? He had just put his son down when he heard a soft melody of a laugh flow into the room. He spun to see Savannah formerly known as Dark Brittany standing at the door or so he thought she wasn't pregnant "You look tired Jun."she said.

He rushed over to her when it dawned on him who it was "Brittany, I thought I lost you."he said picking her up

"You almost did, but I like my father have a will of steel."she said

"Madama and Georgia had a hand in that so called 'Will'" he replied looking up into her eyes.

She smiled and leaned down to kiss him on the forehead he on the other hand had other ideas. His lips met hers instead of his forehead. When the kiss broke he set her on her feet "The _Mother of Intervention _is waiting for its Arbiter."he said.

She smiled and nodded "Then lets go home."she said

"My home is were ever you are."he said kissing her passionately.

They had the Director all they had to do now was stop Madama, for the first time they had one less problem to worry over.

31. Chapter 30

A/N: Here is the last chapter of the story :'(. I know dear readers, it has come to an end well not really because I am sure you are going to want to know who, what, when, and why soon enough when the epilogue comes out. Sorry readers no spoilers the epilogue has been classified top secret until then so lets get on with the show.

Chapter 30: Brittany Vs The Master Chief

Jun had the children with Hoya and Thorn when they landed aboard the _Mother of Intervention _it felt odd being on the ship that lead her to Jun again, but after all it was the home of the Freelancers as well as a now SpartanIIs and now more Spartan IIIs. She checked her armor as Jun stepped off the pelican with Jun Jr. Hoya and Thorn following with the girls "Jun you better have some good news son if you don't Chief is going to stomp your ass."said Avery

"If he does still recovering or not I will stomp his."she said.

Avery froze and snapped to attention as she walked down the ramp "Were is everyone Avery?"she asked

"The men are all trying to gang up on Tex to over power her the only smart ones are Carter and Jorge."said Avery

"This should be fun to watch."said Hoya

"Make that four."said Avery

"You think we are crazy enough to face hell's angel? Your out your mind Johnson."said Hoya.

She smirked mischievously " Brittany, don't even think about it."said Jun

"Aw you don't let me have any fun."she said with a pout

"Because your hurt thats why."replied Jun

"As far as I recall we were still recovering when the triplets were conceived."she shot back

"My virgin ears they burn."said Hoya

"Bull shit you've heard worse."said Thorn.

Jun looked at her "That maybe true, but we did that to piss of Carter."he shot back

"Calm down my love, no need for you to get all worked up."she said walking past him.

She walked past Avery and went to the lift "Brittany, don't you even dare."he growled handing his son to Avery

"Come and get me baby."said said seductively as the doors began to close.

DXDXDXDXD

The doors had closed before he could get inside to stop her "Avery did Chief have this much trouble out of her mother?"he asked

"Yes he did its funny to watch that its been passed to Brittany."said Avery chuckling

"Not funny."he growled.

Avery shook his head "If there is one thing that she has in common with them like you do that is you can't sit around and heal you lot have to throw yourselves back into harms way before you have a chance to breath. That is what sets you four apart from the others."said Avery.

Now that he thought about it Avery was right, but at the same time he wanted nothing more than to spend time alone with Brittany. Hold her in his arms and lay her down and love her all of her, she was like her mother and father reckless and would lay down her life with out a second thought. He waited for the lift doors to open and found Brittany there looking at him. She grabbed his hand "You three coming?"she asked

"We'll catch the next one."said Hoya.

He stepped in as the doors closed he pulled her against him and took her lips in a passionate kiss. His fingers dug into her hair and he broke the kiss "Brittany, you need to be resting with me not picking a fight with Tex."he said

"Who said I was picking a fight with Tex?"she asked

"Then who?"he asked

"My dad."she said.

He had to see that fight it would be interesting to watch to say the least and he would most defendant be cheering his beloved Arbiter on. She looked at him "You'd like to see that I can see it on your face."she said

"Considering the ass beatings he has given me as of late it would be nice other than myself or your mother handle his ass."he said.

She shook her head "When is my father going to learn that I love you more than anything. You opened my eyes to something other than my life as a freelancer."she said.

He rested his forehead on hers "You might want to put thicker armor on."he said

"I will and I know just the armor to use."she said.

DXDXDXDXDXD

Brittany went right to the armory for 'retired and fallen' freelancers, she walked over to the Hyabusa armor the gold name tag below read _'Agent Alaska MKII, Colonel Brittany A. Hawk the silent wolf' _it was protected by glass "FILLIS could you drop the alarm of my old armor?"she asked

"Of course Agent Alaska someone has to teach your father a lesson in manners he managed to beat Texas."said FILLIS

"Your shitting me?"he asked shocked.

The AI dropped the alarm and the glass slid back with a silent to normal ears _hiss _Brittany then proceeded to remove the armor form its rack the all steel with the silver visor was enough to set his blood on ice. He remembered seeing her in this armor and the deadly precession she used in her skill of killing. She began to strip down to her bra and underwear a sight he never mind seeing. The sleek curve of her hip proved with her beauty she was just as deadly. She reached for the skin suit and began to put it on, he helped her into it zipping up the back as she began with her boots, shin, knee, and thigh armor locking it into place. She then moved to her belt, cod, and back plate. He helped her with her arm and chest plate. She then put on her helmet and added the deadly Katana she would use to cut someone apart with. She was intimidating in this armor one of the few things Emile feared. He knew Emile would shit himself once he saw this armor walk onto the training floor _"Will the master Chief stay were he is on the training floor your new opponent will be there shortly._"said FILLIS over the ship's coms.

When she was finished she looked at him "I forgot how deadly you look in this armor."he said

"How can you. Even Emile fears me in this armor."she said.

She stepped passed him and headed for the training floor as he went to watch the ass kicking of the century.

DXDXDXDXDXDX

John 117 had managed to beat Texas ass when FILLIS told him to stay put that his new opponent would be there shortly. The door leading to the training floor opened and his eyes widened they wore the same armor Samantha did years ago save for the visor color instead of Black it was silver. He was about to ask what the fuck was going on when FILLIS's voice came over the speakers again _"1 on 1 match. Hand to hand combat The Master Chief 117 vs Agent Alaska MK II Colonel B-312. Begin when ready."_said FILLIS.

Brittany? What the hell was she thinking "Whats the matter _dad_? Don't want to fight me because I just escaped the med bay?"she asked

"_Brittany, do I have to lock Jun in the brig while your father cuffs you to a damn hospital table?"_asked Carter

"Arbiter remember Carter."she said

"_Your NOT in your Arbiter armor."_said Carolina

"TRAITOR!"she teased.

He shook his head and went to grab her only to find himself looking up flat on his back, it happened so fast "Just because I am a little sore doesn't mean I can't kick some ass."she said as she looked over at Emile who was just now waking up after being knocked out by Texas

"HOLY SHIT!"yelled Emile backing up against the wall.

You could hear the laughter coming from the others apparently his daughter in this armor was the only thing to scare Emile into listening to orders "Move along Emile, go have Harmony check you over."said Brittany.

Emile did as ordered and limped out of the room "Now wish to try again?"she asked stretching.

DXDXDXDXDXD

Carter shook his head what were they going to do with Brittany? Of course nothing she was the Arbiter of their new home Valhalla after all. Chief jumped to his feet as Brittany hid in the shadows getting ready to attack form any one place. If Chief wasn't careful he was going to end up like Emile knocked the fuck out "Hmm, I wounder who will win between them wouldn't you agree Carter?"asked Savannah

"Your her clone you tell me?"he asked

"That maybe but I have our sister's name."she replied

"I can tell you right now Brittany will."said Samantha.

Everyone looked at her "She has both Sarah's and John's skills not to mention what she has picked up over the years."said Andrew 1337 formally known as Agent Georgia.

Kat looked at him and shrugged as Chief went at Brittany with a left hook, which she just ducked and landed a hard kick to Chief's side _"Point Agent Alaska."_said FILLIS when Chief hit a knee

"John has to be smarter than her Brittany's greatest strength is the shadows you take that from her and she is in trouble."said Linda.

That was true Brittany could hit and fade like Jun and Linda who also used the shadows due to them being snipers. Brittany went into the shadows again, he shook his head "John, won't figure it out til to late."said Cortana.

DXDXDXDXDXDX

It happened so fast, one moment she was using the shadows to her advantage and like that the light came and rained on her parade. It gave her father the chance he needed to land a hard blow to her injured stumic "Fucker."she snarled

"Its over Brittany, I won."said her father

"NOT BLOODY LIKELY OLD MAN!"she roared

"_Ah, Chief I think you pissed her off."_said Avery.

Pissed? Oh NOBLE saw pissed this was beyond pissed like her mother before her you hit her were she was injured and she was going to fucking lay your ass out. She hand sprung to her feet as her father groaned and shook his head "I know you didn't get that from me."he said getting ready to protect himself from what ever she was going to dish out.

She smiled it was time to use her hard copies something that drove NOBLE crazy on Reach she could literally be twelve places at once. The hard copied holograms surrounded her father "Fuck me."said her dad

"No _dad _that's mom's job."she said.

DXDXDXDXDXD

They all watched as one of Brittany's favorite abilities sent her father flying into the air only to have her grab him from behind and spine buster his ass into the titanium floor plates. It was lighter than what they were used to because Chief was her father "Ouch I don't care where your from, but that has got to hurt."said Buck.

Brittany walked away and through the door she came in, he had to go calm her down now.

DXDXDXDXDXD

Brittany let the hot water of the tub soak her aching body "Brittany, baby are you in here?"came Jun's worried voice

"Bathroom baby."she said.

He came into the bathroom and looked at her "Are you alright?"he asked

"Yeah, and my father?"she asked

"Knocked the fuck out."he replied smirking.

She smiled and chuckled shaking her head at him, he was her lover and her friend they were to be more when the dust settled. She reached out and touched his leg "How about you get out of those close lock the door and join me."she said.

He smiled and went to the door locking it then began to strip and soon joined her in the tub "We'll be linking up with the _Infinity _tomorrow."he said

"I know, so are you going back to ONI?"she asked

"And leave you and my children fuck no."he said.

She leaned back against him loving the feel of his broad chest and shoulders "I love you Brittany Hawk."he said in her ear

"And I love you Jun."she said.

UNSC Infinity

Sarah laid back as Tom's hands roamed over her body, funny how she thought she wouldn't fall in love with the ship's captain then she remembered what Jun had told her long ago when.

FLASH BACK

_ She slammed her fist against his chest "Why, all I have ever done was love you."she cried_

"_Sarah, what you feel towards me isn't love. I knew what love was, I lost it when Reach fell."he said._

She looked up at him shocked so rumors were true he lost someone he loved on Reach "Who was she?"she yelled

"_That isn't your concern Palmer. Leave daddy alone and leave."said Wigs her little claws gripping the handles of her twin Magnums.

She looked at Jun "Her adopted mother was special, she was everything to me and I couldn't muster up the courage to tell her how I felt. When I saw her body when I went back for her a part of me died. Back then I was talkative so much so it got me in trouble. With her dead I find it hard to move on. I loved her and in some way I knew she felt the same and shes gone now."he said.

The pain in his voice and eyes caused her to back away.

End of Flash back

How could she be so stupid back then in away she forced him into it, and in away she didn't he knew he couldn't live with out Brittany and more and more of him died each day. Now she knew what he meant by what he said. She knew what love was and it was here in front of her plain as day Tom was the one she was meant to be with not Jun. She admitted it she messed up when Tom heard about what she tried to pull on Valhalla. Tom had been so hurt by her actions he didn't talk to her for a solid month except if it was to give her an order. Yes she fucked up "Sarah, are you alright?"asked Tom

"Yes Tom I'm fine."she said and kissed him.

Tom thrusted into her and she gasped her body shaking with need a need no other man, but Tom could fill. In the after glow she broke the kiss "I love you Tom."she said.

He smiled and kissed her forehead "I love you too Sarah."he said.

She closed her eyes a smile on her lips as she let sleep take her.

John looked at Samantha, his beloved Alaska MkI thought it funny that their daughter kicked his ass "Samantha, you just can't get enough of the fact our daughters are a lethal combination of us and one of those said daughters just kicked my ass?"he said

"Its not that John look."she said handing him a stick that had a pink plus sign.

He arched a brow and looked at her "And what is this supposed to be?"he asked

"John, your so thick headed its funny at times. That my love is a pregnancy test. A negative says I am not pregnant a plus says..."she trailed of leaving him to fill in the blank.

He looked at it again "Your pregnant?"he asked

"Naw I am Emile tap dancing on the ceiling."said Samantha annoyed.

He couldn't believe it he was to be a father again! He launched forward earning a squeak from the woman he loved "John!"she exclaimed

"This time I will be in our child's life."he said as he kissed her Brittany and Savannah were going to flip.

Carter leaned back against the head board, who would have thought Freelancer's had such conformable beds? Kat came in after having heaved her guts out for the twentieth time that day "Maybe you should go see Doc."he said

"I missed my period."said Kat.

He froze and looked at her "You missed your what?"he asked

"My menstrual cycle, period, crimson tide or what ever you men call it."Kat snapped.

He let her words sink in "Kat, your telling me your pregnant?"he asked.

Kat nodded slowly, he shot up off the bed and picked her up laughing. He kissed Kat and held her close "Carter, your happy?"she asked shocked

"Yes I am. I want nothing more than to be with you Kat. I love you."he said.

Kat smiled and rested her head against his shoulder and sighed "I love you too Carter."she said.

Harmony watched as Emile scared around the room, it was funny to watch the 'Demon' of NOBLE scared out of his mind "She is going to kill me."he said

"Its not your fault that the condom broke."she said trying to calm him

"She is going to dawn the Hyabusa armor and skin me alive."Emile said.

She sighed and got up and walked into his line of walking "Emile, stop. Mom will not try and kill you she knows it would hurt me. My grandfather on the other hand likes you and will stop her if she tries. I want this gift that our love created."she said

"Harmony, thats why I love you, you bring me nothing but harmony when you calm me."he said kissing her.

DXDXDXDXDDX

They had made it to dock with the _Infinity _and she was sick to her stumic, Roland on the other hand was smiling like a damn jackass for an AI "What are you smiling about?"asked Palmer all grumpy

"Your not the only one carrying a special package."said the AI

"What do you mean?"she and Palmer asked

"NOBLEs 2 and 6, Samantha Hawk, Harmony, and you commander are all pregnant."said Roland

"WHAT?!"she and Jun said hearing Harmony being brought up.

Emile hid behind Jorge "Boy did you really just step in it?"asked Savannah holding her new born son Eric.

She looked at Harmony "Its not his fault blame Trojan condoms."said Harmony

"Oh sure blame the rubber."said Fredric laughing.

She shook her head she needed a drink, but with her being pregnant again Jun would have to drink for her. She laughed as Jun chased Emile around the landing bay her beloved shouting curses at the bonehead promising him what he'd do when he got his hands on the other. Everyone was laughing about it too as she shook her head to her Harmony was 'daddy's little girl' that was so true in this case. She didn't know what the future held for them, but what ever it was she wouldn't want this peace to fade away.

Epilogue

Jun wrapped his arms around her as she leaned into him, this was to be a well earned victory. She looked up at her beloved Sniper "I can't help but want to bring them both back and kill them again."she said

"I know my love the pain they have caused is beyond approach. The Admiral was way beyond her ONI pay grade to authorize something so vile."he said.

The evidence of Admiral Barrett was WAY out of line, using Spartan VI women who were wounded on Earth against their will to breed with Chief was enough to almost send Brittany's mother in a blood lust filled rage. Admiral Barrett forgot one thing though, Brittany and her family were not the people who took to kindly to being used by people. Brittany and Lord Hood had a plan not even he knew about the Freelancers would be used as bait to find out who it was that was doing something not even Halsey would force on anyone. He pulled away from her "Why didn't you talk to me about the plan?"he asked.

Brittany looked at him sadly "I'm sorry Jun, but I didn't want you to get involved in this."she said

"But I did."he replied.

She looked down at the ground, he looked at her "Brittany, your carrying our fourth child. I don't want anything to happen to you like it almost did when you were pregnant of the triplets."he said

"I'm like my father...I take risks that could get me hurt or worse killed,but thats who I am would you love me if I was any less?"she asked

"I love you for who you are Brittany, never on your life doubt that. I want to be with you for the rest of my life, but you scare the fuck out of me when you pull shit like that. I know your like your father at times. As much as it irks me that you do things like this. Next time please warn me a head of time."he said.

She looked up at him and nodded "I promise I will warn you next time."she said.

He nodded and leaned in to kiss her lips, how could he not love her. She was everything he wanted and more she had given him three wonderful children already and fourth that she now carried with in her. He placed a hand on her flat stumic knowing it would be a matter of months before she was swollen with their fourth child. He broke the kiss and took a knee pulling a small red velvet box from his pocket "I know I asked you before, but I figured I needed to get a ring to make it official."he said.

DXDXDXDXDXDXDX

Jun opened the box slowly to reveal a gold ring the setting was that of the NOBLE team emblem small sapphire and diamond colored the emblem. It was breath taking "Will you marry me?"he asked

"Yes Jun, yes I will marry you."she said.

He slipped the ring on her finger as he stood up, he picked her up bridle style and laid her on the bed and kissed her. She moaned as his hand roamed up her hip to the curve of her breast, Jun always knew how to set her body on fire with need and she knew how to cool it off as well. She let her left had rest on the back of his head while her right gripped his right ass cheek. He playfully growled at her as he broke the kiss "Brittany, you know better than to grip my ass."he said in a playful tone

"Oh and what are you going to do about it Spartan?"she asked.

He chuckled as he began to unbutton her shirt enough to slip his hand under to play with her breasts "Well, ma'am I was thinking of slowly torturing you having you beg for what I have to offer."he said

"Oh? And how do you...mmmmm."she said as his hand brushed against the soft skin of her right breast.

His lips touched her collarbone "What was that? I didn't quite catch that?"he asked.

DXDXDXDXDXDX

He loved playing this game with her he always won them in away, it was a win win thing they both got what they wanted and they were happy. Even though he loved to hear the Freelancer queen beg for him. She was naked beneath him while he was in his boxers "Pardon me while I whip this out."he said stripping nude his erection springing up out of the fabric.

She smiled and rolled her eyes "What am I going to do with you?"she asked

"Make love with me."he said.

He had never once called it sex, fuck, screw, or what ever Emile was calling it. He thrusted inside her, her soft gasp reached his ears as he began to move inside her in and out at first then a more faster pace. Her nails digging into his shoulders as she moaned his name, he kissed his beloved lone wolf and nuzzled her neck. She screamed his name as her climax crashed down on her and his followed.

DXDXDXDXDXDX

In the after glow she sighed and nuzzled into him closer "Jun?"she asked

"Yes baby?"he replied

"I have always wondered what would have happened if Emile didn't make us ware that cake."she said.

Jun chuckled "I have though that myself."he said

"Then why didn't you?"she asked

"I tried I just couldn't. I still kick myself for it this day."he said.

She looked up at him and kissed him "I love you Jun, and I will do so til I draw upon my last breath."she said

"As will I Brittany as will I."he said.

The two spartans who were to afraid to admit their feelings for the other, laid in bed in the comfort of the others arms. It took them four years one dead one alive to reunite in the end, but life for a spartan is never easy and soon they would be called upon again to save humanity...
